GERMANS HURL FURIOUS BLOW AT RUSSIANS

STRIKE ALONG NORTH SECTOR

Teutons Launch Offensive in Long-Neglected Religion.

EFFORT REPULSED, PETROGRAD CLAIMS

Somme Front Now Scene of Determined German Counter Attacks.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Rumania's stroke against the central powers in throwing a force across the Danube into Bulgaria is the outstanding feature in the current war news. Should this army prove to be of formidable size it will constitute a serious menace to Field Marshal von Mackensen's left flank and might easily force his retirement from the present front south of the Constanca-Tchernavoda railway. He already is being subjected to heavy pressure along this line the Russians and Rumanians, presumably in connection with the flanking operation.

The latest statement from Sofia minimizes the importance of the Rumanian invasion, mentioning the invading force as consisting of "several battalions" conveyed across the river in boats between Rustchuk and Turtukao. "Measures have been taken to attack this force," the official bulletin declares.

On the Somme front a period of determined counter attacks by the Germans appear to have set in. They have been striking back strongly at the British along the Pozieres-Bapaume road, working their way back in to the village of Eaucourt l'Abbaye, and today they are reported by Paris to have attempted heavy strokes at the French lines near Rancourt, north of Peronne. They were unable, however, to debouch from the St. Pierre Vaast wood, northeast of Rancourt Paris declares, being checked by the French curtain of fire and machine guns.

The Germans have opened an offensive along the northern sector in the Russian front—a long neglected quarter, according to Petrograd which chronicles an intense artillery bombardment in the region suoth of Dvinsk, followed by attacks by dense columns of Germans east of Novo Alexandrovsk. The attack was completely repulsed, according to the Russian account, the Germans being driven to their trenches without having forced their way beyond their own wire entanglements.

Desperate battles are in progress along the greater part of the front in Valhynia and Galicia, with Russian gains reported in the region near Zaturre, east of Vladimir-Volynski and drawn battles in the struggle for Lemburg, along the lines to the south, where the forces of the central powers are offering a stubborn resistance to the Russian attempts to break through.

Petrograd, Oct. 3.—German forces have taken the offensive south of Dvinsk, attacking the Russian lines in force near Novo Alexandrovsk, the war office announced today.

They were met by an intense defensive fire from the Russian guns, however, and forced back to their positions, the official statement declares.

In the region west of Lubka near Zaturze, the Russians have scored advances in stubborn fighting. In the Zloata Lipa district and along other sections of the front in Galicia fighting of a desperate nature is continuing neither side scoring any marked ad-

MILK FAMINE CLOSES IN ON NEW YORK CITY

But One-Half of Normal Supply in City as Result of Price Deadlock.

New York, Oct. 3.—Greatly decreased receipts of milk from the usual sources brought New York today to a realization of the seriousness of a possible milk famine. Nor was there any indication of a breaking of the deadlock between the distributors and the farmers over prices.

The big milk companies admitted that but approximately one-half their usual supply was received today and some of that came from long distances. Hospitals and children have been looked after by the distributors and so far no knowledge of serious shortage has come from any of the public institutions. Private families have received preference over stores and restaurants and consumers have been cautioned to conserve their supply.

The milk war, which originated with the organization of the Dairymen's league, has spread throughout the state. Reports from all parts of New York tell of thousands of gallons of milk spilled in combats between the dairymen had the employes of the distributors, the picketing of cross roads and dairy districts, farmers held up and beaten and the establishment of cheese manufacturies to dispose of the surplus resulting from the withholding of New York city's supplies.

Twenty deputies have been sworn in in Dutchess county to prevent raids of farmers upon their neighbors to compel them to hold back their product. This followed an attack on one man who was severely beaten while the deputy sheriff, who accompanied him, was held a prisoner, tied to a tree.

Masked farmers are reported to be patrolling the roads in several counties up state, seizing milk and dumping it. In some places the farmers are contributing funds to build co-operative creameries.

John J. Dillon, the state commissioner of foods and markets, who represents the league of farmers, estimates that not more than 25 per cent. of the normal amount of milk was shipped in to New York city for use today.

GERMAN VILLAGE FOR 744 INTERNED SAILORS

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—A German village is being constructed by the interned sailors of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the Kronprinz Wilhelm in a corner of the Philadelphia navy yard where they will live under a guard of United States marines until the close of the war.

When the two vessels were convoyed here from Norfolk a tract of about nine acres was set aside for the sailors along the back channel where their ships are anchored.

A small church, a windmill and farm buildings are being erected and the 744 men who were attached to the two vessels will organize a community patterned after a small town in Germany. They will raise vegetables in season and another tract has been laid out as an athletic field for their use.

Grabner. The affidavit was filed by Mr. Wilkinson, who says there will be others.

Gerber was charged with violating the compulsory school law. He resides in Washington township.

HUSBAND BASES DIVORCE SUIT ON WIFE'S STORY TOLD IN HER NOVEL.

MRS. ASTA ASCHE.

New York, Oct. 3.—When the spirit moved Mrs. Asta O'Connor Asche, 19, temporarily retired dancer and budding author, to write "Justice," a personal narrative said to be her "soul story," she had no idea it would receive its first public reading in a court of justice as basis of a suit for annulment of her marriage to Herman T. Asche, wealthy New York importer.

But that's what happened. "Justice" is on file in support of Asche's contention that the pretty dancer married him for his money.

Mrs. Asche, daughter of Andrew O'Connor, noted sculptor, separated from her husband six weeks after their marriage.

"Justice" is a novelette confession that she married Asche while she loved another, according to Asche's attorneys.

NEWSBOY AS A COURT EXAMPLE TO WAYWARD

Passaic, N. J., Oct. 3.—Isadore Schletter, a 1-year-old newsboy who has saved $800 from the sales of his papers, hereafter will be associated with Judge Costello in the administration of justice in the city court here. His career will be utilized by the judge as an example for the wayward boys brought before the court. When the boy appeared before the judge in a recent case the court asked him to come there again and tell the delinquent boys "what it means to go right," and how he succeeded. Isador promised to prepare a little speech to deliver to the boys whenever the judge desired.

COOK SAMUEL TAYLOR OF CO. E. COMES BACK

Four Other Members of Ft. Wayne Troop Will Soon Be Back Home.

Cook Samuel Taylor, of company E, First Indiana regiment, stationed at Llano Grande, Texas, has returned home after receiving a disability discharge. Four other members of the Fort Wayne company are also expected to arrive here within a few days. Mess Sergeant Arthur Nickerson and Private Henry Furthmiller started home Monday and Bugler Edward Taylor and Sergeant Clarence Grodrian are also expected to leave soon. The four have received their discharges on account of dependent relatives.

Cook Taylor has come back home in a worse shape than when he left. He had the misfortune of breaking his knee cap nearly two months ago and he was admitted as a patient at the army hospital at Houston on August 18. While a patient he contracted a slight touch of malaria and when he had recovered sufficiently to make the trip home he was given his discharge and transportation to Fort Wayne.

He is still unable to walk on his limb and the disease of the south has left him in a weakened condition. He will be confined to his home for at least a week. The physicians told him that his leg would give him trouble for at least a year.

SUBMARINES SHOWING ACTIVITY AT KIRKWALL

Aircraft Escorts Provided Now for Ships as They Put Out to Sea.

New York, Oct. 3.—Unusual activity of submarines at the port of Kirkwall, Scotland, including the use of aircraft as escorts for ships putting to sea, was reported by passengers arriving here today on the Danish steamship Heligolav from Bingen via Kirkwall, where the ship put in.

According to several of the passengers the harbor was almost crowded with undersea boats flying the British flag. Aeroplanes were darting about and hovering 500 feet over the city was a captive war balloon. When the steamer left port she was accompanied for about twenty miles by an armed aeroplane, the aviator keeping close to the ship and making a careful search of the water ahead of her.

NO SPEECHES ON PROGRAM

Fort Wayne Not Likely to Hear the President Tomorrow.

WILSON ADHERES TO ORIGINAL DECISION

Doesn't Want His Trip to Omaha Turned Into a Campaign Tour.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 3.—President Wilson was ready today for his first invasion of the middlewest since the campaign opened. He will leave here tonight for Omaha, going by way of Philadelphia and Chicago. He will speak in Omaha, Thursday night, returning to Shadow Lawn, Saturday morning.

Although many requests for the president to speak en route to Omaha have been received at the executive offices, no arrangements for any addresses have been made. He will travel in a private car attached to a regular train and only the regular short stops will be made. He is adhering strictly to his determination not to turn the trip into a campaign tour.

The president discussed the censorship of moving pictures today with William A. Brady and a committee. He said his mind was open on the subject and listened carefully to the arguments of the committee.

The president's trip will bring him into Fort Wayne over the Pennsylvania lines at 4:20 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for the regular five-minute stop of the train here.

GERMANY WILL BE ALL READY FOR TRADE WAR

U. S. Consul General Says She Expects America to Be Trade Friend.

New York, Oct. 3.—Germany will be ready for any trade war her enemies may wage against her after the end of hostilities in the field, says Gen. Henry H. Morgan, United States consul general at Hamburg, who has just returned from his post.

The general said that Germany expects America to be her closest trade associate after the war and that German business men are confident there will only be the most friendly business relations between the two nations.

German bankers will be in a position after the war to assist trade development in the fullest measure, continued General Morgan. He said Germany had sent little money out of the country for war expenses as compared to what the allies had sent to America and that the German store of gold will have a tendency to prevent any crippling of her ability to meet England in a struggle for world trade.

DECRIES HATE FOR GERMANS

Viscount Bryce Deplores the Spirit Manifest in England.

URGES A LEAGUE TO FORCE ARBITRATION

Former British Ambassador to U. S. Resents Talk of Trade War.

Birmingham, England, Oct. 3.—Viscount Bryce of Dechmont, former ambassador at Washington, addressing the congregational union today decried the spirit of hate against the Germans and the talk of a lasting trade war. In conclusion he advocated a league to restrain aggression and compel arbitration.

"If there is to be a recurrence of wars becoming more terrible with the unceasing advance of science," he said, "we may well despair of the future.

"To establish any machinery for preserving peace," continued Lord Bryce, "would be impossible without the cooperation of the neutral states, and especially the greatest of all the neutral states. We have been waiting and watching to see whether America would in view of the immense interests at stake, depart from her old policy of complete isolation and bear her part in the effort for securing a permanent alliance for peace. An influential league for that purpose has already been formed there and now two momentous events have happened,

AIRMAN IS PICKED UP AFTER NIGHT AT SEA

Boston, Oct. 3.—Lawrence B. Sperry, of New York, who started in a hydroaeroplane from the navy yard last evening for a short flight to Marblehead on the north shore, was picked up early today off Nantasket, on the south shore, by a granite-carrying steamer. He had not suffered during the night. The torpedo boat destroyer Warrington had been ordered out to search for the aviator.

Engine trouble developed after the start and Sperry stopped at West Lynn for repairs. Later the machine came about and alighted at the Point of Pines. A fresh start for Marblehead was made and as darkness gathered the hydroaeroplane was sighted, seemingly headed for the open sea. When daylight came it was seen by the crew of the steamer resting on the waves a few miles off shore. Sperry was unaccompanied.

DRAFT CLAUSE AND WAGE BENSON THEMES

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Allen Benson, socialist candidate for president of the United States, in a speech in the Music hall here last night attacked President Wilson's stand on the draft clause of the Hay-Chamberlain act and at the same time said that Mr. Hughes had remained silent relative to this question. "President Lincoln did not have or assume the right of draft, and President Wilson has never been given that right," Mr. Benson said, "if the people want the president to have this right, well and good, and if not, well and good, but the people should be permitted to say."

Mr. Benson also took up the question of the "living wage" and the high cost of living. He said that the working class deny that they are obtaining a living wage.

"If the wealthy class should be forced to live on wages now given to the working class, would they consider it a living wage under the existing cost of living?" asked Mr. Benson.

Mr. Benson left last night for Denver.

LIVING COST GOES HIGHER

Many Staples Now at Highest Point Touched Since Civil War.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 3.—Marked increase in cost of living is shown in the rising tendency of prices of food stuffs on October 1, reports of which are just being received at the department of agriculture from the principal markets of the country.

With flour selling at prices higher than at any time since the civil war, due principally to the shortage of the wheat crop this year, the cost of potatoes has mounted for the same reason. Meat prices continue to advance with prices paid for meat animals showing 24 per cent advance over a year ago.

Butter, eggs and cheese all are selling at higher prices for this time of the year than they were last year, and beans show an increase of more than 70 per cent over a year ago because of the short crop.

Onions are more than 50 per cent

HUNTERTOWN BLOCK THREATENED BY FIRE

Fort Wayne Firemen Called to Save Business Section of Village.

A business block at Huntertown, nine miles north of Fort Wayne, was threatened by fire, which burned a barn and garage shortly afternoon, Tuesday. All inhabitants of the village worked desperately, in a well organized bucket brigade, for thirty minutes, to save the business section of the town from the flames.

A large barn belonging to Dr. H. G. Erwin, and located directly back of his house, was totally destroyed. A frame garage belonging to R. J. Hillegass, merchant, was burned. All household goods were removed from the home of Dr. Erwin. Several times the house was thought to be on fire. The walls were scorched.

Destruction of all nearby buildings, which included several stores of the town, was threatened until Fort Wayne firemen arrived. The chemical wagon from No. 3 made the run to Huntertown in fifteen minutes. It was given out that the fire was under control soon after firemen aided in the battle against the flames.

Origin of the fire is unknown. When the blaze was discovered in the barn it was too late to save the structure. Few articles were stored in the barn. The large automobile, belonging to Hillegass was removed before the garage burned. Loss is estimated at $1,100.

Automobiles brought farmers from the districts bordering the village when the alarm had been sounded. More than 200 men were engaged in throwing water on the flames when Fort Wayne firemen arrived.

Christmas Goodies to Be Higher, Say the Dealers

Listen to this—Christmas goodies will cost more this year.

Fort Wayne commission men make the declaration, and they are in a better position to know than anybody else.

Already they are making preparations for the holidays. The winter's supply of nuts are being received. All nuts are slightly higher than they were last year. The wholesale price of California almonds will be about twenty cents. Filberts have risen from fourteen cents to seventeen cents a pound. Pecans formerly fourteen cents will bring about eighteen cents. Brazil nuts, once fifteen cents, will be twenty cents a pound, and English walnuts have risen to twenty-four cents a pound. There will be a few of the cheaper grades that will sell for less. Of course, these prices are not exactly accurate, but are sufficiently so to convince the consumer that even the Christmas goodies have advanced along with shoe shines, hair cuts, etc.

Several of the dealers declare that as a result of the advance they do not anticipate a s great a trade as in former years. The grocer will charge several cents a pound more than the wholesale price.

Honey will be practically unchanged at sixteen cents a section. Maple syrup will be expensive and hard to get. Another delicacy that is going to be hard to get is pure sweet cider.

'Tis said, however, that popcorn will be cheaper and this should be consoling, inasmuch as popcorn is very necessary at the Christmas season.

YOU SHOULDN'T "MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS"

Community Has Right to Expect More Than That, Says Fletcher.

You shouldn't "mind your own business." Your community has a right to expect more from you than that, and "minding your own business" is selfish, narrow, mean, shirking and wholly out of tune with the spirit that builds great cities and fine communities and that gets the most good out of life.

That was the message Thomas Brooks Fletcher, Ohio editor and noted American platform star, gave to Fort Wayne Rotarians Monday evening in the course of his address at the first fall dinner of the Rotarians at the Anthony hotel. For nearly an hour Mr. Fletcher, speaking in rapid-fire fashion and giving expression to old truths in original fashion while enlarging upon the new idea of civic purpose, told the Rotarians of "Town Team Work," in which there was no selfish mind-your-own-business attitude, but in which everybody pulled together in the effort to help along every good cause.

He declared that even mental attitude required financing, and the cost of financing a wrong mental attitude mounted up tremendously in paying for mistakes and for failure of the larger vision. No town, he declared, can rise above the level of the collective thought of its citizenship, and he scored the internal differences and the petty bickerings which sometimes retard town-building. He pleaded for the new idea in business based upon a moral responsibility for exact justice, and insisted that every man should be a "safe" man to do business with.

President Frank E. Bohn greeted the Rotarians on the resumption of the monthly dinners after the summer vacation, and introduced Lew G. Ellingham and Frank Hamilton, two new members of the club. During the remainder of the program E. W. Puckett presided as toastmaster, while the role of Sergeant-at-Arms Van B. Perrine for the evening was that of the typical policeman. In the course of the evening Rev. A. J. Folsom gave an inspiring recital of the doings of the recent international convention of Rotarians at Cincinnati.

ENGLISH GIRL OFFERS HER EYE TO SOLDIER

Would Sacrifice One Optic as Patriotic Duty to Her Country.

Paris, Oct. 3.—A young English girl has written to Dr. Rochon Duvigneaud, offering to give one of her eyes to a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. The girl, who lives in North Shields, had read a recent statement by Dr. Duvigneaud, one of the most famous oculists in France, that it was possible to save the sight of a man wounded in the eye by grafting a portion of the cornea of another person. In her letter she said:

"If you believe that there is one chance of success in a million I will give you one of my eyes for a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. I would prefer to give my eye to one to whom it would be especially useful, such as an inventor or an officer of great value.

"If my offer is accepted I shall consider myself under an obligation to you for permitting me to be of use to my country in the only way possible to me."

WATSON SPEAKS AT NEW HAVEN MEETING

Concluding a tour of Allen county Monday night with a speech in the town hall at New Haven, James E. Watson, republican candidate for the senate for the short term, spoke to a large audience. He discussed the tariff question and declared in his opinion the next president of the United States would be Charles Evans Hughes.

The speaker asserted the people of the couhtry were satisfied under a republican tariff that prosperity was brought about and that this prosperity would have been permanent had republicans been kept in power. "The interests of the country can best be conserved through the republican party," said Mr. Watson. He declared the people were ready to voice their approval of republican policies at the polls next November.

POLICE TAKEN OFF THE SUBWAY TRAINS

New York Authorities Believe Trouble There is Ended.

New York, Oct. 3.—Satisfied that there is little further danger of violence in the subway as a result of the street railway strike the police department today withdrew all policemen from strike duty on the underground trains. Since the strike began a policeman has ridden as a guard in the first car of virtually every train. The policemen, however, will be kept on station platforms for a few days longer.

Similar action, it is announced, will be taken with regard to the elevated trains as soon as the police have routed the small bands of strikers and sympathizers who have bombarded the trains from roof tops in the early morning hours.

Only one policeman instead of two hereafter will be assigned to each surface car. Emergency stations established for mounted policemen, when the general sympathetic strike was expected to materalize, have been abandoned.

The battleground of turbulent elements among the strikers has been transferred to Westchester county. The fight there centers in Mount Vernon, where an effort was made today to rescind the ordinance which prohibits the transit company from employing carmen who have not had fifteen days experience. The street railway company asserts that this ordinance prevents them from operating their cars.

Shortly after announcement was made that police guards were to be removed from the elevated lines, as well as the subway, three trains were attacked, one of them a Bronx subway express. A bullet, fired at a Third avenue elevated train, clipped a piece from the right ear of a passenger, Melville Wright, 40 years of age, and fell to the floor after penetrating a motorman's booth.

KILLED HUSBAND SO HE COULD WED WIDOW

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—Clarence Meyers, 23 years old, has confessed that he murdered William Travis, 43 years old, a well-to-do farmer, living near Fremont, Mich., last October, to make clear the way for his marriage to Travis' wife, 42 years old.

Travis' body, buried in a shallow grave, was unearthed Sunday and Meyers and Mrs. Travis, who were living on a farm near Grant, Mich., were placed under arrest. Just before Meyers was to be taken before a coroner's jury he broke down and confessed, exonerating Mrs. Travis of any part in the crime.

Mrs. Travis, he said, waited some time for her husband to return to her, and then consented to live with him.

TWO CARS COLLIDE.

Van Wert, O., Oct. 3.—An automobile collision, fortunately not serious, occurred west of the city, Sunday evening, when cars driven by Dr. C. D. Sidle, of Convoy, and Mr. Balyeat came together and suffered slight damage to axles and fenders. The Balyeat car was closely trailing another car and was not aware that the Sible roadster was about to pass in the opposite direction, although the latter car is said to have been nearly into the ditch. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lininger, of North Tyler street, had a very narrow escape from death or serious injury, late Saturday afternoon, when struck by an automobile driven by a young woman, at the corner of Main and Walnut streets. He was thrown from his bicycle and somewhat bruised but the wheels of the machine did not strike him. His bicycle was wrecked.

The center of the disturbance was estimated by the observer to have been about 3,900 miles from Washington. The second shock began at 12:02 o'clock this morning and lasted about ten minutes. JITNEY LAW IS SAFE CITY ATTORNEY SAYS

Ordinance Does Not Give Power of Discrimination to Controller.

"Our jitney ordinance will safely weather a legal storm," City Attorney Guy Colerick said when asked his opinion on the result of the attack to be launched in circuit court against the new traffic code.

"There are no valid reasons why the ordinance should be set aside. There is no strength to the argument that the ordinance gives the city comptroller too much power. The ordinance does not give him undue discriminating powers. It does not give the comptroller authority to say who shall and who shall not put up bond and who shall be protected and who considered jitney drivers.

"The new law only gives the comptroller authority to decide whether or not the bonds are in proper form; whether proper steps have been taken to secure bond and whether the bonds are properly given out. He has no right to determine the character of the drivers who shall be granted bond. The law does not give him that power. I am afraid that some people have been led to think that the ordinance does that, from the way it has been set out recently.

"The ordinance only gives the comptroller the right of seeing that the bonds are properly applied for and given out and that is a right he should have in any measure where bonds are embodied. It only gives the comptroller the right of protecting interests of his office.

"If the measure is to be attacked on that basis alone it is in no danger of being side tracked. I think the new ordinance is being attacked because it is not understood. It is a comprehensive law."

16 LOTS PURCHASED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Officials Choose Property in Harrison Hill and Driving Park.

At a purchase price of approximately $14,500, the Fort Wayne school board has closed a deal for sixteen lots and a residence in the north and south part of the city which will be used for future building purposes. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting held Monday night at 8 o'clock in Superintendent J. N. Study's office.

The rapid growth of the city, which will necessitate the erection of school buildings in the near future, was inducive in making the board take this action. The investment is considered a wise one by all interested in the schools of the city.

The ground purchased consists of six lots in Harrison Hill addition at the foot end of Harrison street. These lots adjoin the expansive playgrounds which have been dedicated to the city for public purposes. An acre of ground was also purchased in Driving Park addition facing State street, near Anthony boulevard, and a house and lot adjoining the Hoagland school property on Butler street.

The contract for the erection of the Clay school gymnasium was awarded to Charles R. Wermuth at a bid of $9,865. His bid was the lowest one opened. Other contractors who submitted bids are as follows: Henry Hilgemann, $13,-918; A. M. Young, $14,873; Henry Wahrenburg, $14,149; J. M. Henry, $11,-157, and Michael Kinder, $9,922. The Edmunds Electrical Construction company was awarded the contract for electric wiring at a bid of $119.

WANT THANKSGIVING CHANGED.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 3.—A movement to place the next Thanksgiving day on Nov. 23 instead of Nov. 30 was inaugurated here today by the Merchants' association of Kansas City. A telegram signed by the executive board of the organization was sent to President Wilson requesting the earlier date. Messages to retail organizations in twenty of the larger cities also were sent asking them to take similar action. The merchants say the holiday falling as it does this year on the last day of the month works a hardship both to them and to their customers, crowding all the Christmas business into three weeks.

Cites Wilson's Address.

"President Wilson delivered four months ago a powerful and luminous speech, in which he announced that the United States could not stand aloof from a movement in which the highest interests of manhood were concerned and that he felt sure the people of the United States were prepared to join in any feasible scheme for the prevention of future wars.

"Two months ago, Mr. Charles E. Hughes in accepting the nomination for the presidency by the republican party, declared with no less force and no less sincerity that he was convinced the time had come for America to unite with European countries in a well considered scheme for applying methods of arbitration and conciliation to securing general and permanent peace in the world.

Difficult, But Important.

"Thus the heads of the two great American parties, distinguished men and the official exponents of American opinion, have promised the co-operation of their nation in this project—one of great difficulty no doubt, but also of supreme importance.

"Our people and the statesmen who lead our people could have no greater encouragement to address themselves when the time comes for this enterprise which they have already pronounced to be necessary. I ask your help to bring the matter before the people and show them how much we and every nation have to gain by removing the terror and the danger of war, which so long has hung like a black cloud over Europe. The churches could do no more truly Christian work."

Lord Bryce said the country was virtually unanimous in holding that the war must be prosecuted to victory so complete as to open the prospect of an enduring peace. He declared that the precepts of Christianity coincide with those of political wisdom and that the churches should work for national unity and good feeling between the classes.

Urges Repression of Hatred.

"Let us avoid, let us repress the spirit of hatred," he said.

"We are justly indignant at the war the enemy powers have waged. We trust that our victory will warn the world that such methods must never be resorted to again and that those guilty of them will be punished. But is it wise to talk of banning a whole people for all time to come? The German people are under a harsh and tyrannous rule which has not only deceived, and misled them, but silences any protest—and arrest those who wish to protest—against its crimes. Some day we hope they will overthrow it, when they have learned the truth.

"To indulge in revenge will be to sow the seeds of future wars. Nations cannot hate one another forever, and the sooner they cease to do so the better for all of them. We must take all proper steps to defend ourselves from any dangers that might arise, if after the war the enemy countries were to resume an insidious hostility. That is at present no more than a possibility which may never arise.

"But the talk we now hear about starting after peace has been concluded a new war of trade to follow the war of arms has immense capacities for mischief. Such a trade war would prolong, would embitter afresh those hatreds that ought to be allowed to die, and it assumes a continuance of those very things from which we expect our victory to deliver us once for all. Our main purpose will have failed if we do not secure a durable peace."

vantage. In one sector the Russians took more than 1,000 prisoners and the total taken in this region is reported at 5,000 men.

VIOLENT FIGHTING RAGES.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Violent fighting has been in progress on the Somme front, north of Rancourt, the war office announced today. The French curtain of fire and machine guns, however, were effective in checking German attempts to debouch from the St. Pierre Vaast wood in this region.

The Serbians fighting in the Kaimakcalan region, on the Macedonian front, have made further progress, according to today's announcement, taking first line trenches from the Bulgarians and capturing another battery. Bulgarian attacks on British positions on the left bank of the Struma were repulsed, the Bulgarians sustaining heavy losses.

BULGARIANS IN RETREAT.

Sofia, Oct. 2., Via London, Sept. 3.—(6:50 a. m.)—A retreat by the Bulgarians in the Lake Presba region under heavy Serbian artillery fire is reported in an official statement issued by the war office referring to the Macedonian front. The statement adds: "In the Dobrudja two Russian divisions attempted twice to advance on the Bechavul-Amzatzia-Toprais Sari line but they were compelled to retreat under the fire of our artillery and infantry. There was quiet on the Black Sea coast."

A number of Rumanians who have invaded Bulgaria is placed at several battalions by the Bulgarian war office. A statement announcing the passage of the Danube by the invaders says: "On the Danube near Lizkoo, between Rustchuk and Turtukai, the enemy conveyed to our banks in boats several battalions. Measures have been taken to attack this force."

RETREAT IS CUT OFF.

Germans Destroy Pontoon Bridges Behind Invading Rumanians.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The war office announced today that Austrian and German monitors had destroyed the pontoon bridges across the Danube in the rear of the Rumanian forces which have crossed the river and invaded Bulgaria.

Official announcement was made here today that Austro-German troops in Transylvania in the region north of Fogaras had withdrawn before superior Rumanian forces.

BRITISH RAID GERMAN TRENCHES.

London, Oct. 3.—"The night was quiet south of the Ancre position on the Somme front," says the official report. "South of Loos our troops successfully raided enemy trenches."

Bulgarian counter attacks on the British forces which crossed the Struma on the Macedonian front were repulsed yesterday the war office announced today. The statement adds: "The royal flying corps carried out successful bombing attacks on troops in transport in Prosnika and on a railroad train traveling from there to Seres.

British naval aeroplanes yesterday made another attack on the German airship sheds in the vicinity of Brussels, according to a British official statement issued this afternoon. One of the British aeroplanes was lost. The text of the statement reads:

"A further attack was made yesterday by naval aeroplanes upon enemy airship shed in the vicinity of Brussels. One aeroplane failed to return."

Field Marshal von Mackensen, who commands the forces of the central allies operating against the Rumanians and Russians in the province of Dobrudja has ordered the evacuation of the Danube fortresses of Silistria and Turtukai, recently captured by the Teuton Bulgarian and Turkish forces, says a dispatch from Rome to the wireless press.

higher and cabbages more than 40 per cent higher. Prices paid to producers of farm products increased 9.3 cent during August while during the last eight years these prices have shown a decrease of about 2.1 per cent during that month. September began with the index figures of these prices 21.9 per cent higher than it was a year ago.

STAPLES 50 PER CENT. HIGHER.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Staple foods such as butter, eggs and cheese have in the last year advanced nearly 50 per cent in price on the Chicago market, according to reports today from dealers in provisions, and even greater increases are shown in the price of potatoes, cabbages and onions. Potatoes have more than tripled in value since a year ago, having advanced from 48 cents a bushel to $1.45. Cabbages are selling today for $3 a barrel as against 65 cents a year ago. Onions that sold at 60 cents a sack in 1915 are now bringing $1.35. Flour has increased more than 0 per cent in price.

The increased prices apepar in virtually all the vegetable and dairy foods the housewife daily requires for her table. When she goes marketing this season her check way well be at least twice what it was last fall.

The latest advances in food prices have been slight, but the general advance has been continuous, especially during the last two months.

Retailers declare they are not profiting by the advances, which they generally admit apply to virtually every article of food handled.

The price of flour—the grade called bakers' flour—was advanced ten cents a barrel today at $8.75. It was the third advance in three weeks. A year ago the flour sold for $5.25 a barrel. The price of standard Minnesota patents—the family grade of flour—is $9.10 a barrel, a 20 per cent increase within the last three weeks and an increase of $3.20 a barrel as compared with a year ago.

What are characterized s the highest prices ever known at this season of the year for butter and eggs at Chicago prevailed here today, according to reports from merchants. Extras in creamery butter sold at from 38 to 40 cents a pound as against 27 cents a year ago for the same grades. Eggs retailed around 47 cents a dozen, the same classification selling a year ago at 24½ to 24 cents.

Cheese dealers reported American cheese selling at 20 to 21½ cents a pound against 13½ to 14½ a year ago. Other food products showed as much or more appreciation in value, a notable instance being potatoes, which jobbed at $1.45 a bushel, as against 48 cents a year ago.

Coony's Cigars

Five Cents Straight in the Future.

Owing to an increase of wages to our cigarmakers and the increased cost of all materials entering into the manufacturing of our cigars, we are compelled to advance our selling prices, to the dealers, on our various brands.

Excellence of quality and workmanship has always been characteristic of our cigars and under the existing conditions, to maintain this same high standard of quality and workmanship and to prevent the impairing of our investment, no other alternative is open to us.

Coony's Little Havana and Coony's Broadleaf will, in the future, be sold to the consumer absolutely at 5 cents straight. We feel confident that the smokers of these popular brands, who have been buying them at six for a quarter, would rather pay 5 cents straight than for us to lower the quality of our goods.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Dreier & Meyer Drug Co.'s Sells It.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known down town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

Announcement of individual change of political allegiance is in no sense a novelty in American political campaigns. We invariably have with us those who are unable to longer follow, because of conscientious views regarding changed conditions, leadership to which they may have long subscribed. They are courageous enough from firm conviction to brave the assaults that are certain to be made and the insults that are sure to be hurled at them by those from whom, in the exercise of their own reasoning and in adherence to their own convictions as to the policy best for American citizenship, they have drawn apart, temporarily at least. They are seeking no reward, hoping for no personal gain and desiring nothing for themselves but a sharing in the common betterment they covet for their country.

The present campaign is supplying some conspicuous instances of this character. Thomas Alva Edison is one of them. Henry Ford is another, and it is the case of Mr. Ford, lifelong republican, that we wish to consider for a moment. There can be no questioning Mr. Ford's standing as an American business man who has built up not only an immensely successful industry through his own initiative, but who has amassed a fortune without the taint of suspicion on a dollar of it. He recently announced his purpose to support the president, and still more lately has amplified and emphasized it in citing anew the cause which impelled him to take this action.

Mr. Ford refuses to be confused by dust thrown in the air. He insists, and correctly, too, that the vital issues to be passed upon in November are "the record of the Wilson administration in domestic legislation and in conducting the foreign relations of the government." While unreservedly commending the president's stand on the eight-hour day law, Mr. Ford refuses to regard it as a vital issue. The emphasis of the case Mr. Ford puts upon the question of continued peace or of embroilment with foreign governments. Attacks upon the Wilson foreign policy, Mr. Ford points out, plainly by implication at least leave one to understand that something different is the purpose of Mr. Hughes—and what is desired that differs from the program of peace? Can there be any other answer than war?

But Mr. Ford sees some other elements in the case as well. He notes that the "stamp of Wall street, of the interests which see through dollar-marked spectacles and can think only in terms of selfishness" is lined up in opposition to the president. He has no patience with the claim of Mr. Wilson's foes that we are living in "a fool's paradise of temporary prosperity." He points to the federal reserve act, the trade commission act and the tariff commission act as efficient stabalizing forces given by the present administration to safeguard the future, and as evidence of the constructive accomplishment that merits support instead of wholesale censure. Mr. Ford is supporting the president because, as a hardheaded business man no less than an American citizen of lofty character and purpose, he is able to see very clearly his duty in the present contest.

Mr. Beveridge, erstwhile guardian of Mary-and-the-vine-clad cot, is preparing for a sweeping campaign tour of the west in the interest of Mr. Hughes, but "it is understood," reads the announcement from Indianapolis, "that Mr. Beveridge will not be heard in Indiana during the campaign." Which is a pity. It would be highly diverting, at least, to be able to note just how a protocol is able to work between Mr. Beveridge and those Indiana republican leaders whom he flayed in merciless fashion while leading the militant moose hosts but a few brief years ago. The arrangement that keeps Mr. Beveridge out of the Indiana campaign is evidence, at least, that neither he nor they have forgotten nor forgiven.

The city school board is displaying commendable far-sightedness in its purchase of tracts of land in the Harrison Hill and the Driving Park sections of the city as sites for schools in the future when the demand for them arises, as it most assuredly will in both instances. Nothing is more certain than that Fort Wayne will continue to grow and to expand in every direction. We have not always shown good judgment in preparation for the future, as witness the high prices which must now be paid for park and playground extensions and other land for public purposes in the older sections of the city. The provision for these schools has been made at a fraction of the cost of the same sites a few years hence.

The fact that railway earnings this year have been but 5.6 per cent net as against 3,000 per cent earned by one Detroit automobile concern on its capitalization seems to lend some support to the contention of Vice President Maxwell, of the Wabash, that rail rates need "overhauling." On second thought, however, it may be the automobile rates that are in most need of a bit of tinkering.

You have just one more week in which to prepare to attend to that matter of registration if you didn't vote two years ago, or if you have moved into another precinct since that time. Next Monday, October 9, is registration day—and the only registration day this year.

Two Famous Men Repudiate Hughes

BY W. S. U'REN.
"Father" of Direct Legislation and Prominent Oregon Attorney.

Judge Hughes' "deeds not words" speech stamps him as a dangerous man for president of the United States. "Deeds, not words," means fight first and talk afterwards. They did that in Europe two years ago and are fighting yet.

Do Americans need any such experience? Common sense tells us that it is better to use the supply of good words before doing the deeds that may mean war. America can get a fight anytime she wants it, even with crippled Mexico.

If Judge Hughes thinks his foresight is as good as his wonderful hind-sight, he should have told us what to do to avoid the railroad strike, and exactly what he would do with Mexico; also with the allies for interfering with neutral commerce and mails, and with Germany for refusing to explain the Owego shooting incident. On all of these he is silent.

I am a republican, but I shall vote for Wilson. We know he will exhaust all available good words before doing "deeds" that would justify war. We know his legislative record of things done for the direct election of United States senators, sailors' freedom, reserve banking, rural credits and the abolition of child labor.

BY FRANCIS J. HENEY.
San Francisco Graft Prosecutor and Progressive Party Organizer.

I shall not vote for any republican candidate for president hereafter as long as the corrupt control of the nominating machinery of the republican party is permitted to continue in existence.

Political freedom is a mockery under a system which permits a few unscrupulous manipulators and corruptors to defeat the will of millions of voters in any political party, by substituting the will of those few for the will of the voters.

What this country needs is a direct presidential preference primary law. And in one of President Wilson's first messages to congress he recommended the passage of such a measure. The press of important remedial legislation, however, has prevented this recommendation being carried out by congress. BUT I HAVE FAITH THAT PRESIDENT WILSON WILL ULTIMATELY BRING ABOUT THE ENACTMENT OF THIS GREAT REFORM INTO LAW, AND THIS IS THE MAIN REASON I AM PLEDGING MY SUPPORT FOR THE COMING ELECTION.

To my mind, the nomination of Mr. Charles E. Hughes as republican candidate for president represents the fruition of the political corruption which was so successfully practiced by the republican national committee four years ago under the guidance of a handful of political jugglers. For that reason I cannot vote for or support Mr. Hughes.

MONTH'S RECRUITING RECORD.

J. C. Mr. King says the poor showing is due to the great demand for labor and the high wages prevailing in all lines. The fall months are, as a rule, good ones for recruiting.

BIG MEETING HELD BY LEO DEMOCRATS

Congressman Cline Addresses Them Monday in Woodman Hall.

Directing emphasis to the constructive legislation which the democratic congress had enacted and showing that the people had given their approval of the administration of President Wilson in many ways, Congressman Cyrus Cline, Monday night, spoke before a rousing meeting of Leo democrats in the Woodman hall at that place. Every seat in the hall was occupied and many stood.

Henry Swartz presided at the meeting. Harry Muller discussed the national and state issues. Following Mr. Cline in speeches were Frank A. Emrick, prosecuting attorney, and J. A. McArdle, coroner.

Spoke at Cedar Creek.

Cyrus Cline, congressman, was also the speaker at a democratic meeting held at Cedar Creek Monday night, addressing a large crowd on the political situation from the standpoint of the tariff, the eight hour law and the manner in which President Wilson had kept the country at peace.

At a meeting held at Eel River school house Judge John H. Aiken and Louie Dunten were the speakers. They discussed national and state issues. At Leo, John C. Hoffman, deputy prosecutor, and Harry Muller were the speakers.

Mr. Cline's Address.

Mr. Cline said in part in his Leo speech:

"I want to discuss some of the numerous acts the democratic administration has written upon the statute books for the especial benefit of the farmer," said Mr. Cline. "They constitute the greatest constructive scheme ever conceived and written into law by any party. The most important of them all is the federal reserve act—the new currency system. In my opinion the present prosperity—nation wide—is bottomed upon the currency law. For fourteen years before we came into power the republican party was in exclusive control of every branch of the government. The people lost confidence in business because it was hampered by an unyielding system that produced periodically, panic and disaster. The democratic party set about immediately after the revision of the tariff that the country might be rid of the Payne-Aldrich bill, to give the country a new currency system. The country was divided into twelve great regional districts and a great bank located in each district with auxiliary or member banks in every county in the respective districts so that in its operation the system should get into direct touch with the necessities of the people. We passed that law late in 1913. It took well toward a year to get the machinery into operation. Before it was actually a working force in our fiscal affairs the great European war broke out. You are all familiar with what it has done for the country in this calamity. What was the very first effect we sought in this legislation? To break up the private control of the surplus cash of the country and consequently the control of the credit of the nation. We destroyed the influence of Wall street in our fiscal affairs and placed the surplus cash of the country in immediate touch with business.

Commercial Values Shrank.

"You know what always happens when we have 'tight money' or when money is 'close.' It means shrinkage in values, unsteady business, feverish uncertainty, a loss of stability in values. The democratic party set about to remedy that condition and it has done it effectually. The iniquity of the republican system under which business staggered for years is best demonstrated by the panic of 1907, when on an October day business and commercial values shrank fifty per cent, in twenty-four hours. The republican platform of 1908 said:

"'Marvelous growth of wealth and population, multiplying centers of distribution, increasing demand for movement of crops in south and west, the entailing of periodical changes in the monetary conditions, disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system.'

"Mr. Taft and his party came into power on that platform, but during the four years not an effective act was passed to avert the panic of 1907. In its platform of 1912, the republican party again said:

"'We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of business and the welfare of labor by producing continuous employment.'

"I want to call your attention to the federal farm loan act providing for the borrowing by farmers of money on long time and a low rate of interest, one of the most valuable pieces of legislation to the farm the democratic party has passed. Do you want these laws replaced? Our opponents say all this legislation must be wiped off the statute books. It is your business to know where the candidates for congress of all parties who are asking for your support, stand on these questions. 'Pussyfooting' with the great fundamentals shall not be permitted any candidate for congress if I can prevent it. It is my right to ask where the man stands on great vital questions who wants my vote and it is your right as well. What laws would my opponent repeal if he had the power?"

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

BIG MEETING HELD BY LEO DEMOCRATS

Congressman Cline Addresses Them Monday in Woodman Hall.

Directing emphasis to the constructive legislation which the democratic congress had enacted and showing that the people had given their approval of the administration of President Wilson in many ways, Congressman Cyrus Cline, Monday night, spoke before a rousing meeting of Leo democrats in the Woodman hall at that place. Every seat in the hall was occupied and many stood.

Henry Swartz presided at the meeting. Harry Muller discussed the national and state issues. Following Mr. Cline in speeches were Frank A. Emrick, prosecuting attorney, and J. A. McArdle, coroner.

Spoke at Cedar Creek.

Cyrus Cline, congressman, was also the speaker at a democratic meeting held at Cedar Creek Monday night, addressing a large crowd on the political situation from the standpoint of the tariff, the eight hour law and the manner in which President Wilson had kept the country at peace.

At a meeting held at Eel River school house Judge John H. Aiken and Louie Dunten were the speakers. They discussed national and state issues. At Leo, John C. Hoffman, deputy prosecutor, and Harry Muller were the speakers.

Mr. Cline's Address.

Mr. Cline said in part in his Leo speech:

"I want to discuss some of the numerous acts the democratic administration has written upon the statute books for the especial benefit of the farmer," said Mr. Cline. "They constitute the greatest constructive scheme ever conceived and written into law by any party. The most important of them all is the federal reserve act—the new currency system. In my opinion the present prosperity—nation wide—is bottomed upon the currency law. For fourteen years before we came into power the republican party was in exclusive control of every branch of the government. The people lost confidence in business because it was hampered by an unyielding system that produced periodically, panic and disaster. The democratic party set about immediately after the revision of the tariff that the country might be rid of the Payne-Aldrich bill, to give the country a new currency system. The country was divided into twelve great regional districts and a great bank located in each district with auxiliary or member banks in every county in the respective districts so that in its operation the system should get into direct touch with the necessities of the people. We passed that law late in 1913. It took well toward a year to get the machinery into operation. Before it was actually a working force in our fiscal affairs the great European war broke out. You are all familiar with what it has done for the country in this calamity. What was the very first effect we sought in this legislation? To break up the private control of the surplus cash of the country and consequently the control of the credit of the nation. We destroyed the influence of Wall street in our fiscal affairs and placed the surplus cash of the country in immediate touch with business.

Commercial Values Shrank.

"You know what always happens when we have 'tight money' or when money is 'close.' It means shrinkage in values, unsteady business, feverish uncertainty, a loss of stability in values. The democratic party set about to remedy that condition and it has done it effectually. The iniquity of the republican system under which business staggered for years is best demonstrated by the panic of 1907, when on an October day business and commercial values shrank fifty per cent, in twenty-four hours. The republican platform of 1908 said:

"'Marvelous growth of wealth and population, multiplying centers of distribution, increasing demand for movement of crops in south and west, the entailing of periodical changes in the monetary conditions, disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system.'

"Mr. Taft and his party came into power on that platform, but during the four years not an effective act was passed to avert the panic of 1907. In its platform of 1912, the republican party again said:

"'We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of business and the welfare of labor by producing continuous employment.'

"I want to call your attention to the federal farm loan act providing for the borrowing by farmers of money on long time and a low rate of interest, one of the most valuable pieces of legislation to the farm the democratic party has passed. Do you want these laws replaced? Our opponents say all this legislation must be wiped off the statute books. It is your business to know where the candidates for congress of all parties who are asking for your support, stand on these questions. 'Pussyfooting' with the great fundamentals shall not be permitted any candidate for congress if I can prevent it. It is my right to ask where the man stands on great vital questions who wants my vote and it is your right as well. What laws would my opponent repeal if he had the power?"

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

WOODED LOTS FEATURE OF LAFAYETTE PLACE

Many wooded lots, although they have been exceedingly scarce on the south side heretofore, may now be secured by those planning future homes in Lafayette Place, the gardenlike addition bounded by Calhoun street and Lafayette street, McKinnie avenue and Pettit avenue, and despite the demand for these lots they are still selling at prices which may be regarded as very reasonable. On these wooded lots the original growth of trees is still intact and they are bound to make ideal home sites for those who are wise enough to take advantage of the opportunity now afforded to prospective purchasers. Misses Ruth and Hilda Lanternier, of Anthony boulevard, gave a beautiful pre-nuptial party last evening as a compliment to Miss Antoinette Meehan. The Misses Lanternier had made beautiful and extensive arrangements for the entertainment of the eleven guests and the lovely decorations in green and white and gifts of china from the company all helped out the pleasure of Miss Meehan and her friends. The supper table was done with a colonial wicker basket filled with white Killarney roses and plumosus, and Miss Meehan's place was indicated by a corsage of roses. The place cards were water color drawings while Miss Mechan's place had a white wedding bell above her chair with festoons of green tulle coming down to the chair and held to its arms with butterfly bows. On the table were white candles in crystal holders tied with bows of green and the menu was planned to carry out the same coloring as the decoration. During the evening the company sewed and visited. Miss Monica Bueter will be a hostess during the week for Miss Meehan.

Nichter—Schnieders.

A beautiful wedding in St. Andrew's Catholic church of Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, was that of Miss Anna Schnieders, who was married to Mr. Frank Nichter by Rev. Father F. T. Faust, of Alexandria, who is a cousin of the groom. Father Faust also celebrated the nuptial mass. Miss Clara Nichter, a sister to the groom, and Mr. Clement Schnieders, a brother to the bride, were the attendants. Little Beatrice Orth, a niece of the bride was as sweet looking as could be, dressed in white and with a basket of sunkist roses in her hands, she preceded the bride as flower girl. The bride wore a good looking gown of white crepe de chine combined with georgette crepe. A veil of tulle was held to her hair with a tiny cluster of swansonia blossoms on each side and a shower bouquet of bride roses and swansonia blossoms made up the lovely costume and was very becoming to the sweet face of the bride. Miss Nichter was gowned in yellow, her dress of canary color crepe de chine and Georgette being trimmed with satin ribbons while in her hair a wreath effect of sunset roses and a bouquet of the beautiful yellow blossoms for her hands, made a stunning effect. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Orth, 2516 New Haven avenue, to immediate relatives and near friends. Among the guests was an uncle of the bride, Mr. John W. Schnieders, of Pittsburg. WORLD'S GREATEST BASSO HERE SOON

Jose Mardones With Boston-National Grand Opera Company.

Jose Mardones, who is universally recognized by critics and music lovers as the world's greatest basso, is again this season with the Boston National Grand Opera company, and will appear with that organization in this city

JOSE MARDONES.

Thursday, Oct. 12, at the Palace theater.

Critics have not hesitated to assert that there has been no basso profundo who could approach him in vocal and histrionic attainments since the late Pol Plancon was in his prime. Mardones, like so many other singers of first magnitude, began his work as a church soloist and singer of oratorio. He gained considerable note in his native Spain in this musical work. Then came operatic engagements in Lisbon, Rome, Turin and Buenos Aires. Coming to the United States he appeared with Alice Nielsen and Luisa Tetrazzini. His success was instant.

With the Boston National Grand Opera company he sings the leading basso roles. His Mephistopheles in "Faust" is, of course, vocally superb, but he also contributes to grand opera an interpretation which, on its dramatic side, presents a different artistic conception. His other interpretations are equally well known.

AT THE PALACE

EAR CARESSING HARMONY.

Burt LaMont's Singers Scoring at the New Palace.

The ear caressing harmony which the Burt LaMont frontier singers are creating at the New Palace, in what they style a "round up" of mirth and melody," is proving one of the season's hits. The act, which is arranged to depict a group of cow boys and cow girls gathered at the ranch house after a day's work, whiling away an evening in song and story, is a beautifully conceived bit of vaudeville. Without exception the voices are consequential.

Ethel Mae Barker's violin, curls and smile have entangled Fort Wayne. This winsome miss with the eloquent violin, has a splendid repertoire of numbers, in all of which she is assisted by her own accompanist. A dramatic sketch with a strong bit of character acting as its forte, is the playlet "The Right Man," in which a trio of players are proving that a vaudeville audience is just as willing to cry as anything else, just so its woe is sugar coated. Clayton and Lennie's skit is an amusing bit of absurd banter that closed with a difficult character comedy song. Frevoli is opening this bill with his shadowgraphic novelty, while the Oxford Trio close it with a game of basket ball on bicycles.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"Experience" Tuesday Evening and Matinee and Night Wednesday.

A most notable engagement at the Majestic theatre tonight will be George V. Hobart's modern morality drama, "Experience." There will be two night performances with a matinee tomorrow. This is one of the largest theatrical organizations that has been booked in Fort Wayne in the past ten years and the demand for reserved seats has been exceptionally large. William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, the producers of "Experience," will send the famous New York "Experience" organization here with its cast of 82 notable players. In ten brilliant and spectacular scenes, "Experience" stirringly tells the adventures of Youth and the temptations he meets in quest of fame and fortune. The ladies in the Golden Cabaret scene of "Experience" are said by the critics to have set a new standard of delightful girlhood, for the stage.

"Ramona" Unique in Stageland.

Occupying an unique position in the amusement world because of the novel character of the performance, which is a combined cinema, operatic spectacle, "Ramona," will have special claim for interest of local theatregoers when it is presented here at the Majestic for one week, starting Monday, October 16.

The dramatic version of Helen Hunt Jackson's widely read story of the government's ill-treatment of the Mission Indians of California and of the romance of Alessandro, the aborigine, for Ramona, the half-breed, possesses great fascination for the threatregoers of every class and creed with the result that it is enjoying prosperity as one of the solid, substantial successes of the season.

Sergeant August Kowalski, in charge of the Fort Wayne army recruiting station has returned from Detroit where he attended the funeral of his father, Christian Kowalski. His father died last week and funeral services were held Sunday.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Crowds attending the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego constituted a good field for counterfeiters and 61 arrests on charges of manufacturing bogus money were made in California by secret service agents according to a treasury department report made public today covering the fiscal year ended June 30. In no other states were so many cases uncovered. Of the 417 arrests of supposed counterfeiters, 229 resulted in convictions, 9 in acquittals, 114 cases are pending and 55 were lost in other ways. THE WILD GARDEN AT UNDERLEY HALL

By Thomas H. Mawson, Hon. A. R. I. B. A. and Special Lecturer on Landscape Design at the University of Liverpool.

Ten miles from the original home of George Washington's ancestors at Warton, England, is Underley Hall, famous for its wild gardens. Beautiful natural flora abound in these famous gardens, and they have become one of the many big scenic spots of the old English halls. Wild gardens are becoming more and more popular in America, and this English author's pictures of the Underley gardens, accompanied by photographs, including a full page frontispiece view, will prove interesting for American garden lovers. The author has been commissioned on the personal recommendation of the King and Queen of the Hellenes to prepare comprehensive plans for the extension, remodeling and beautification of the City of Athens.

This interesting article will be found only in the Autumn issue of THE WILDWOOD MAGAZINE. On sale Saturday, October 7. 15c or by mail 50c per year.

FIVE HURT WHEN AUTO TURNS OVER

Big Car Tumbles Into Ditch Three Miles South of City.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Leneman, 1120 Hugh street, and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hattle and small daughter, 129 West Butler street, were in the Lutheran hospital until Tuesday morning as the result of the automobile in which they were riding turniug over in the ditch Monday night. The accident occurred on the Decatur road, three miles south of Fort Wayne.

Leneman was at the wheel and was driving slowly. Loose sand in the road caused the car to skid to the edge of the ditch and tumble over. All members of the party sustained bruises and cuts. Mrs. Leneman had her face badly cut in several places and her husband's hands were lacerated by the flying glass. Mr. Hattle suffered a fractured rib.

A taxi was summoned from a nearby farm house to bring members of the party to the hospital. Dr. A. L. Schneider and E. H. Underwood were summoned. The automobile was wrecked. The hood of the car was mashed, fenders torn off and the top demolished.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders for months. It belongs in your home. It belongs in your office. [illegible]

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

WHO GOT FLOWERS? THESE, SAY POLICE

Turn in Names of Persons Alleged to Have Looted Hayden Park Beds.

Names of citizens who are alleged to have removed several hundred flower bulbs and shrubbery from Hayden park, Friday evening at dusk, were turned in to the park board by Detective Sergeant Rundell Tuesday.

Park board members will determine the nature of the charge to be placed against the several sersons who took the flowers and hedge. Prosecution in some form is sure to follow, members of the park board say.

Police have promised to turn in more names this week as definite clue has been found, they say, which shows that residents of the eastern part of the city removed the plants.

Will Stop Football Playing.

Schooi lads who aspire to become future "human bullets," must practice "punting" and the "flying wedge" out in the open places, the park board has ordered. Police have been notified to keep the lads from trampling the shrubbery and tearing up the sod by their football practice in Williams park, on South Calhoun street; Hayden park, on East Jefferson street, and McCulloch park, on Broadway.

It is not an effort on the part of the park board to stop playing of the game of football. The board invites boys to play in Lawton, Swinney and Foster parks, where there are open spaces especially provided for out door sport. The boys have wrought much damage to flowers and hedge in their effort to block passes and make end runs in the small parks.

The bicycle path at Swinney park will be known as a "bridle" path for the remainder of the year. The board took action to this effect Monday at the request of several citizens, who have taken to the saddle for brisk autumn exercise.

PLAYGROUND IN STREET.

Part of South Clinton Street Will Temporarily be Used.

Clinton street, from Pontiac street to Woodland avenue, will be used as a playground during construction of the new Hamilton school. Traffic will be barred from the street a part of the day while the children take their outdoor exercise. Permission to use the street, until debris can be removed from the regular playground, was granted the school board by the board of public works, Monday afternoon.

Assessment rolls for the following improvements were approved by the works board: Grading Meridian street, from Huffman street to the first alley south of Putnam street; sidewalks on both sides of Monroe street, from Lewis street to Madison street; sidewalks on both sides of Webster street, from Grand street to Brandriff street; paving Second street, from Harrison street to Cass street; paving St. Joe boulevard, from a point eighty feet south of McDaugall avenue to State boulevard; paving Crescent avenue, from Lake avenue to Columbia avenue.

MAY NOT ATTACK LAW.

Bus Drivers Who Run Outside of City Are Not Affected.

The new jitney ordinance may be saved from legal attack. At least it is highly probable that the law firm of Ryan and Ryan will bring no action against the city to test the latest law.

Controller Baade says that operators of bus lines running to points outside the city, such as the New Haven, Churubusco and other auto transit lines, will not be taxed. They are to pay only if they engage in hauling citizens from one point to another within the city limits.

Plaintiffs in the proposed action against the city were all drivers of these cross country transfer autos. If no action is taken against these men the firm of Ryan and Ryan will institute no suit against the law, they give out. No other law firms have expressed intentions of testing the traffic measure.

Meanwhile the jitney law is being enforced. Police are notifying drivers that they must apply for bond at once. More than seventy drivers have filed petitions for bond with Controller Baade.

CITY PLANNING SHOW PLANS TAKING SHAPE

Committees Arrange for Different Days for Organizations.

City planning exhibit, to be offered Fort Wayne for six days, starting October 7, will be opened with a regular meeting of the Woman's Club League, under whose auspices the exhibit is being put on, in the assembly hall of the court house, next Saturday afternoon, according to announcement made by John E. Lathrope, director of the exhibit.

The general committee is arranging for various organizations of the city in commercial and religious circles to attend the exhibit in a body, and the city has responded well to the request for co-operation. Mr. Lathrope says in the announcement that a band concert will be given by the park board at the court house on Saturday night.

Churches Are Interested.

On Sunday, October 8, Mr. Lathrope will speak at the Plymouth Congregational church at night. But all of the churches of the city are to be asked to dismiss their congregations ten minutes earlier Sunday night in order that a mass meeting of church workers of the city may be held on the court house square. This meeting, the city planning director expects to make one of the largest of its kind ever held in the city.

Ministers to Attend.

It is probable that the members of the Fort Wayne Ministerial association will either hold their regular weekly meeting at the court house in connection with the city planning exhibit or at least attend the exhibit in a body on Monday at the conclusion of their session. Mr. Lathrope expects and now can see ahead the co-operation of the churches. He says the plan to hold a mass meeting in the open in connection with the city planning exhibit at Newark, N. Y., worked splendidly.

Recognize the Day.

Fire prevention day, which was set aside by proclamation by Governor Ralston for this state for October 9, will be recognized by the city planning committee. Mr. Lathrope pointed to the great check which city planning offered to fires of all kinds. Fire prevention, he said, was a great desire of the business man because it reduced his insurance if he could find means of safeguarding his premises against fire. The city planning director showed how fire prevention was also essential to the laboring man with a small home. He said city planning was a distinct aid to fire prevention in reducing waste and giving system to the home.

Is Doing Decorating.

Miss Rhoda Braddock is in charge of the committee which is to do the decorating of the court house for the exhibit. The park board of the city is also co-operating in making the decorations. The public library will have a section at the exhibit with an assistant in charge in addition to the librarian.

Commercial Bodies Going.

It is announced that the Rotary club, Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange and the city schools will all be represented at the exhibit. Many of the realty dealers who will be here to attend the session of the district association of real estate dealers will also attend the exhibit. The Rotary club has asked Mr. Lathrope to address it as has the Quest club.

Schools Taking Part.

The city schools, through Prof. Justin N. Study, superintendent of the city schools, will attend the exhibit in a body. Mr. Lathrope will address a mass meeting of high school pupils as soon as Prof. Louis Ward can make arrangements for the meeting. The city school pupils will attend the exhibit in charge of their respective teachers. Mr. Lathrope is well pleased with the manner in which the various commercial bodies are responding to the call for co-operation and the program for the week is being rapidly worked out by the assistance of committees from each line of the city's activity.

LANCASTER MYSTERY IS NOT YET SOLVED

Lancaster, O., Oct. 3.—Interest in the mysterious death here Sunday of the three maiden women whose bodies were found by neighbors seated in rocking chairs in positions indicating that death had overtaken them during a conversation, today centered in Columbus, where chemists were making an investigation of the women's stomachs and a piece of pie found in the house, in an effort to find traces of poison.

Local authorities have announced that they have found no motive for murder; that they believe a suicide theory out of the question and that they have found no leaky gas pipes or stoves. They declare it highly improbable that all three women died natural deaths at or about the same time.

FIRST BASKETBALL INJURY OF THE YEAR

Ernest Fruechte, 2720 Broadway, is Fort Wayne's first basketball victim of this year. His left ankle was badly sprained, Monday night, while in pratice. Fruechte is the mainstay of one of the local amateur teams. He may be kept from the early games by the injury.

A Hard Nut To Crack!

SEEK INFORMATION ON FREIGHT RATE MAKING

Questions Are Fired at Wabash Man in Hearing at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—Questions seeking information on the method by which railroads determine the basic rate for hauling freight were asked at today's hearing on the intra-state freight rates before the Indiana public service commission. Members of the service commission asked the questions. W. C. Maxwell, vice president of the Wabash railroad, was on the witness stand.

He testified the roads had adopted a basic rate of 3 cents a hundred pounds for a haul of five miles of sixth-class freight. The question was asked whether the 3 cent basic rate had been adopted arbitrarily or after scientific investigation.

"We know that the railroads did not prosper upon the 3 cent rate," Maxwell said. The proposed schedules, it was said, mean a slight decrease in some of the present rates, but higher in most of them. Mr. Maxwell testified that under the proposed revised rates Indianapolis shippers would have an advantage over shippers in competing cities.

The young democrats of Jefferson township will give an old fashioned pole raising Thursday evening, October 5, at Zulu. Great preparations are being made for the event, which in Jefferson township will be one of the big meetings of the campaign. Harry Muller and Stephen A. The hunt will be resumed as soon as the winter storms are over.

The frost-kissed leaves rustle in the breeze of a fine fall day filled to overflowing with the richest of sunshine and signify their gladness of dress up week. The weather man has been very considerate in the choice of weather for this week and has sent the kind that will permit the youth to don his nobby suit and wear his silk hose. The ladies as well are pleased, and a walk down the streets will convince one that the weather is surely great, that is, judging from the number of "V" waists and brief skirts.

The thermometer reached the 77 degree mark Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The weather man also promises to give Fort Wayne people a further taste of splendid weather. Wednesday will be another fair day.

JUDGE LANDIS WARNS OF CROOKS IN COURT CROWD

About Six Honest Men in Throng of Spectators, He Declares.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Probable prosecution in the federal court of members of the alleged race track gambling syndicate uncovered in an inquiry before Federal Judge Landis was intimated today by Charles F. Clyne, United States district attorney. He said the fact brought out by Judge Landis that telephone and telegraph wires had been used by the gamblers in the transaction of their business gave federal authorities jurisdiction. Judge Landis today continued his efforts to bring out more facts concerning the syndicate.

Judge Landis, hearing that spectators in his court had their pockets picked yesterday, warned witnesses to keep their hands on their pocketbooks. Viewing the crowd which packed the court room the judge said: "In that audience back there, there are probably about six honest men if that many. Most of them are pickpockets and crooks."

E. F. YARNELLE TALKS TO BUSINESS STUDENTS

The first of a series of lectures to students of the International Business college by prominent and successful business men was given Tuesday morning by E. F. Yarnelle, of Mossman, Yarnelle & Co.

Mr. Yarnelle gave a very interesting and instructive talk throughout, dealing chiefly upon two points: The unprecedented opportunities in business for efficient and capable young men and women, and the necessity for constant, careful attention to the things of each day that young people may repay in respect and devotion, if not in the coin of this realm, the parents who have even in these more prosperous days sacrificed much to afford their boys and girls the advantage of a commercial education and business training.

Ultimate success does not come all at once in some future day, but is the aggregate of the successful days of youth. Each day must be a success—a brick in the "temple of success."

The series of lectures have been arranged by Prof. Staples, president of the International Business college.

National Title May Be Decided Today

The Real Lady Sets Two New Records

Industrial League Bowlers To Start

NATIONAL TITLE MAY BE DECIDED TUESDAY

Brooklyn Must Win One and Philadelphia Lose Two to Settle It.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Settlement of the title of the championship in the National league today is a possibility but in order to bring about this result Brooklyn must win from New York and Philadelphia must lose two games to Boston. This result would give Brooklyn 93 victories and 59 defeats, with 94 victories and 61 defeats for Philadelphia. By winning their two remaining games the champions would still be short, even if Brooklyn lost two. Should Brooklyn win the next three games there would be no chance for Philadelphia to catch up. Brooklyn has three more games with New York and Philadelphia four with Boston. From a percentage standpoint if each team wins all of its games Brooklyn will lead by one point. If Brooklyn loses three games Philadelphia will have to break even to take the lead. If each team loses one game Brooklyn will lead by two points. If each team loses two games Brooklyn will lead by three points.

In the American league Philadelphia is to play the pennant winner at Boston, while Washington will try conclusions at New York.

AFTER A VICTORY.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 3.—Yesterday's practice was the most desultory of the season. A number of men were bunged up from the Case game Saturday and did not report. Slackford, Malone and "Chet" Grant did not don their togs, while Capt. Cofall and Bergman were out just long enough to loosen up a little. The "Cap" has not entirely recovered from a slight sick spell last week. Bergman was just able to hobble about yesterday after severely wrenching his right ankle Saturday. The two star halfbacks were given a rest by Coach Harper because he is anxious to have them at their best against Western Reserve in Cleveland Saturday. The Ohio metropolis is the home of Capt. Cofall.

WRITER, IN UNIFORM, SITS ON BENCH AND LEARNS HOW TEAM IS WINNING WAY INTO WORLD'S SERIES

Brooklyn Club is Just a Big, Happy Family, Fathered by a Giant-Hearted Fat Man, Says The Sentinel's Expert, Who Gets Inside Dope by Posing as a Player.

(The first of four articles telling how the Brooklyn Robins are winning their way into a world series, written by Harold Johnson, The Sentinel special sport writer, who sat on the Brooklyn bench during several days to get the real inside dope on how they are doing it. Johnson got into a Brooklyn uniform and, disguised as a player, eluded the umpires, who are under strict orders to keep "outsiders" off the grounds during games.—Editor).

(By Harold Johnson.)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A great big, happy family, fathered by a giant-hearted fat man!.

That's my impression of the Brooklyn Robins, prospective National league pennant winners, and principals in the 1916 world's series, gained from a seat on the bench alongside Wilbert Robinson and his men at Ebbets field.

I asked Robinson for permission to get into uniform, sit on the bench and study his methods and those of the coming champions during the pennant drive. He finally granted the request.

It's game time. The good natured joshing and horseplay of the preliminary practice suddenly gives way to seriousness.

My first hunch with the clanging of the starting gong was that I had invited myself to witness a battle of wits, plus strength, in which twenty-five veterans and budding stars would match their craft and brawn against the same number of rivals.

Everywhere on the bench and within the Brooklyn dugout there is an atmosphere of cold blooded business. The bats, balls, gloves, sweaters, the ice cooler and the club trainer are all necessary adjuncts.

The contact of countless spikes is registered, scarlike, all over the woodwork and cement. As their wearers sidle about these same spikes give off a metallic, clattering noise which grates on one's nerves.

Weird odors permeate the ozone, the aroma, if you would call it that, combining the smell of sweaty flannel and the magic contents of the half opened grip of the trainer. I peered into the little black hand-ambulance packed systematically with fifty different kinds of bandages, bottles, phials and instruments. Bone bruises, spike wounds, the beanball, heat, etc., require prompt medical attention.

Comedy is a minus quantity on the pennant winner's bench. These Brooklyn boys are too engrossed in the pastime to indulge in humor.

And they don't need scorecards to refresh their memories. They can tell in detail what every hostile batter has done of the plate during a game, the sort of ball he hits best, whether it be a spitter, a curve, a fast one, high or low; the count on the hitter when he connected and whether he hit with men on the sacks or with the sacks empty.

There's a wealth of gray matter assembled here. In the main, Robbie's troops are seasoned veterans who have learned their lessons under other leaders but who readily adapt themselves to the code outlined by their portly pilot.

Jack Coombs is Robbie's right bower and the master mind of the iron man, schooled under Connie Mack, has been a vital factor in the Robin rise.

On the bench with the pennant chasers—Harold Johnson, The Sentinel special sport writer, at left, in the uniform of a Brooklyn player, on the Brooklyn bench, next to Manager Robinson and Jimmy Johnston, the outfielder. Johnson was on the Brooklyn bench several days, learning how the Robins are winning the pennant.

I didn't hear much about the errors made by the Robins. Every fellow on the bench understands errors are part of the game. The player who "boots" one in a crisis doesn't need to be made to feel worse by suffering a bawling out.

But "boners" are termed "errors of judgment." Robbie calls the unpardonable sins.

Why did you hold the ball? Were you asleep? Why didn't you peg home? Why didn't you go through with a double play? Keep your head up!"

These are samples of expressions directed at the athlete who pulls a "boner."

Yet calldowns of this sort are seldom resented on the bench, whereas in other lines of work the victim of such a reasting would resent the affront.

The bench breeds comradeship for there is the old happy, pat on the back for the player who has combed a long drive, or the pitcher who has fanned a hostile in the pinch.

There is the general rush to render assistance when a spike slices a leg or hand, or a foul tip smashes a finger.

To the good fellowship among players and manager attribute much of the success of the Brooklyn club.

NEWS FROM FOOTBALL CAMPS

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 3.—Football enthusiasts of the Michigan Agricultural college who are inclined to be superstitious are worried at present. One of M. A. C.'s most cherished possessions for several years was a big banner bearing the flaming slogan, "Beat Michigan." The banner usually was suspended in front of football quarters and under its folds Coach Macklin developed the elevens which raised havoc with the Wolverines. The banner was improperly packed last winter and moths ruined it.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 3.—"Brute" Pontius, former star tackle of the University of Michigan football eleven, is assisting Coach Yost this season. Pontius has charge of the linemen and his aggressive methods have won Yost's approval.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A. Alonzo Stagg has set a new fashion for football coaches' garb. Instead of the customary moleskin togs he appears this fall, when directing the University of Chicago football practice, in a tweed knickerbockers, a Norfolk coat and stockings of maroon.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 3.—The largest number of football candidates for varsity and freshmen elevens has made room for fall baseball practice at Illinois so little that Director Huff is seeking another place to work in. About twenty-five diamond candidates are out, mainly members of last year's freshman squad.

Badgers Drop Close One

Lose to Kendallville Overlands in Final Period.

The Badger football team of this city lost to the Kendallville Overlands at the latter place Sunday. The teams were evenly matched and neither scored until the last quarter, when the Overlands carried the ball across the line with a series of line smashes.

Moving pictures were taken of this game and will be shown in a Kendallville theater.

REALTY BOARD MEETS.

First Meeting of Fall Season Announced for Tonight.

The first meeting of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange will be held at the Commercial club tonight, marking the opening of the fall and winter series of meetings. The luncheon is called for 6:30 o'clock. Arrangements for the big meeting to be held on October 9, will be taken up at this meeting.

In his letter to the realty dealers Frank Hilgemann, secretary of the exchange, says: "Scott Brewer, executive secretary of the Indiana Real Estate association, has written me asking that reservations for twenty-five visitors for the meeting on October 9 be made." Mr. Hilgemann gathers from that request that many down-state real estate men are taking an interest in the meeting. Several hundred invitations have been sent out to the realty dealers and from fifty to one hundred are easily expected at the meeting.

No More Backache for Her.

Mrs. J. M. Gaskill, Etna Green, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains shooting through my back until I could not stoop over and get up without aid. Urinary trouble seemed to be the cause of it all. A single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave me such relief that I cannot praise them too highly." This standard remedy for kidney and bladder ailments can be taken with safety for backache, swollen ankles and rheumatic pains. Dreier Drug Co.—Advertisement.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL?

Unnatural History, by Eugene Ahern.

TRAVELING WITH THE CHAMPS.

Oo! Lis'en, George!
What's the row?
They must be a fire in them sleeping car. Lis'en to 'em hollerin'.

No, Norman, they ain't no fire in them sleeping car. That's the Beanburg Irish regiment under Gen. Carrigan, called the Boston Red Sox, the world's champion shillalah-wielders of the American league, in a little friendly free-for-all poker game.

So that's why they're called the "Scrappy Red Sox," huh?
Yeh!
Here comes a fella with a box of cigars. Watch 'em, Ed. They're only supposed to take one, but somehow or other when they reach in for it—three or four cigars get caught in their fingers.

Ain't that a funny lookin' gang in everyday scenery, Amos? They look just like us hicks—over-sized collars, red neckties, yaller button shoes, peg-top trousers and wearing diamonds that'd make a flatiron look as big as a nickel's worth of radium.

But, George, ain't they supposed to hie to bed early?

Yes, Joe, there's a couple baseball scribes in the game and they'll all be in early (in the morning.)

Smoked Cigarettes For 22 Years

Habit Was Ruining Him, But He Conquered It in Three Days, Easily.

The portrait below is that of Mr. F. J. Elizagaray, a well-known citizen of Livingston, Montana, who knew that his life was being ruined through the pernicious habit of cigarette smoking, yet could not find anything to stop it and solace the nervous craving until he got the remarkable book that can now be obtained free.

A clergyman, Rev. M. Ross, Dayton, O., testifies that after having been a slave to tobacco 44 years, he got rid of the habit entirely in a few days, greatly improving his health.

QUIT TOBACCO. GAINS 35 LBS.

Everybody in Mangrum, Okla., is talking about the big change in Al Reeves; he put on 35 lbs. in healthy flesh since getting rid of tobacco habit through the information gained in the free book which you may also easily obtain.

That he could never quit was the fear of George Ambush, Pearl street, Philadelphia, who was a slave of tobacco for many years, but after getting the book he learned how the habit could be conquered in three days. Now he writes that he is forever free from the craving and is in much improved health.

BOOK GIVEN FREE.

A valuable, interesting book on how to overcome the tobacco habit (in any form) has been written by Edw. J. Woods, 1312 D, Station E., New York, N. Y., and he will send it free to anyone who writes asking for it, as he is very anxious that all who are victims of the craving for tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes may save themselves easily, quickly, gently and lastingly. Eyes, heart, kidneys and stomach improved, nerves tranquilized, memory improved, vigor gained and numerous other benefits often reported.

TAKE CHILDREN FROM MOTHER.

Delphos, O., Oct. 3.—"I'd rather be sent after ten of the most hardened criminals than to perform that job again."

That's what Deputy Sheriff Vincent said Thursday night after he and Deputy Molnar had taken three small children from their mother on a writ of habeas corpus. Bernard Johnson, the father, procured the writ in common pleas court late Thursday afternoon, for the custody of the children, who, he said, were being unlawfully held by the mother, now Mrs. Lillian M. Schwab. The deputies found the children and mother at 230 Tenth street. When they told the mother that they must take her children, she screamed and fainted away.

BRIDE IS TOO YOUNG.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The plans for the marriage of Miss Iva Blanche O'Dier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Dier, and Mr. Lawrence Gerald Archbold, son of Mrs. Grace Archbold, the young couple who were given such a narrow escape Friday night when their automobile was wrecked by an interurban car at the Central avenue crossing, could not be carried out Saturday afternoon, as had been announced, and on account of the statutes governing marriages in Indiana, the ceremony will have to be postponed until on or after November 8th, unless the couple should determine to go to Michigan, or some other state, where the marriage laws are different.

WILL HAVE APPLE SHOW.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The Hartford City street fair which opens Wednesday will have an excellent apple show, as the result of the purchase of the display put on at the Bluffton fair by George A. Harnish. Hartford City men were here last week in an effort to get Mr. Harnish to show his apples there and when he declined to do this the display was purchased outright. Mr. Harnish is reported to have sold about 400 bushels of apples during the fair here. Hartford City is also using the Bluffton chicken coops, they having been shipped out early Sunday morning. Steve King went along to set them up and take care of them during the week.

MRS. CROXTON DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Louisa N. Croxton, the widow of the late Philip W. Croxton, who was a pioneer resident of Coesse and who was afflicted with dropsy and heart trouble for the past year, passed to the beyond, Monday. The deceased was born in Orleans county, N. ENGINE DIED ON TRACK.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 3.—A stalled automobile on the B. & O. railroad tracks near Concord, Sunday afternoon and a freight train approaching from the west came very near being mixed up in a horrible tragedy. In the car were five Auburn people, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zell and two daughters, and R. W. Vaughn, the owner of the car. They were coming from the south and just at that crossing there is a small incline and on the west side of the highway is a woods. This obstructed their view of the track. As they approached the railroad track Mr. Vaughn put on the emergency brake, but the car was carried down the incline onto the track. Just as the machine struck the track the engine "died." To make matters worse a freight train was coming from the west and the car would not go.

WEDS A SALESMAN.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—Announcement of the marriage of Miss Cecile Mae Bunn, 18, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bunn, of this city, and Mr. George Bernard Schulte, 21, a salesman of Kalamazoo, Mich., will come as a pleasant surprise to the friends in this city of the bride. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage, with the Rev. O. R. McKay officiating. The newly married couple will go to housekeeping at Kalamazoo.

LOCAL CASE COMPROMISED.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 3.—The suit brought by Mable Pence against Sophia Wittie and C. Bischoff, for $5,000 damages, has been dismissed as it was ready to begin a jury trial. The plaintiff sought to recover for injuries sustained when she alleges, a year ago, she was thrown from an automobile back in Huntington, owned and operated by the defendants. The costs are paid by the defendants, except those released by the parties entitled thereto. The case was venued here from Allen county.

Roop, veteran shoemaker of this city, a lifelong resident of this county, and probably possessing one of the widest acquaintances of any man in the county, died at his home, 333 North Tenth street, Sunday night at 11:33 o'clock after suffering for several months from paralysis. His end came peacefully, and after several weeks in which he was confined to his bed.

ATTEMPTS TO RIDE PLANE.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 3.—"Skeets" Conklin, who for several weeks has been building an aeroplane and who had planned making a flight during the street fair, has attempted to make a trial flight, but the trial proved unsuccessful. However, the attempt was not a sore disappointment for it proved the machine was built on the right plan but the engine was not poyerful enough to raise it into the air.

OVER $1,000 REALIZED.

Kendallville, Ind., Oct. 3.—That the thirty-fourth annual exhibition of the Eastern Indiana Agriculture association was a decided success from a financial standpoint was learned Monday afternoon at a meeting of the directors held in the council chambers at 2:30 o'clock. WOMEN! HERE IS A MONEY SAVER

Use gasoline to dry clean family's clothes and save $5.

Dry cleaning at home is just as simple as laundering. Any woman can clean five dollars' worth in fifteen minutes at little cost by getting from the drug store two ounces of solvite and put this in two gallons of gasoline, where it quickly dissolves. Then immerse articles to be cleaned; rub a little and in a few moments the gasoline evaporates and the articles look bright and fresh as new.

You can dry clean silk waists, dresses, coats, ribbons, kid gloves, satin shoes, evening slippers, shawls, belts, yokes, furs, boas, muffs, neckties, lawns, dimity and chiffon dresses, draperies, fine laces, lace curtains, woolen garments, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined by soap and water as dry cleaning doesn't fade, shrink or wrinkle, making pressing unnecessary.

Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and you can obtain two ounces of solvite at the drug store, which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dishpan completes your dry cleaning outfit.—Advertisement.

Special Trains to Carry Them to Convention City Next Saturday.

J. H. Following the announcement that the annual meeting will be held Saturday, October 7, the latter states that the business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock, the automobile ride at 4, the banquet at 6 and the theater at 9 o'clock. The veterans will be carried to Valparaiso on special trains, one from Fort Wayne and the other from Chicago, and arrangements have been made to have these trains reach the station at 1 o'clock, so all the vets will be on hand for the photograph which Photographer B. The letter also states that the special train will leave Fort Wayne at 10:20 Saturday morning and returning, will leave Valparaiso at 10:45 p. m. All veterans are instructed to bring their 1916 membership cards, as banquet tickets are issued only on presentation of those cards. It is also stated that another supply of gold and silver emblems have been received and can be secured by those entitled to them. "If you are not wearing one of these buttons, you can get one from me on the train or at the meeting in Valparaiso," says Mr. Hobrock. A letter to Mr. Hobrock from Valparaiso stated that forty-six automobiles had been secured for the parade Saturday afternoon and that arrangements had also been made for the best features of the vaudeville to be given at the Valparaiso opera house for the benefit of the Veterans. "The menu of the banquet will be the best ever set before the veterans and taken as a whole the coming meeting will be the best we ever held," said Mr. Hobrock.

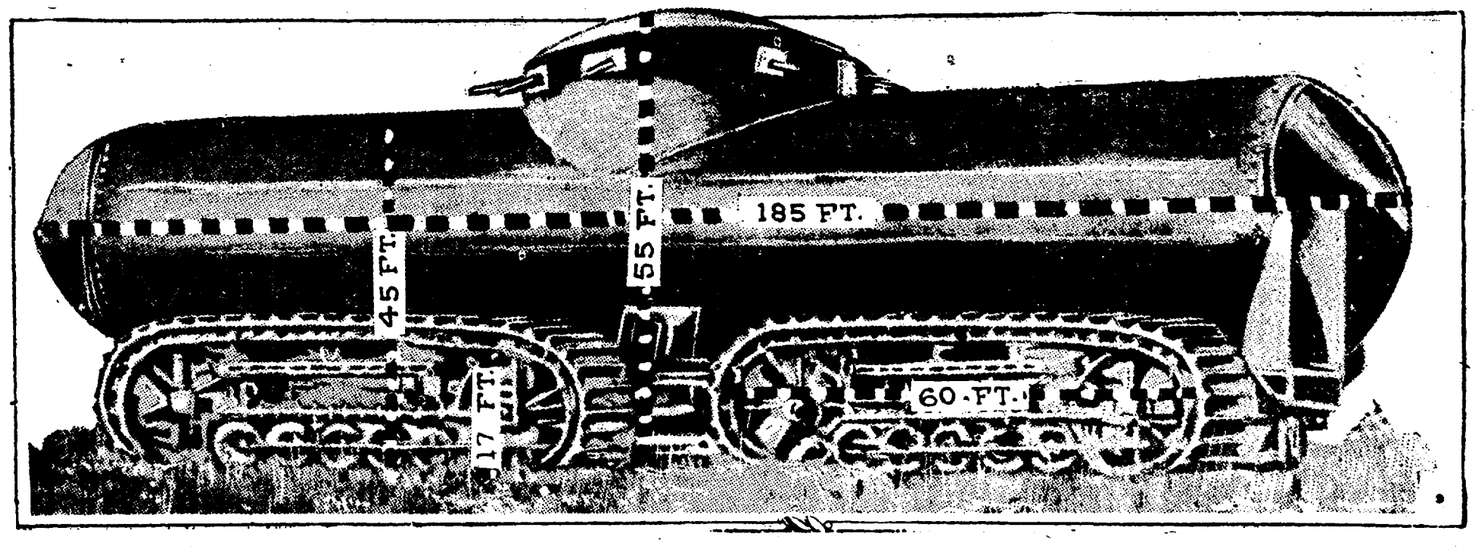
PROBABLY DUE TO WAR.

Proof of the advancing cost of chamois skins is the police report that the filling station belonging to C. H. Smenner, who operates a store near the edge of the city on the Goshen road, was broken into, Monday night, and the chamois used for straining gasoline was cut from the filling funnel.

FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH "TANK," USED IN WAR



THE FIGURES SHOWING THE DIMENSIONS OF THIS MONSTER DEATH ENGINE WERE PLACED ON THE PHOTOGRAPH BY AN ARTIST AND EMPHASIZE THE SIZE OF THE "TANK." A SOLDIER STANDING BESIDE THE "TANK" COULD REACH ONLY HALF WAY UP THE CATERPILLAR TREAD MILL. THE "TANKS" ARE MADE IN ENGLAND FROM SIMPLE FARM TRACTORS MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 1.—(By Mail.)—I am sending you the FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH of the great British "tank" to arrive on this side of the Atlantic!

This amazing war engine is mightier and more terrible than any cabled descriptions have led readers in Canada or the United States to believe.

Tanks such as that in the picture are equipped with four great treadmill devices, which turn on sets of gigantic cog-wheels. The treads are held taut by twenty solid rollers, five for each tread, and the bulk of the weight is borne by these rollers.

The purpose of the eight 15-foot cog-wheels is to lay a revolving track for the rollers, so that in effect they run on a self-laying railway, which is gathered up and relaid continually as the machine advances.

The treads are TEN FEET WIDE AND TWENTY FEET APART, so the tank's total width is forty feet. As its height is about forty-five feet, the tank is practically non-collapsible.

The treadmills, from top to bottom, are seventeen feet over all.

The tank itself is 185 feet long. Some tanks are said to be over 200 feet in length.

Each treadmill covers about sixty feet. This great length enables the tank to leap practically any trench ever built. As long as the front of the treadmill can reach the further side of the trench before the rear part of the front tread runs off, the machine will not dip.

In the center, above the tank, extends a rigid turret, from the apertures of which extend eight Lewis machine guns. Their muzzles are about fifty feet above the ground; the turret itself juts about ten feet above the top of the tank, making the total height of the machine some fifty-five feet!

RECORDS SHOW ALLEN AND WOMAN WERE WED

Ashtabula Man Entangled in Murder Case Near Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—James Allen, 64 years old, who says he is from Ashtabula, is being held by Kent county authorities pending completion of an investigation of the death of Mrs. Anna St. John, of Mayfield, N. Y., whose bullet-pierced body was found in a field near Grand Rapids last Sunday. County records show that Allen and Mrs. St. John were married here Sept. 19.

Officers allege that Allen, who, they claim, told them he salso has used the names James Allerton and John Williams, purchased a revolver some time ago and that he signed the name Allerton to the blank. He also registered at a local hotel as "Allerton," it is claimed. Allen's baggage was seized this afternoon. One letter which officers found in it was to Mrs. St. John, from a daughter at Elmira, N. Y. It was written from 221½ South Main street and cautioned Mrs. St. John to obtain a divorce from her husband. It is claimed that Allen and Mrs. St. John became acquainted through correspondence of a matrimonial agency. Until late the sheriff's force worked upon the theory that the dead woman was Mrs. Addie M. Kimball, of Chicago.

RECEIPTS INCREASE AND PRICES DECREASE

Dealers Subtract Fifty Cents from Hog Price and Quote $9.25.

Down the hill and into the valley goes the price of hogs, safely seated on a large toboggan and it is still traveling, with nothing in sight to stop its mad rush downward. Fifty cents more was deducted from the paying price of Monday and packers and buyers, locally offered but $9.25 per hundred weight for the porkers Tuesday. This is the top price while other prices range all the way from $7.50 to $8.75 per hundred. Followers of the markets are of the opinion that with the steady increase in receipts the prices are bound to go even lower before the close of the week. Prics on other live stock is also starting on a decline.

While the live stock market is fast sinking downward the wheat market remains at the same level, with eyes cast upward, however. Slight rises are indicated in large trading centers and although the local millers are keeping their price at $1.48, they state that it is very likely that a few cents will be added in a few days. Other grain markets are also steady, with receipts medium.

The Barr street market was small Tuesday morning. Winter pears were plentiful but buying was very slow. Pumpkins were also much in evidence. The wholesale market was also inactive.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Widening of the drought stricken region in Argentina with reports of crop losses becoming more and more severe, sent wheat soaring today to new high price levels for 1916. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 2¾c higher, with December at $1.57⅛ to $1.58¼, and May at $1.56¾ to $1.58⅛, were followed by moderate additional gains.

The close was firm, 2@2⅛c to 2¼c net higher, with December at $1.58⅜ and May at $1.57⅜@1.57¾.

The close was steady at ½c to ⅝@¾c net advance.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening ¼c to ¾c higher, the market scored some further upturns.

In oats the growing influence was the strength of other cereals.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 3.—Minor changes, mainly upward, prevailed at today's moderate opening, trading, however, embracing more than the usual number of issues. The more striking exceptions included American Locomotive, which rose two points, with advances of one to two in other equipments and industrials, including Crucible Steel, General Electric, Industrial Alcohol and International Paper. Marines were slightly lower but the railway list gained fractions to over a point under the lead of Pacifics and Northwestern issues. A firmer tendency was shown in all quarters before the end of the first half hour.

Industrials, equipments and motors, together with sugars and gas shares, were conspicuous in the mixed dealings of the forenoon, certain speculative favorites again reflecting bearish opposition. Steel yielded over a point, Marines one to one and one-half and Baldwin, Studebaker, Republic Steel and some of the metals as much. General Motors made a new record on its nine point advance to 470, and secondary specialties were materially higher, Pittsburg Coal and International Nickel. Rails were steadier than other standard stocks, the Canadian group extending initial advances. Increased selling caused fresh irregularity at midday. Bonds were firm.

BABY BONDS MAKE A PERFECT SECURITY

First mortgages on local real estate are known to be the last word in investments as far as safety is concerned, and since Baby Bonds are secured by first mortgages, men who are qualified to advise small investors are quite unanimous in expressing their approval of this security as a saving method. Baby Bonds come in $10 denominations, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate, and bear six per cent interest. There are also similar bonds of $500 denominations, bearing the same rate of interest and secured in the same manner. For details regarding either, see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

PLENTY FRESH AIR IN HARRISON HILL

Ample consideration for the fresh air supply of the future residents of Harrison Hill, the new addition located just south of Rudisill boulevard on Calhoun street, has been taken by providing open spaces such as parks, parkways, wide streets and playgrounds of generous proportions. Space which could have been converted into over a hundred lots has been used in this manner. The distance between the building lines on the opposite sides of Harrison boulevard is equivalent to the distance between Calhoun and Clinton streets, and the amount of space used in playgrounds is approximately the same as that occupied by Berry street, between Calhoun and Ewing streets. This feature is attracting many prospective purchasers and it is predicted that Harrison Hill will be the most rapidly built-up addition in the history of Fort Wayne. Details regarding lots in this tract may be secured from Hilgemann & Schaaf. North American building.—Advertisement.

LOCAL SPEED DEMONS IN SEVERAL ACCIDENTS

Citizens of Columbia City and Vicinity Have Entered a Protest.

Members of the Fort Wayne Motorcycle club have incurred the wrath of the citizens of Columbia City and vicinity, according to the Columbia City Commercial-Mail. The paper says:

"One farmer residing east of the city was compelled to take to the ditch with his horse and buggy and remain there for several minutes Sunday morning while the fifty motorists came tearing down the road at a sixty-mile clip and the three accidents occurring to various members of the organization leads to the belief that they are not qualified safely enough to convert the public highways into a race course.

"It is said upon good authority that the members of the so-called motorcycle club have as their hang-out a motorcycle store in Fort Wayne. That under the pretense of looking after the weal of autoists and vehicle drivers who should happen to get into trouble, they whizzed along the highways east and south of Fort Wayne until residents in that vicinity registered a stout kick and as a result of which the officials of Huntington and other cities close issued strict orders stopping the nuisance. It is said officials at Warsaw, which city has been visited by motorcyclists, served notice upon the Sunday pleasure riders that another visit to that city would result in the arrest of each and every member as soon as he arrived within the city limits."

The Accidents.

The Columbia City paper tells of the following accidents:

"Driving alone on his Indian twin cylinder motorcycle, Chester Chapman, a carpenter of Fort Wayne, entered as No. 5 in the race between the members of the Fort Wayne Motorcycle club between the Summit City and Tri-Lake, Sunday, when making the curve near the Ben Egolf turn just north of the city, struck into a mailbox on the left hand side of the road.

"Mr. Chapman struck the post in such a manner that a terrific jar severely injured his left foot. The shoe was torn at the ankle, but the force of the contact with the post shoved two of the meta-tarsal bones through the flesh at the bottom of the foot, and fractured them. Joe Youtz and Phil Farren, who arrived in their machine shortly after the accident, assisted the unfortunate motorcyclist into their auto and hurried him to the office of Drs. F. G. and O. W. Grisier, where an X-ray was taken and the foot placed in a cast after Mr. Chapman had first been anaesthetized and the broken bones set. There were several cuts about the heel and ankle and the injuries will disable Mr. Chapman for several weeks. He was taken home in the afternoon by friends.

"It was reported that No. 38, driver Pearl, bumped into the Ford car of S. E. Kessler in this city Sunday evening on his return to Fort Wayne, knocking a rear hub cap from the Ford and putting the motorcycle out of the running. Nobody injured.

"One of the motorcycle racers also bumped into another with a side car near the Humbarger hill north of this city and a man by the name of Daler in the side car was bruised up some what and the side car was badly smashed."

The Ladies Occult Science society will hold its regular meeting in Vordermark hall, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. A cordial welcome to all.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to any good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

TO THE SMOKERS OF FORT WAYNE MADE CIGARS

Univoco A Novel Gold Seal

For the past year or more prices on all commodities used in the course of manufacture have risen steadily and now tobacco has reached the high-water mark. I have stood this increase in prices just as long as I safely could.

There are a few who are not already acquainted with the policy of this house; that of producing and marketing the utmost in quality and workmanship of cigars, and an even broader minded policy of selling those goods at a price worthy of the support of the dealer, both from his own and the smoker's viewpoint. That my policy has met with success is attested by the fact that AL HAZZARD'S CIGARS are one of the undisputed leading cigars of this market.

Trusting that my action shall meet with your consideration, I remain,

Most friendly yours,
AL HAZZARD.

The makes include the famous Whittall Rugs, in Anglo-Persian and Anglo-Indian; Hardwick & Magee French Wiltons and Bundhar Wiltons and other splendid grades.

These fine Rugs were contracted for at the low figures of months ago, which accounts for the attractive prices offered in this special showing.

MAN THRICE MARRIED IS ACCUSED BY GIRL

William Ward Faces Charge of Assault on Eva Smith.

William Ward, 35, teamster, has retained his appreciation for feminine charms through three unhappy marriages, according to charges brought against him in police court, Tuesday morning by Eva Smith, 18, 2001 Winter street. The girl claims that Ward attacked her on the night of July 8.

Ward wore rubber soled shoes on the night of the assault, the girl tells. He creeped up behind her as she was walking home from town and sprang at her when she neared an alley on Oliver street, she testified. The girl fought Ward and succeeded in freeing herself, she told. She ran home as fast as she could, she said.

Miss Smith recognized Ward's face, she said, but did not know his name. She told her mother at the time about the assault. Her mother advised her to tell the police. The girl found the patrolman at the Western Gas plant. She related her story to him.

"You had better find out who the fellow is and bring action against him," the officer told her.

Since that time the girl has had but one purpose, she says. That has been to find out the name of the man who tried to drag her into the alleyway.

Her chance came last Saturday night, she testified. She was walking home again. A man approached her. She looked around. Her heart beat much faster because she recognized the man who had attacked her, she told.

"Howdy do," he said.

"Good evening," she replied in her coyest manner, she tells.

"Won't you go to the show?" he asked.

"What is your name first?" she querried and her heart was in her mouth for she had never acted the part of "detectress" before.

"Will Ward," she says he answered.

"Where do you live," she asked, but not like she was going to have him arrested.

"On Fletcher street," he blurted right out, she tells.

"I won't go to the show or anything. Good bye," she said real quick and ran into a store nearby, because her mission of "detectress" had been performed.

Monday she told police her story again. Ward was arrested. He has been married three times and is paying towards the support of two of his wives, who have three children each. He has obtained three divorces and is living alone at 1513 Fletcher avenue, he says.

Ward claims he does not know the Smith girl except that he saw her a few times a year ago when she came to a neighbor's house to borrow coffee and sugar for her mother. He denies accosting her on the street.

Ward is held under $100 bond for further trial on Wednesday.

Highwayman Fined.

Nick Monier, Rumanian, charged with attempting to hold up Roth Keller Saturday night, and firing three shots at the automobile in which Keller was riding, was fined $150 and costs. He will serve the full sentence at the state farm.

Monier said, through an interpreter, that he did not know why he shot at Keller and that he was "crazy drunk."

City Has Hard Ways.

Otis Wells, farm hand, living near Decatur, is learning the cruel ways of the city. He came to Fort Wayne with $4, to have a good time, Monday afternoon. He was enticed into a house on Eureka street, he says and when they showed him roughly out into the street a few minutes later all his money was gone, he says. He inquired the way to the police station. There he told his story and offered to lead the officers to the house.

Police arrested Ethel Swain, colored who was identified by Wells as being instrumental in getting his $4. Wells was detained at the police station over night much against his will. He was arraigned with the woman in police court on a charge of soliciting. The case was continued until Wednesday. Wells said he was glad he got his money back, even though.

"Gee-man-ee, but they treat a feller rough in the city," Wells complained.

Other Police Court Cases.

Case against Irene Rohyands, in which surety of the peace is asked, was continued indefinitely.

Fines assessed on charges of intoxication were: Joe Farrel, $5; Tony Smith, $1, and Frank Schmidt, $1. John Smith is held until Friday to answer a train climbing charge. Earl Newkirk, John Gibbons and Jack Hosmer were released from charges of loitering.

James T. Reid will appear Wednesday morning to answer a charge of allowing a cow to run at large.

Case of Leroy Staples, charged with assault and battery, by striking a railroad flagman with his automobile, will be heard Monday. Staples is held under $400 bond. Case against Samuel Bair, charged with wife desertion, was dismissed.

Used It Eleven Years.

There is one remedy that for many years has given relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is probably the best known family cough medicine in the world and because it contains no opiates is strongly recommended for children as well as adults. Mrs. Chas. Rietz, Allen Mills, Pa., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for eleven years and I would not be without it." It promptly relieves hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchial coughs, inflamed and congested membranes and permits refreshing sleep. Dreier Drug Co.—Advertisement.

LOCAL BUSINESS HOUSES TO FEATURE INTERESTING CONTESTS

$3,000.00 for a single word is the unusual offer made by a manufacturer who is looking for a new name. As everybody knows, there are many trade marks that are worth millions. One manufacturer refused ten million dollars for his trade mark. The offer of $3,000.00 is being made by the American Ever Ready Works, the well known manufacturers of "Everready" flashlights. The word they want to replace is "Flashlight." These portable electric lamps, so extensively used at night, have been on the market for twenty years. When they were first made they merely flashed instead of giving a continuous light. Hence the name "Flashlight" was created.

The manufacturers now say that the word is out of date, and they must have a new word which will better represent the service of the present Evereadys.

To give everyone, young and old, in this city an opportunity to try for this $3,000.00 prize, contest blanks will be distributed by well known local dealers. The contest runs from October 7th to November 7th, and many local dealers will be ready to distribute them beginning October 7th.

The week of October 7th to 14th is known as the annual "Eveready Big Drive," during which leading dealers all over the country make striking and beautiful window displays.

The following business houses in this city are deeply interested in this contest and will make window displays and distribute contest blanks beginning October 7th: Fort Wayne Hardware and Supply Co., Gards store and Progressive Electric Co.

Today's War News Given in Summary

Rumania's stroke against the central powers in throwing a force across the Danube into Bulgaria is the outstanding feature in the current war news. Should this army prove to be of formidable size it will constitute a serious menace to Field Marshal von Mackensen's left flank and might easily force his retirement from the present front south of the Constanca-Tchernavoda railway. He already is being subjected to heavy pressure along this line the Russians and Rumanians, presumably in connection with the flanking operation.

The latest statement from Sofia minimizes the importance of the Rumanian invasion, mentioning the invading force as consisting of "several battalions" conveyed across the river in boats between Rustchuk and Turtukao. "Measures have been taken to attack this force," the official bulletin declares.

On the Somme front a period of determined counter attacks by the Germans appear to have set in. They have been striking back strongly at the British along the Pozieres-Bapaume road, working their way back in to the village of Eaucourt l'Abbaye, and today they are reported by Paris to have attempted heavy strokes at the French lines near Rancourt, north of Peronne. They were unable, however, to debouch from the St. Pierre Vaast wood, northeast of Rancourt Paris declares, being checked by the French curtain of fire and machine guns.

The Germans have opened an offensive along the northern sector in the Russian front—a long neglected quarter, according to Petrograd which chronicles an intense artillery bombardment in the region suoth of Dvinsk, followed by attacks by dense columns of Germans east of Novo Alexandrovsk. The attack was completely repulsed, according to the Russian account, the Germans being driven to their trenches without having forced their way beyond their own wire entanglements.

Desperate battles are in progress along the greater part of the front in Valhynia and Galicia, with Russian gains reported in the region near Zaturre, east of Vladimir-Volynski and drawn battles in the struggle for Lemburg, along the lines to the south, where the forces of the central powers are offering a stubborn resistance to the Russian attempts to break through.

Petrograd, Oct. 3.—German forces have taken the offensive south of Dvinsk, attacking the Russian lines in force near Novo Alexandrovsk, the war office announced today.

They were met by an intense defensive fire from the Russian guns, however, and forced back to their positions, the official statement declares.

In the region west of Lubka near Zaturze, the Russians have scored advances in stubborn fighting. In the Zlonta Lipa district and along other sections of the front in Galicia fighting of a desperate nature is continuing neither side scoring any marked ad-

MILK FAMINE CLOSES IN ON NEW YORK CITY

But One-Half of Normal Supply in City as Result of Price Deadlock.

New York, Oct. 3.—Greatly decreased receipts of milk from the usual sources brought New York today to a realization of the seriousness of a possible milk famine. Nor was there any indication of a breaking of the deadlock between the distributors and the farmers over prices.

The big milk companies admitted that but approximately one-half their usual supply was received today and some of that came from long distances. Hospitals and children have been looked after by the distributors and so far no knowledge of serious shortage has come from any of the public institutions. Private families have received preference over stores and restaurants and consumers have been cautioned to conserve their supply.

The milk war, which originated with the organization of the Dairymen's league, has spread throughout the state. Reports from all parts of New York tell of thousands of gallons of milk spilled in combats between the dairymen had the employes of the distributors, the picketing of cross roads and dairy districts, farmers held up and beaten and the establishment of cheese manufacturies to dispose of the surplus resulting from the withholding of New York city's supplies.

Twenty deputies have been sworn in in Dutchess county to prevent raids of farmers upon their neighbors to compel them to hold back their product. This followed an attack on one man who was severely beaten while the deputy sheriff, who accompanied him, was held a prisoner, tied to a tree.

Masked farmers are reported to be patrolling the roads in several counties up state, seizing milk and dumping it. In some places the farmers are contributing funds to build co-operative creameries.

John J. Dillon, the state commissioner of foods and markets, who represents the league of farmers, estimates that not more than 25 per cent. of the normal amount of milk was shipped in to New York city for use today.

GERMAN VILLAGE FOR 744 INTERNED SAILORS

Philadelphia, Oct. 3.—A German village is being constructed by the interned sailors of the Prinz Eitel Friedrich and the Kronprinz Wilhelm in a corner of the Philadelphia navy yard where they will live under a guard of United States marines until the close of the war.

When the two vessels were convoyed here from Norfolk a tract of about nine acres was set aside for the sailors along the back channel where their ships are anchored.

A small church, a windmill and farm buildings are being erected and the 744 men who were attached to the two vessels will organize a community patterned after a small town in Germany. They will raise vegetables in season and another tract has been laid out as an athletic field for their use.

HUSBAND BASES DIVORCE SUIT ON WIFE'S STORY TOLD IN HER NOVEL.

MRS. ASTA ASCHE.

New York, Oct. 3.—When the spirit moved Mrs. Asta O'Connor Asche, 19, temporarily retired dancer and budding author, to write "Justice," a personal narrative said to be her "soul story," she had no idea it would receive its first public reading in a court of justice as basis of a suit for annulment of her marriage to Herman T. Asche, wealthy New York importer.

But that's what happened. "Justice" is on file in support of Asche's contention that the pretty dancer married him for his money.

Mrs. Asche, daughter of Andrew O'Connor, noted sculptor, separated from her husband six weeks after their marriage.

"Justice" is a novelette confession that she married Asche while she loved another, according to Asche's attorneys.

Isador promised to prepare a little speech to deliver to the boys whenever the judge desired.

COOK SAMUEL TAYLOR OF CO. E. COMES BACK

Four Other Members of Ft. Wayne Troop Will Soon Be Back Home.

Cook Samuel Taylor, of company E, First Indiana regiment, stationed at Llano Grande, Texas, has returned home after receiving a disability discharge. Four other members of the Fort Wayne company are also expected to arrive here within a few days. Mess Sergeant Arthur Nickerson and Private Henry Furthmiller started home Monday and Bugler Edward Taylor and Sergeant Clarence Grodrian are also expected to leave soon. The four have received their discharges on account of dependent relatives.

Cook Taylor has come back home in a worse shape than when he left. He had the misfortune of breaking his knee cap nearly two months ago and he was admitted as a patient at the army hospital at Rouston on August 18. While a patient he contracted a slight touch of malaria and when he had recovered sufficiently to make the trip home he was given his discharge and transportation to Fort Wayne.

He is still unable to walk on his limb and the disease of the south has left him in a weakened condition. He will be confined to his home for at least a week. The physicians told him that his leg would give him trouble for at least a year.

SUBMARINES SHOWING ACTIVITY AT KIRKWALL

Aircraft Escorts Provided Now for Ships as They Put Out to Sea.

New York, Oct. 3.—Unusual activity of submarines at the port of Kirkwall, Scotland, including the use of aircraft as escorts for ships putting to sea, was reported by passengers arriving here today on the Danish steamship Helgolav from Bingen via Kirkwall, where the ship put in.

According to several of the passengers the harbor was almost crowded with undersea boats flying the British flag. Aeroplanes were darting about and hovering 500 feet over the city was a captive war balloon. When the steamer left port she was accompanied for about twenty miles by an armed aeroplane, the aviator keeping close to the ship and making a careful search of the water ahead of her.

The president's trip will bring him into Fort Wayne over the Pennsylvania lines at 4:20 o'clock Wednesday afternoon for the regular five-minute stop of the train here.

GERMANY WILL BE ALL READY FOR TRADE WAR

U. S. Consul General Says She Expects America to Be Trade Friend.

New York, Oct. 3.—Germany will be ready for any trade war her enemies may wage against her after the end of hostilities in the field, says Gen. Henry H. Morgan, United States consul general at Hamburg, who has just returned from his post.

The general said that Germany expects America to be her closest trade associate after the war and that German business men are confident there will only be the most friendly business relations between the two nations.

German bankers will be in a position after the war to assist trade development in the fullest measure, continued General Morgan. He said Germany had sent little money out of the country for war expenses as compared to what the allies had sent to America and that the German store of gold will have a tendency to prevent any crippling of her ability to meet England in a struggle for world trade.

DECRIES HATE FOR GERMANS

Viscount Bryce Deplores the Spirit Manifest in England.

URGES A LEAGUE TO FORCE ARBITRATION

Former British Ambassador to U. S. Resents Talk of Trade War.

Birmingham, England, Oct. 3.—Viscount Bryce of Dechmont, former ambassador at Washington, addressing the congregational union today decried the spirit of hate against the Germans and the talk of a lasting trade war. In conclusion he advocated a league to restrain aggression and compel arbitration.

"If there is to be a recurrence of wars becoming more terrible with the unceasing advance of science," he said, "we may well despair of the future.

"To establish any machinery for preserving peace," continued Lord Bryce, "would be impossible without the cooperation of the neutral states, and especially the greatest of all the neutral states. We have been waiting and watching to see whether America would in view of the immense interests at stake, depart from her old policy of complete isolation and bear her part in the effort for securing a permanent alliance for peace. An influential league for that purpose has already been formed there and now two momentous events have happened,

AIRMAN IS PICKED UP AFTER NIGHT AT SEA

Sperry Foozles in Attempt at Short Flight in a Hydroaeroplane.

Boston, Oct. 3.—Lawrence B. Sperry, of New York, who started in a hydroaeroplane from the navy yard last evening for a short flight to Marblehead on the north shore, was picked up early today off Nantasket, on the south shore, by a granite-carrying steamer. He had not suffered during the night. The torpedo boat destroyer Warrington had been ordered out to search for the aviator.

Engine trouble developed after the start and Sperry stopped at West Lynn for repairs. Later the machine came about and alighted at the Point of Pines. A fresh start for Marblehead was made and as darkness gathered the hydroaeroplane was sighted, seemingly headed for the open sea. When daylight came it was seen by the crew of the steamer resting on the waves a few miles off shore. Sperry was unaccompanied.

DRAFT CLAUSE AND WAGE BENSON THEMES

Cincinnati, Ohio, Oct. 3.—Allen Benson, socialist candidate for president of the United States, in a speech in the Music hall here last night attacked President Wilson's stand on the draft clause of the Hay-Chamberlain act and at the same time said that Mr. Hughes had remained silent relative to this question. "President Lincoln did not have or assume the right of draft, and President Wilson has never been given that right," Mr. Benson said, "if the people want the president to have this right, well and good, and if not, well and good, but the people should be permitted to say."

Mr. Benson also took up the question of the "living wage" and the high cost of living. He said that the working class deny that they are obtaining a living wage.

"If the wealthy class should be forced to live on wages now given to the working class, would they consider it a living wage under the existing cost of living?" asked Mr. Benson.

Mr. Benson left last night for Denver.

LIVING COST GOES HIGHER

Many Staples Now at Highest Point Touched Since Civil War.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 2.—Marked increase in cost of living is shown in the rising tendency of prices of food stuffs on October 1, reports of which are just being received at the department of agriculture from the principal markets of the country.

With flour selling at prices higher than at any time since the civil war, due principally to the shortage of the wheat crop this year, the cost of potatoes has mounted for the same reason. Meat prices continue to advance with prices paid for meat animals showing 24 per cent advance over a year ago.

Butter, eggs and cheese all are selling at higher prices for this time of the year than they were last year, and beans show an increase of more than 70 per cent over a year ago because of the short crop.

Onions are more than 50 per cent

HUNTERTOWN BLOCK THREATENED BY FIRE

Fort Wayne Firemen Called to Save Business Section of Village.

A business block at Huntertown, nine miles north of Fort Wayne, was threatened by fire, which burned a barn and garage shortly afternoon, Tuesday. All inhabitants of the village worked desperately, in a well organized bucket brigade, for thirty minutes, to save the business section of the town from the flames.

A large barn belonging to Dr. H. G. Erwin, and located directly back of his house, was totally destroyed. A frame garage belonging to R. J. Hillegass, merchant, was burned. All household goods were removed from the home of Dr. Erwin. Several times the house was thought to be on fire. The walls were scorched.

Destruction of all nearby buildings, which included several stores of the town, was threatened until Fort Wayne firemen arrived. The chemical wagon from No. 3 made the run to Huntertown in fifteen minutes. It was given out that the fire was under control soon after firemen aided in the battle against the flames.

Origin of the fire is unknown. When the blaze was discovered in the barn it was too late to save the structure. Few articles were stored in the barn. The large automobile, belonging to Hillegass was removed before the garage burned. Loss is estimated at $1,100

Automobiles brought farmers from the districts bordering the village when the alarm had been sounded. More than 200 men were engaged in throwing water on the flames when Fort Wayne firemen arrived.

Christmas Goodies to Be Higher, Say the Dealers

Listen to this—Christmas goodies will cost more this year.

Fort Wayne commission men make the declaration, and they are in a better position to know than anybody else.

Already they are making preparations for the holidays. The winter's supply of nuts are being received. All nuts are slightly higher than they were last year. The wholesale price of California almonds will be about twenty cents. Filberts have risen from fourteen cents to seventeen cents a pound. Pecans formerly fourteen cents will bring about eighteen cents. Brazil nuts, once fifteen cents, will be twenty cents a pound, and English walnuts have risen to twenty-four cents a pound. There will be a few of the cheaper grades that will sell for less. Of course, these prices are not exactly accurate, but are sufficiently so to convince the consumer that even the Christmas goodies have advanced along with shoe shines, hair cuts, etc.

Several of the dealers declare that as a result of the advance they do not anticipate a s great a trade as in former years. The grocer will charge several cents a pound more than the wholesale price.

Honey will be practically unchanged at sixteen cents a section. Maple syrup will be expensive and hard to get. Another delicacy that is going to be hard to get is pure sweet cider.

'Tis said, however, that popcorn will be cheaper and this should be consoling, inasmuch as popcorn is very necessary at the Christmas season.

Community Has Right to Expect More Than That, Says Fletcher.

You shouldn't "mind your own business." Your community has a right to expect more from you than that, and "minding your own business" is selfish, narrow, mean, shirking and wholly out of tune with the spirit that builds great cities and fine communities and that gets the most good out of life.

That was the message Thomas Brooks Fletcher, Ohio editor and noted American platform star, gave to Fort Wayne Rotarians Monday evening in the course of his address at the first fall dinner of the Rotarians at the Anthony hotel. For nearly an hour Mr. Fletcher, speaking in rapid-fire fashion and giving expression to old truths in original fashion while enlarging upon the new idea of civic purpose, told the Rotarians of "Town Team Work," in which there was no selfish mind-your-own-business attitude, but in which everybody pulled together in the effort to help along every good cause.

He declared that even mental attitude required financing, and the cost of financing a wrong mental attitude mounted up tremendously in paying for mistakes and for failure of the larger vision. No town, he declared, can rise above the level of the collective thought of its citizenship, and he scored the internal differences and the petty bickerings which sometimes retard town-building. He pleaded for the new idea in business based upon a moral responsibility for exact justice, and insisted that every man should be a "safe" man to do business with.

President Frank E. Bohn greeted the Rotarians on the resumption of the monthly dinners after the summer vacation, and introduced Lew G. Ellingham and Frank Hamilton, two new members of the club. During the remainder of the program E. W. Puckett presided as toastmaster, while the role of Sergeant-at-Arms Van B. Perrine for the evening was that of the typical policeman. In the course of the evening Rev. A. J. Folsom gave an inspiring recital of the doings of the recent international convention of Rotarians at Cincinnati.

ENGLISH GIRL OFFERS HER EYE TO SOLDIER

Would Sacrifice One Optic as Patriotic Duty to Her Country.

Paris, Oct. 3.—A young English girl has written to Dr. Rochon Duvigneaud, offering to give one of her eyes to a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. The girl, who lives in North Shields, had read a recent statement by Dr. Duvigneaud, one of the most famous oculists in France, that it was possible to save the sight of a man wounded in the eye by grafting a portion of the cornea of another person. In her letter she said:

"If you believe that there is one chance of success in a million I will give you one of my eyes for a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. I would prefer to give my eye to one to whom it would be especially useful, such as an inventor or an officer of great value.

"If my offer is accepted I shall consider myself under an obligation to you for permitting me to be of use to my country in the only way possible to me."

WATSON SPEAKS AT NEW HAVEN MEETING

Concluding a tour of Allen county Monday night with a speech in the town hall at New Haven, James E. Watson, republican candidate for the senate for the short term, spoke to a large audience. He discussed the tariff question and declared in his opinion the next president of the United States would be Charles Evans Hughes.

The speaker asserted the people of the country were satisfied under a republican tariff that prosperity was brought about and that this prosperity would have been permanent had republicans been kept in power. "The interests of the country can best be conserved through the republican party," said Mr. Watson. He declared the people were ready to voice their approval of republican policies at the polls next November.

POLICE TAKEN OFF THE SUBWAY TRAINS

New York Authorities Believe Trouble There is Ended.

New York, Oct. 3.—Satisfied that there is little further danger of violence in the subway as a result of the street railway strike the police department today withdrew all policemen from strike duty on the underground trains. Since the strike began a policeman has ridden as a guard in the first car of virtually every train. The policemen, however, will be kept on station platforms for a few days longer.

Similar action, it is announced, will be taken with regard to the elevated trains as soon as the police have routed the small bands of strikers and sympathizers who have bombarded the trains from roof tops in the early morning hours.

Only one policeman instead of two hereafter will be assigned to each surface car. Emergency stations established for mounted policemen, when the general sympathetic strike was expected to materialize, have been abandoned.

The battleground of turbulent elements among the strikers has been transferred to Westchester county. The fight there centers in Mount Vernon, where an effort was made today to rescind the ordinance which prohibits the transit company from employing carmen who have not had fifteen days experience. The street railway company asserts that this ordinance prevents them from operating their cars.

Shortly after announcement was made that police guards were to be removed from the elevated lines, as well as the subway, three trains were attacked, one of them a Bronx subway express. A bullet, fired at a Third avenue elevated train, clipped a piece from the right ear of a passenger, Melville Wright, 40 years of age, and fell to the floor after penetrating a motorman's booth.

KILLED HUSBAND SO HE COULD WED WIDOW

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—Clarence Meyers, 23 years old, has confessed that he murdered William Travis, 42 years old, a well-to-do farmer, living near Fremont, Mich., last October, to make clear the way for his marriage to Travis' wife, 42 years old.

Travis' body, buried in a shallow grave, was unearthed Sunday and Meyers and Mrs. Travis, who were living on a farm near Grant, Mich., were placed under arrest. Just before Meyers was to be taken before a coroner's jury he broke down and confessed, exonerating Mrs. Travis of any part in the crime.

Mrs. Travis, he said, waited some time for her husband to return to her, and then consented to live with him.

TWO CARS COLLIDE.

Van Wert, O., Oct. 3.—An automobile collision, fortunately not serious, occurred west of the city, Sunday evening, when cars driven by Dr. C. D. Sidle, of Convoy, and Mr. Balyeat came together and suffered slight damage to axles and fenders. The Balyeat car was closely trailing another car and was not aware that the Sible roadster was about to pass in the opposite direction, although the latter car is said to have been nearly into the ditch. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lininger, of North Tyler street, had a very narrow escape from death or serious injury, late Saturday afternoon, when struck by an automobile driven by a young woman, at the corner of Main and Walnut streets. He was thrown from his bicycle and somewhat bruised but the wheels of the machine did not strike him. His bicycle was wrecked.

The center of the disturbance was estimated by the observer to have been about 3,000 miles from Washington. The second shock began at 12:02 o'clock this morning and lasted about ten minutes. JITNEY LAW IS SAFE CITY ATTORNEY SAYS

Ordinance Does Not Give Power of Discrimination to Controller.

"Our jitney ordinance will safely weather a legal storm," City Attorney Guy Colerick said when asked his opinion on the result of the attack to be launched in circuit court against the new traffic code.

"There are no valid reasons why the ordinance should be set aside. There is no strength to the argument that the ordinance gives the city comptroller too much power. The ordinance does not give him undue discriminating powers. It does not give the comptroller authority to say who shall and who shall not put up bond and who shall be protected and who considered jitney drivers.

"The new law only gives the comptroller authority to decide whether or not the bonds are in proper form; whether proper steps have been taken to secure bond and whether the bonds are properly given out. He has no right to determine the character of the drivers who shall be granted bond. The law does not give him that power. I am afraid that some people have been led to think that the ordinance does that, from the way it has been set out recently.

"The ordinance only gives the comptroller the right of seeing that the bonds are properly applied for and given out and that is a right he should have in any measure where bonds are embodied. It only gives the comptroller the right of protecting interests of his office.

"If the measure is to be attacked on that basis alone it is in no danger of being side tracked. I think the new ordinance is being attacked because it is not understood. It is a comprehensive law."

16 LOTS PURCHASED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Officials Choose Property in Harrison Hill and Driving Park.

At a purchase price of approximately $14,500, the Fort Wayne school board has closed a deal for sixteen lots and a residence in the north and south part of the city which will be used for future building purposes. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting held Monday night at 8 o'clock in Superintendent J. N. Study's office.

The rapid growth of the city, which will necessitate the erection of school buildings in the near future, was inducive in making the board take this action. The investment is considered a wise one by all interested in the schools of the city.

The ground purchased consists of six lots in Harrison Hill addition at the foot end of Harrison street. These lots adjoin the expansive playgrounds which have been dedicated to the city for public purposes. An acre of ground was also purchased in Driving Park addition facing State street, near Anthony boulevard, and a house and lot adjoining the Hoagland school property on Butler street.

The contract for the erection of the Clay school gymnasium was awarded to Charles R. Wermuth at a bid of $9,865. His bid was the lowest one opened. Other contractors who submitted bids are as follows: Henry Hilgemann, $13,918; A. M. Young, $14,873; Henry Wahrenburg, $14,149; J. M. Henry, $11,157, and Michael Kinder, $9,922. The Edmunds Electrical Construction company was awarded the contract for electric wiring at a bid of $119.

WANT THANKSGIVING CHANGED.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 3.—A movement to place the next Thanksgiving day on Nov. 23 instead of Nov. 30 was inaugurated here today by the Merchants' association of Kansas City. A telegram signed by the executive board of the organization was sent to President Wilson requesting the earlier date. Messages to retail organizations in twenty of the larger cities also were sent asking them to take similar action. The merchants say the holiday falling as it does this year on the last day of the month works a hardship both to them and to their customers, crowding all the Christmas business into three weeks.

Cites Wilson's Address.

"President Wilson delivered four months ago a powerful and luminous speech, in which he announced that the United States could not stand aloof from a movement in which the highest interests of manhood were concerned and that he felt sure the people of the United States were prepared to join in any feasible scheme for the prevention of future wars.

"Two months ago, Mr. Charles E. Hughes in accepting the nomination for the presidency by the republican party, declared with no less force and no less sincerity that he was convinced the time had come for America to unite with European countries in a well considered scheme for applying methods of arbitration and conciliation to securing general and permanent peace in the world.

Difficult, But Important.

"Thus the heads of the two great American parties, distinguished men and the official exponents of American opinion, have promised the co-operation of their nation in this project—one of great difficulty no doubt, but also of supreme importance.

"Our people and the statesmen who lead our people could have no greater encouragement to address themselves when the time comes for this enterprise which they have already pronounced to be necessary. I ask your help to bring the matter before the people and show them how much we and every nation have to gain by removing the terror and the danger of war, which so long has hung like a black cloud over Europe. The churches could do no more truly Christian work."

Lord Bryce said the country was virtually unanimous in holding that the war must be prosecuted to victory so complete as to open the prospect of an enduring peace. He declared that the precepts of Christianity coincide with those of political wisdom and that the churches should work for national unity and good feeling between the classes.

Urges Repression of Hatred.

"Let us avoid, let us repress the spirit of hatred," he said.

"We are justly indignant at the war the enemy powers have waged. We trust that our victory will warn the world that such methods must never be resorted to again and that those guilty of them will be punished. But is it wise to talk of banning a whole people for all time to come? The German people are under a harsh and tyrannous rule which has not only deceived, and misled them, but silences any protest—and arrest those who wish to protest—against its crimes. Some day we hope they will overthrow it, when they have learned the truth.

"To indulge in revenge will be to sow the seeds of future wars. Nations cannot hate one another forever, and the sooner they cease to do so the better for all of them. We must take all proper steps to defend ourselves from any dangers that might arise, if after the war the enemy countries were to resume an insidious hostility. That is at present no more than a possibility which may never arise.

"But the talk we now hear about starting after peace has been concluded a new war of trade to follow the war of arms has immense capacities for mischief. Such a trade war would prolong, would embitter afresh those hatreds that ought to be allowed to die, and it assumes a continuance of those very things from which we expect our victory to deliver us once for all. Our main purpose will have failed if we do not secure a durable peace."

vantage. In one sector the Russians took more than 1,000 prisoners and the total taken in this region is reported at 5,000 men.

VIOLENT FIGHTING RAGES.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Violent fighting has been in progress on the Somme front, north of Rancourt, the war office announced today. The French curtain of fire and machine guns, however, were effective in checking German attempts to debouch from the St. Pierre Vaast wood in this region.

The Serbians fighting in the Kaimakcalan region, on the Macedonian front, have made further progress, according to today's announcement, taking first line trenches from the Bulgarians and capturing another battery. Bulgarian attacks on British positions on the left bank of the Struma were repulsed. The Bulgarians sustaining heavy losses.

BULGARIANS IN RETREAT.

Sofia, Oct. 2., Via London, Sept. 3.—(8:50 a. m.)—A retreat by the Bulgarians in the Lake Presba region under heavy Serbian artillery fire is reported in an official statement issued by the war office referring to the Macedonian front. The statement adds: "In the Dobrudja two Russian divisions attempted twice to advance on the Bechavul-Amzatzia-Toprais Sarl line but they were compelled to retreat under the fire of our artillery and infantry. There was quiet on the Black Sea coast."

A number of Rumanians who have invaded Bulgaria is placed at several battalions by the Bulgarian war office. A statement announcing the passage of the Danube by the invaders says: "On the Danube near Litcoo, between Rustchuk and Turtukai, the enemy conveyed to our banks in boats several battalions. Measures have been taken to attack this force."

RETREAT IS CUT OFF.

Germans Destroy Pontoon Bridges Behind Invading Rumanians.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The war office announced today that Austrian and German monitors had destroyed the pontoon bridges across the Danube in the rear of the Rumanian forces which have crossed the river and invaded Bulgaria.

Official announcement was made here today that Austro-German troops in Transylvania in the region north of Fogaras had withdrawn before superior Rumanian forces.

BRITISH RAID GERMAN TRENCHES.

London, Oct. 3.—"The night was quiet south of the Ancre position on the Somme front," says the official report. "South of Loos our troops successfully raided enemy trenches."

Bulgarian counter attacks on the British forces which crossed the Struma on the Macedonian front were repulsed yesterday the war office announced today. The statement adds: "The royal flying corps carried out successful bombing attacks on troops in transport in Prosnika and on a railroad train traveling from there to Seres.

British naval aeroplanes yesterday made another attack on the German airship sheds in the vicinity of Brussels, according to a British official statement issued this afternoon. One of the British aeroplanes was lost. The text of the statement reads:

"A further attack was made yesterday by naval aeroplanes upon enemy airship shed in the vicinity of Brussels. One aeroplane failed to return."

Field Marshal von Mackensen, who commands the forces of the central allies operating against the Rumanians and Russians in the province of Dobrudja has ordered the evacuation of the Danube fortresses of Silistria and Turtukai, recently captured by the Teuton Bulgarian and Turkish forces, says a dispatch from Rome to the wireless press.

LIVING COST GOES HIGHER

higher and cabbages more than 40 per cent higher. Prices paid to producers of farm products increased 9.3 cent during August while during the last eight years these prices have shown a decrease of about 2.1 per cent during that month. September began with the index figures of these prices 21.9 per cent higher than it was a year ago.

STAPLES 50 PER CENT. HIGHER.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Staple foods such as butter, eggs and cheese have in the last year advanced nearly 50 per cent in price on the Chicago market, according to reports today from dealers in provisions, and even greater increases are shown in the price of potatoes, cabbages and onions. Potatoes have more than tripled in value since a year ago, having advanced from 48 cents a bushel to $1.45. Cabbages are selling today for $3 a barrel as against 65 cents a year ago. Onions that sold at 60 cents a sack in 1915 are now bringing $1.35. Flour has increased more than 0 per cent in price.

The increased prices apepar in virtually all the vegetable and dairy foods the housewife daily requires for her table. When she goes marketing this season her check way well be at least twice what it was last fall.

The latest advances in food prices have been slight, but the general advance has been continuous, especially during the last two months.

Retailers declare they are not profiting by the advances, which they generally admit apply to virtually every article of food handled.

The price of flour—the grade called bakers' flour—was advanced ten cents a barrel today at $8.75. It was the third advance in three weeks. A year ago the flour sold for $5.25 a barrel. The price of standard Minnesota patents—the family grade of flour—is $9.10 a barrel, a 20 per cent increase within the last three weeks and an increase of $3.20 a barrel as compared with a year ago.

What are characterized as the highest prices ever known at this season of the year for butter and eggs at Chicago prevailed here today, according to reports from merchants. Extras in creamery butter sold at from 38 to 40 cents a pound as against 27 cents a year ago for the same grades. Eggs retailed around 37 cents a dozen, the same classification selling a year ago at 23½ to 24 cents. Cheese dealers reported American cheese selling at 20 to 21½ cents a pound against 13½ to 14½ a year ago. Other food products showed as much or more appreciation in value, a notable instance being potatoes, which jobbed at $1.45 a bushel, as against 48 cents a year ago.

Coony's Cigars

Five Cents Straight in the Future.

Owing to an increase of wages to our cigarmakers and the increased cost of all materials entering into the manufacturing of our cigars, we are compelled to advance our selling prices to the dealers, on our various brands.

Excellence of quality and workmanship has always been characteristic of our cigars and under the existing conditions, to maintain this same high standard of quality and workmanship and to prevent the impairing of our investment, no other alternative is open to us.

Coony's Little Havana and Coony's Broadleaf will, in the future, be sold to the consumer absolutely at 5 cents straight. We feel confident that the smokers of these popular brands, who have been buying them at six for a quarter, would rather pay 5 cents straight than for us to lower the quality of our goods.

Doctor Tells How To Strengthen Eyesight 50 per cent In One Week's Time In Many Instances

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Dreier & Meyer Drug Co.'s Sells It.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known down town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement

MOTHERWELL & SCHMIEDES

Community Has Right to Expect More Than That, Says Fletcher.

You shouldn't "mind your own business." Your community has a right to expect more from you than that, and "minding your own business" is selfish, narrow, mean, shirking and wholly out of tune with the spirit that builds great cities and fine communities and that gets the most good out of life.

That was the message Thomas Brooks Fletcher, Ohio editor and noted American platform star, gave to Fort Wayne Rotarians Monday evening in the course of his address at the first fall dinner of the Rotarians at the Anthony hotel. For nearly an hour Mr. Fletcher, speaking in rapid-fire fashion and giving expression to old truths in original fashion while enlarging upon the new idea of civic purpose, told the Rotarians of "Town Team Work," in which there was no selfish mind-your-own-business attitude, but in which everybody pulled together in the effort to help along every good cause.

He declared that even mental attitude required financing, and the cost of financing a wrong mental attitude mounted up tremendously in paying for mistakes and for failure of the larger vision. No town, he declared, can rise above the level of the collective thought of its citizenship, and he scored the internal differences and the petty bickerings which sometimes retard town-building. He pleaded for the new idea in business based upon a moral responsibility for exact justice, and insisted that every man should be a "safe" man to do business with.

President Frank E. Bohn greeted the Rotarians on the resumption of the monthly dinners after the summer vacation, and introduced Lew G. Ellingham and Frank Hamilton, two new members of the club. During the remainder of the program E. W. Puckett presided as toastmaster, while the role of Sergeant-at-Arms Van B. Perrine for the evening was that of the typical policeman. In the course of the evening Rev. A. J. Folsom gave an inspiring recital of the doings of the recent international convention of Rotarians at Cincinnati

Would Sacrifice One Optic as Patriotic Duty to Her Country.

Paris, Oct. 3.—A young English girl has written to Dr. Rochon Duvigneaud, offering to give one of her eyes to a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. The girl, who lives in North Shields, had read a recent statement by Dr. Duvigneaud, one of the most famous oculists in France, that it was possible to save the sight of a man wounded in the eye by grafting a portion of the cornea of another person. In her letter she said:

"If you believe that there is one chance of success in a million I will give you one of my eyes for a soldier who has lost his sight serving France. I would prefer to give my eye to one to whom it would be especially useful, such as an inventor or an officer of great value.

"If my offer is accepted I shall consider myself under an obligation to you for permitting me to be of use to my country in the only way possible to me."

WATSON SPEAKS AT NEW HAVEN MEETING

Concluding a tour of Allen county Monday night with a speech in the town hall at New Haven, James E. Watson, republican candidate for the senate for the short term, spoke to a large audience. He discussed the tariff question and declared in his opinion the next president of the United States would be Charles Evans Hughes.

The speaker asserted the people of the country were satisfied under a republican tariff that prosperity was brought about and that this prosperity would have been permanent had republicans been kept in power. "The interests of the country can best be conserved through the republican party," said Mr. Watson. He declared the people were ready to voice their approval of republican policies at the polls next November.

POLICE TAKEN OFF THE SUBWAY TRAINS

New York Authorities Believe Trouble There is Ended.

New York, Oct. 3. Satisfied that there is little further danger of violence in the subway as a result of the street railway strike the police department today withdrew all policemen from strike duty on the underground trains. Since the strike began a policeman has ridden as a guard in the first car of virtually every train. The policemen, however, will be kept on station platforms for a few days longer.

Similar action, it is announced, will be taken with regard to the elevated trains as soon as the police have routed the small bands of strikers and sympathizers who have bombarded the trains from roof tops in the early morning hours.

Only one policeman instead of two hereafter will be assigned to each surface car. Emergency stations established for mounted policemen, when the general sympathetic strike was expected to materialize, have been abandoned.

The battleground of turbulent elements among the strikers has been transferred to Westchester county. The fight there centers in Mount Vernon, where an effort was made today to rescind the ordinance which prohibits the transit company from employing carmen who have not had fifteen days experience. The street railway company asserts that this ordinance prevents them from operating their cars.

Shortly after announcement was made that police guards were to be removed from the elevated lines, as well as the subway, three trains were attacked, one of them a Bronx subway express. A bullet, fired at a Third avenue elevated train, clipped a piece from the right ear of a passenger, Melville Wright, 40 years of age, and fell to the floor after penetrating a motorman's booth.

KILLED HUSBAND SO HE COULD WED WIDOW

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—Clarence Meyers, 23 years old, has confessed that he murdered William Travis, 43 years old, a well-to-do farmer, living near Fremont, Mich., last October, to make clear the way for his marriage to Travis' wife, 42 years old.

Travis' body, buried in a shallow grave, was unearthed Sunday and Meyers and Mrs. Travis, who were living on a farm near Grant, Mich., were placed under arrest. Just before Meyers was to be taken before a coroner's jury he broke down and confessed, exonerating Mrs. Travis of any part in the crime.

Mrs. Travis, he said, waited some time for her husband to return to her, and then consented to live with him.

Van Wert, O., Oct. 3.—An automobile collision, fortunately not serious, occurred west of the city, Sunday evening, when cars driven by Dr. C. D. Sidle, of Convoy, and Mr. Balyeat came together and suffered slight damage to axles and fenders. The Balyeat car was closely trailing another car and was not aware that the Sible roadster was about to pass in the opposite direction, although the latter car is said to have been nearly into the ditch. Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lininger, of North Tyler street, had a very narrow escape from death or serious injury, late Saturday afternoon, when struck by an automobile driven by a young woman, at the corner of Main and Walnut streets. He was thrown from his bicycle and somewhat bruised but the wheels of the machine did not strike him. His bicycle was wrecked.

JITNEY LAW IS SAFE CITY ATTORNEY SAYS

Ordinance Does Not Give Power of Discrimination to Controller.

"Our jitney ordinance will safely weather a legal storm," City Attorney Guy Colerick said when asked his opinion on the result of the attack to be launched in circuit court against the new traffic code.

"There are no valid reasons why the ordinance should be set aside. There is no strength to the argument that the ordinance gives the city comptroller too much power. The ordinance does not give him undue discriminating powers. It does not give the comptroller authority to say who shall and who shall not put up bond and who shall be protected and who considered jitney drivers.

"The new law only gives the comptroller authority to decide whether or not the bonds are in proper form; whether proper steps have been taken to secure bond and whether the bonds are properly given out. He has no right to determine the character of the drivers who shall be granted bond. The law does not give him that power. I am afraid that some people have been led to think that the ordinance does that, from the way it has been set out recently.

"The ordinance only gives the comptroller the right of seeing that the bonds are properly applied for and given out and that is a right he should have in any measure where bonds are embodied. It only gives the comptroller the right of protecting interests of his office.

"If the measure is to be attacked on that basis alone it is in no danger of being side tracked. I think the new ordinance is being attacked because it is not understood. It is a comprehensive law."

16 LOTS PURCHASED BY SCHOOL BOARD

Officials Choose Property in Harrison Hill and Driving Park.

At a purchase price of approximately $11,500, the Fort Wayne school board has closed a deal for sixteen lots and a residence in the north and south part of the city which will be used for future building purposes. The announcement was made at the regular monthly meeting held Monday night at 8 o'clock in Superintendent J. N. Study's office.

The rapid growth of the city, which will necessitate the erection of school buildings in the near future, was inducive in making the board take this action. The investment is considered a wise one by all interested in the schools of the city.

The ground purchased consists of six lots in Harrison Hill addition at the foot end of Harrison street. These lots adjoin the expansive playgrounds which have been dedicated to the city for public purposes. An acre of ground was also purchased in Driving Park addition facing State street, near Anthony boulevard, and a house and lot adjoining the Boagland school property on Butler street.

The contract for the erection of the Clay school gymnasium was awarded to Charles R. Wermuth at a bid of $9,865. His bid was the lowest one opened. Other contractors who submitted bids are as follows: Henry Hilgemann, $13,913; A. M. Young, $14,873; Henry Wahrenburg, $14,149; J. M. Henry, $11,157, and Michael Kinder, $9,922. The Edmunds Electrical Construction company was awarded the contract for electric wiring at a bid of $119.

WANT THANKSGIVING CHANGED.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 3.—A movement to place the next Thanksgiving day on Nov. 23 instead of Nov. 30 was inaugurated here today by the Merchants' association of Kansas City. A telegram signed by the executive board of the organization was sent to President Wilson requesting the earlier date. Messages to retail organizations in twenty of the larger cities also were sent asking them to take similar action. The merchants say the holiday falling as it does this year on the last day of the month works a hardship both to them and to their customers, crowding all the Christmas business into three weeks.

Cites Wilson's Address.

"President Wilson delivered four months ago a powerful and luminous speech, in which he announced that the United States could not stand aloof from a movement in which the highest interests of manhood were concerned and that he felt sure the people of the United States were prepared to join in any feasible scheme for the prevention of future wars.

"Two months ago, Mr. Charles E. Hughes in accepting the nomination for the presidency by the republican party, declared with no less force and no less sincerity that he was convinced the time had come for America to unite with European countries in a well considered scheme for applying methods of arbitration and conciliation to securing general and permanent peace in the world.

Difficult, But Important.

"Thus the heads of the two great American parties, distinguished men and the official exponents of American opinion, have promised the co-operation of their nation in this project—one of great difficulty no doubt, but also of supreme importance.

"Our people and the statesmen who lead our people could have no greater encouragement to address themselves when the time comes for this enterprise which they have already pronounced to be necessary. I ask your help to bring the matter before the people and show them how much we and every nation have to gain by removing the terror and the danger of war, which so long has hung like a black cloud over Europe. The churches could do no more truly Christian work."

Lord Bryce said the country was virtually unanimous in holding that the war must be prosecuted to victory so complete as to open the prospect of an enduring peace. He declared that the precepts of Christianity coincide with those of political wisdom and that the churches should work for national unity and good feeling between the classes.

Urges Repression of Hatred.

"Let us avoid, let us repress the spirit of hatred," he said.

"We are justly indignant at the war the enemy powers have waged. We trust that our victory will warn the world that such methods must never be resorted to again and that those guilty of them will be punished. But is it wise to talk of banning a whole people for all time to come? The German people are under a harsh and tyrannous rule which has not only deceived, and misled them, but silences any protest—and arrest those who wish to protest—against its crimes. Some day we hope they will overthrow it, when they have learned the truth.

"To indulge in revenge will be to sow the seeds of future wars. Nations cannot hate one another forever, and the sooner they cease to do so the better for all of them. We must take all proper steps to defend ourselves from any dangers that might arise, if after the war the enemy countries were to resume an insidious hostility. That is at present no more than a possibility which may never arise.

"But the talk we now hear about starting after peace has been concluded a new war of trade to follow the war of arms has immense capacities for mischief. Such a trade war would prolong, would embitter afresh those hatreds that ought to be allowed to die, and it assumes a continuance of those very things from which we expect our victory to deliver us once for all. Our main purpose will have failed if we do not secure a durable peace."

vantage. In one sector the Russians took more than 1,000 prisoners and the total taken in this region is reported at 5,000 men.

VIOLENT FIGHTING RAGES.

Paris, Oct. 3.—Violent fighting has been in progress on the Somme front, north of Rancourt, the war office announced today. The French curtain of fire and machine guns, however, were effective in checking German attempts to debouch from the St. Pierre Vaast wood in this region.

The Serbians fighting in the Kajmakcalan region, on the Macedonian front, have made further progress, according to today's announcement, taking first line trenches from the Bulgarians and capturing another battery. Bulgarian attacks on British positions on the left bank of the Struma were repulsed, the Bulgarians sustaining heavy losses.

BULGARIANS IN RETREAT.

Sofia, Oct. 2, Via London, Sept. 3.—(8:50 a. m.)—A retreat by the Bulgarians in the Lake Presba region under heavy Serbian artillery fire is reported in an official statement issued by the war office referring to the Macedonian front. The statement adds: "In the Dobrudja two Russian divisions attempted twice to advance on the Bechavul-Amzatzla-Toprais Sart line but they were compelled to retreat under the fire of our artillery and infantry. There was quiet on the Black Sea coast."

A number of Rumanians who have invaded Bulgaria is placed at several battalions by the Bulgarian war office. A statement announcing the passage of the Danube by the invaders says: "On the Danube near Lat—oo, between Rustchuk and Turtukai, the enemy conveyed to our banks in boats several battalions. Measures have been taken to attack this force."

RETREAT IS CUT OFF.

Germans Destroy Pontoon Bridges Behind Invading Rumanians.

Berlin, Oct. 3.—The war office announced today that Austrian and German monitors had destroyed the pontoon bridges across the Danube in the rear of the Rumanian forces which have crossed the river and invaded Bulgaria.

Official announcement was made here today that Austro-German troops in Transylvania in the region north of Fogaras had withdrawn before superior Rumanian forces.

BRITISH RAID GERMAN TRENCHES.

London, Oct. 3.—"The night was quiet south of the Ancre position on the Somme front," says the official report. "South of Loos our troops successfully raided enemy trenches."

Bulgarian counter attacks on the British forces which crossed the Struma on the Macedonian front were repulsed yesterday the war office announced today. The statement adds: "The royal flying corps carried out successful bombing attacks on troops in transport in Prosnika and on a railroad train traveling from there to Seres.

British naval aeroplanes yesterday made another attack on the German airship sheds in the vicinity of Brussels, according to a British official statement issued this afternoon. One of the British aeroplanes was lost. The text of the statement reads:

"A further attack was made yesterday by naval aeroplanes upon enemy airship shed in the vicinity of Brussels. One aeroplane failed to return."

Field Marshal von Mackensen, who commands the forces of the central allies operating against the Rumanians and Russians in the province of Dobrudja has ordered the evacuation of the Danube fortresses of Silistria and Turtukai, recently captured by the Teuton Bulgarian and Turkish forces, says a dispatch from Rome to the wireless press.

LIVING COST GOES HIGHER

higher and cabbages more than 40 per cent higher. Prices paid to producers of farm products increased 9.3 cent during August while during the last eight years these prices have shown a decrease of about 2.1 per cent during that month. September began with the index figures of these prices 21.9 per cent higher than it was a year ago.

STAPLES 50 PER CENT. HIGHER.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Staple foods such as butter, eggs and cheese have in the last year advanced nearly 50 per cent in price on the Chicago market, according to reports today from dealers in provisions, and even greater increases are shown in the price of potatoes, cabbages and onions. Potatoes have more than tripled in value since a year ago, having advanced from 48 cents a bushel to $1.45. Cabbages are selling today for $3 a barrel as against 65 cents a year ago. Onions that sold at 60 cents a sack in 1915 are now bringing $1.35. Flour has increased more than 0 per cent in price.

The increased prices appear in virtually all the vegetable and dairy foods the housewife daily requires for her table. When she goes marketing this season her check way well be at least twice what it was last fall.

The latest advances in food prices have been slight, but the general advance has been continuous, especially during the last two months.

Retailers declare they are not profiting by the advances, which they generally admit apply to virtually every article of food handled.

The price of flour—the grade called bakers' flour—was advanced ten cents a barrel today at $8.75. It was the third advance in three weeks. A year ago the flour sold for $5.30 a barrel. The price of standard Minnesota patents—the family grade of flour—is $9.10 a barrel, a 30 per cent increase within the last three weeks and an increase of $3.20 a barrel as compared with a year ago.

What are characterized as the highest prices ever known at this season of the year for butter and eggs at Chicago prevailed here today, according to reports from merchants. Extras in creamery butter sold at from 38 to 40 cents a pound as against 27 cents a year ago for the same grades. Eggs retailed around 37 cents a dozen, the same classification selling a year ago at 23½ to 24 cents.

Cheese dealers reported American cheese selling at 20 to 21½ cents a pound against 13½ to 14½ a year ago. Other food products showed as much or more appreciation in value, a notable instance being potatoes, which jobbed at $1.45 a bushel, as against 48 cents a year ago.

Owing to an increase of wages to our cigarmakers and the increased cost of all materials entering into the manufacturing of our cigars, we are compelled to advance our selling prices, to the dealers, on our various brands.

Excellence of quality and workmanship has always been characteristic of our cigars and under the existing conditions, to maintain this same high standard of quality and workmanship and to prevent the impairing of our investment, no other alternative is open to us.

A Free Prescription You Can Have Filled and Use at Home.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared the trouble and expense of ever getting glasses. Eye troubles of many descriptions may be wonderfully benefited by following the simple rules. Here is the prescription: Go to any active drug store and get a bottle of Bon-Opto tablets. Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

Note: Another prominent Physician to whom the above article was submitted, said: "Bon-Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufacturers guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money. It can be obtained from any good druggist and is one of the very few preparations I feel should be kept on hand for regular use in almost every family." Dreier & Meyer Drug Co.'s Sells It.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known down town druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—Advertisement.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Philipians 2:1-13.

1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name.

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling;

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Mr. For in the Campaign.

Announcement of individual change of political allegiance is in no sense a novelty in American political campaigns. We invariably have with us those who are unable to longer follow, because of conscientious views regarding changed conditions, leadership to which they may have long subscribed. They are courageous enough from firm conviction to brave the assaults that are certain to be made and the insults that are sure to be hurled at them by those from whom, in the exercise of their own reasoning and in adherence to their own convictions as to the policy best for American citizenship, they have drawn apart, temporarily at least. They are seeking no reward, hoping for no personal gain and desiring nothing for themselves but a sharing in the common betterment they covet for their country.

The present campaign is supplying some conspicuous instances of this character. Thomas Alva Edison is one of them. Henry Ford is another, and it is the case of Mr. Ford, lifelong republican, that we wish to consider for a moment. There can be no questioning Mr. Ford's standing as an American business man who has built up not only an immensely successful industry through his own initiative, but who has amassed a fortune without the taint of suspicion on a dollar of it. He recently announced his purpose to support the president, and still more lately has amplified and emphasized it in citing anew the cause which impelled him to take this action.

Mr. Ford refuses to be confused by dust thrown in the air. He insists, and correctly, too, that the vital issues to be passed upon in November are "the record of the Wilson administration in domestic legislation and in conducting the foreign relations of the government." While unreservedly commending the president's stand on the eight-hour day law, Mr. Ford refuses to regard it as a vital issue. The emphasis of the case Mr. Ford puts upon the question of continued peace or of embroilment with foreign governments. Attacks upon the Wilson foreign policy, Mr. Ford points out, plainly by implication at least leave one to understand that something different is the purpose of Mr. Hughes—and what is desired that differs from the program of peace? Can there be any other answer than war?

But Mr. Ford sees some other elements in the case as well. He notes that the "stamp of Wall street, of the interests which see through dollar-marked spectacles and can think only in terms of selfishness" is lined up in opposition to the president. He has no patience with the claim of Mr. Wilson's foes that we are living in "a fool's paradise of temporary prosperity." He points to the federal reserve act, the trade commission act and the tariff commission act as efficient stabalizing forces given by the present administration to safeguard the future, and as evidence of the constructive accomplishment that merits support instead of wholesale censure. Mr. Ford is supporting the president because, as a hardheaded business man no less than an American citizen of lofty character and purpose, he is able to see very clearly his duty in the present contest.

Mr. Beveridge, erstwhile guardian of Mary-and-the-vine-clad cot, is preparing for a sweeping campaign tour of the west in the interest of Mr. Hughes, but "it is understood," reads the announcement from Indianapolis, "that Mr. Beveridge will not be heard in Indiana during the campaign." Which is a pity. It would be highly diverting, at least, to be able to note just how a protocol is able to work between Mr. Beveridge and those Indiana republican leaders whom he flayed in merciless fashion while leading the militant moose hosts but a few brief years ago. The arrangement that keeps Mr. Beveridge out of the Indiana campaign is evidence, at least, that neither he nor they have forgotten nor forgiven.

The city school board is displaying commendable far-sightedness in its purchase of tracts of land in the Harrison Hill and the Driving Park sections of the city as sites for schools in the future when the demand for them arises, as it most assuredly will in both instances. Nothing is more certain than that Fort Wayne will continue to grow and to expand in every direction. We have not always shown good judgment in preparation for the future, as witness the high prices which must now be paid for park and playground extensions and other land for public purposes in the older sections of the city. The provision for these schools has been made at a fraction of the cost of the same sites a few years hence.

The fact that railway earnings this year have been but 5.6 per cent net as against 3,000 per cent earned by one Detroit automobile concern on its capitalization seems to lend some support to the contention of Vice President Maxwell, of the Wabash, that rail rates need "overhauling." On second thought, however, it may be the automobile rates that are in most need of a bit of tinkering.

You have just one more week in which to prepare to attend to that matter of registration if you didn't vote two years ago, or if you have moved into another precinct since that time. Next Monday, October 9, is registration day—and the only registration day this year.

Two Famous Men Repudiate Hughes

BY W. S. U'REN.
"Father" of Direct Legislation and Prominent Oregon Attorney.

Judge Hughes' "deeds not words" speech stamps him as a dangerous man for president of the United States. "Deeds, not words," means fight first and talk afterwards. They did that in Europe two years ago and are fighting yet.

Do Americans need any such experience? Common sense tells us that it is better to use the supply of good words before doing the deeds that may mean war. America can get a fight anytime she wants it, even with crippled Mexico.

If Judge Hughes thinks his foresight is as good as his wonderful hind-sight, he should have told us what to do to avoid the railroad strike, and exactly what he would do with Mexico; also with the allies for interfering with neutral commerce and mails, and with Germany for refusing to explain the Owego shooting incident. On all of these he is silent.

I am a republican, but I shall vote for Wilson. We know he will exhaust all available good words before doing "deeds" that would justify war. We know his legislative record of things done for the direct election of United States senators, sailors' freedom, reserve banking, rural credits and the abolition of child labor.

BY FRANCIS J. HENEY.
San Francisco Graft Prosecutor and Progressive Party Organizer.

I shall not vote for any republican candidate for president hereafter as long as the corrupt control of the nominating machinery of the republican party is permitted to continue in existence.

Political freedom is a mockery under a system which permits a few unscrupulous manipulators and corruptors to defeat the will of millions of voters in any political party by substituting the will of those few for the will of the voters.

What this country needs is a direct presidential preference primary law. And in one of President Wilson's first messages to congress he recommended the passage of such a measure. The press of important remedial legislation, however, has prevented this recommendation being carried out by congress. BUT I HAVE FAITH THAT PRESIDENT WILSON WILL ULTIMATELY BRING ABOUT THE ENACTMENT OF THIS GREAT REFORM INTO LAW, AND THIS IS THE MAIN REASON I AM PLEDGING MY SUPPORT FOR THE COMING ELECTION.

To my mind, the nomination of Mr. Charles E. Hughes as republican candidate for president represents the fruition of the political corruption which was so successfully practiced by the republican national committee four years ago under the guidance of a handful of political jugglers. For that reason I cannot vote for or support Mr. Hughes.

MONTH'S RECRUITING RECORD.

J. C. King, chief petty officer in charge of the Fort Wayne recruiting station, in a report of his office for the month, shows that there were nine applicants and that seven were rejected for disability. Mr. King says the poor showing is due to the great demand for labor and the high wages prevailing in all lines. The fall months are, as a rule, good ones for recruiting.

BIG MEETING HELD BY LEO DEMOCRATS

Congressman Cline Addresses Them Monday in Woodman Hall.

Directing emphasis to the constructive legislation which the democratic congress had enacted and showing that the people had given their approval of the administration of President Wilson in many ways, Congressman Cyrus Cline, Monday night, spoke before a rousing meeting of Leo democrats in the Woodman hall at that place. Every seat in the hall was occupied and many stood.

Henry Swartz presided at the meeting. Harry Muller discussed the national and state issues. Following Mr. Cline in speeches were Frank A. Emrick, prosecuting attorney, and J. A. McArdle, coroner.

Spoke at Cedar Creek.

Cyrus Cline, congressman, was also the speaker at a democratic meeting held at Cedar Creek Monday night, addressing a large crowd on the political situation from the standpoint of the tariff, the eight hour law and the manner in which President Wilson had kept the country at peace.

At a meeting held at Eel River school house Judge John H. Aikon and Louie Dunten were the speakers. They discussed national and state issues. At Leo, John C. Hoffman, deputy prosecutor, and Harry Muller were the speakers.

Mr. Cline's Address.

Mr. Cline said in part in his Leo speech:

"I want to discuss some of the numerous acts the democratic administration has written upon the statute books for the especial benefit of the farmer," said Mr. Cline. "They constitute the greatest constructive scheme ever conceived and written into law by any party. The most important of them all is the federal reserve act—the new currency system. In my opinion the present prosperity—nation wide—is bottomed upon the currency law. For fourteen years before we came into power the republican party was in exclusive control of every branch of the government. The people lost confidence in business because it was hampered by an unyielding system that produced periodically, panic and disaster. The democratic party set about immediately after the revision of the tariff that the country might be rid of the Payne-Aldrich bill, to give the country a new currency system. The country was divided into twelve great regional districts and a great bank located in each district with auxiliary or member banks in every county in the respective districts so that in its operation the system should get into direct touch with the necessities of the people. We passed that law late in 1913. It took well toward a year to get the machinery into operation. Before it was actually a working force in our fiscal affairs the great European war broke out. You are all familiar with what it has done for the country in this calamity. What was the very first effect we sought in this legislation? To break up the private control of the surplus cash of the country and consequently the control of the credit of the nation. We destroyed the influence of Wall street in our fiscal affairs and placed the surplus cash of the country in immediate touch with business.

Commercial Values Shrank.

"You know what always happens when we have 'tight money' or when money is 'close.' It means shrinkage in values, unsteady business, feverish uncertainty, a loss of stability in values. The democratic party set about to remedy that condition and it has done it effectually. The iniquity of the republican system under which business staggered for years is best demonstrated by the panic of 1907, when on an October day business and commercial values shrank fifty per cent. in twenty-four hours. The republican platform of 1908 said:

"Marvelous growth of wealth and population, multiplying centers of distribution, increasing demand for movement of crops in south and west, the entailing of periodical changes in the monetary conditions, disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system.'

"Mr. Taft and his party came into power on that platform, but during the four years not an effective act was passed to avert the panic of 1907. In its platform of 1912, the republican party again said:

"We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of business and the welfare of labor by producing continuous employment.'

"I want to call your attention to the federal farm loan act providing for the borrowing by farmers of money on long time and a low rate of interest, one of the most valuable pieces of legislation to the farm the democratic party has passed. Do you want these laws replaced? Our opponents say all this legislation must be wiped off the statute books. It is your business to know where the candidates for congress of all parties who are asking for your support, stand on these questions. 'Pussyfooting' with the great fundamentals shall not be permitted any candidate for congress if I can prevent it. It is my right to ask where the man stands on great vital questions who wants my vote and it is your right as well. What laws would my opponent repeal if he had the power?"

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active.

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

Misses Ruth and Hilda Lanternier, of Anthony boulevard, gave a beautiful pre-nuptial party last evening as a compliment to Miss Antoinette Meehan. The Misses Lanternier had made beautiful and extensive arrangements for the entertainment of the eleven guests and the lovely decorations in green and white and gifts of china from the company all helped out the pleasure of Miss Meehan and her friends. The supper table was done with a colonial wicker basket filled with white Killarney roses and plumosus, and Miss Meehan's place was indicated by a corsage of roses. The place cards were water color drawings while Miss Meehan's place had a white wedding bell above her chair with festoons of green tulle coming down to the chair and held to its arms with butterfly bows. On the table were white candles in crystal holders tied with bows of green and the menu was planned to carry out the same coloring as the decoration. During the evening the company sewed and visited. Miss Monica Boeter will be a hostess during the week for Miss Meehan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boester, of 1210 Fairfield avenue, arrived at the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on Saturday, Sept. 30. Because of the day all the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Boester made it a point to be on hand for a family gathering at the old home where Mr. and Mrs. Boester have lived their entire married life. The sons and daughters were accompanied by their respective wives or husbands and children so the company included Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Strasburg and children, of this city; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Boester and children, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. John Boester and family, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Boester and children, of Milwaukee, and Miss Mary Boester, who lives with her parents. Other guests were Rev. and Mrs. William Moll, of Fort Wayne, and Prof. Eifrig, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Boester are widely known members of Emmanuel Lutheran church in Fort Wayne. Their marriage took place in St. Paul's church with Rev. Stubnatzy officiating. But when the congregation decided to build a west end church Mr. and Mrs. Boester were among those who left the older congregation to build up the new one. Mr. Boester has served for twenty-one years as a trustee in Emmanuel church. Mrs. Boester's maiden name was Fredericka Heuer and she came from an old and well known Fort Wayne family and was born here. Mr. Boester is a native of Germany but came to Indiana when quite young. At present Mr. Boester is the oldest active contractor in the city and he is apparently good for some years to come. Miss Strasburg catered for a bountiful wedding supper at the reunion on Saturday and there were music and speeches and much visiting during the pleasant evening.

Nichter—Schnieders.

A beautiful wedding in St. Andrew's Catholic church of Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, was that of Miss Anna Schnieders, who was married to Mr. Frank Nichter by Rev. Father F. T. Faust, of Alexandria, who is a cousin of the groom. Father Faust also celebrated the nuptial mass. Miss Clara Nichter, a sister to the groom, and Mr. Clement Schnieders, a brother to the bride, were the attendants. Little Beatrice Orth, a niece of the bride was as sweet looking as could be, dressed in white and with a basket of sunkist roses in her hands, she preceded the bride as flower girl. The bride wore a good looking gown of white crepe de chine combined with georgette crepe. A veil of tulle was held to her hair with a tiny cluster of swansonia blossoms on each side and a shower bouquet of bride roses and swansonia blossoms made up the lovely costume and was very becoming to the sweet face of the bride. Miss Nichter was gowned in yellow, her dress of canary color crepe de chine and Georgette being trimmed with satin ribbons while in her hair a wreath effect of sunset roses and a bouquet of the beautiful yellow blossoms for her hands, made a stunning effect. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Orth, 2516 New Haven avenue, to immediate relatives and near friends. Among the guests was an uncle of the bride, Mr. John W. Schnieders, of Pittsburg. The house was decorated with garden flowers and roses and the bride's table in roses, ferns and a handsome wedding cake. The bride and groom are to take a trip to Washington, Baltimore and other eastern points. For traveling the bride will wear a plum color chiffon broadcloth suit, a blouse of gray georgette and a velvet hat to match the suit. After they return from their trip the bride and groom are to be at home for a while with Mr. and Mrs. Orth, with whom the bride has been making her home. The bride is a daughter of Mr. G. A. Schnieders and aside from being of a beautiful disposition and fine character she is well fitted to take care of a home. Mr. Nichter is an excellent young man. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Nichter, of Walnut street, and is employed in the motive power department of the Pennsylvania shops. Both bride and groom have a host of friends.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"Experience" Tuesday Evening and Matinee and Night Wednesday.

A most notable engagement at the Majestic theatre tonight will be George V. Hobart's modern morality drama, "Experience." There will be two night performances with a matinee tomorrow. This is one of the largest theatrical organizations that has been booked in Fort Wayne in the past ten years and the demand for reserved seats has been exceptionally large. William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, the producers of "Experience," will send the famous New York "Experience" organization here with its cast of 82 notable players. In ten brilliant and spectacular scenes, "Experience" stirringly tells the adventures of Youth and the temptations he meets in quest of fame and fortune. The ladies in the Golden Cabaret scene of "Experience" are said by the critics to have set a new standard of delightful girlhood, for the stage.

"Ramona" Unique in Stageland.

Occupying an unique position in the amusement world because of the novel character of the performance, which is a combined cinema, operatic spectacle, "Ramona," will have special claim for interest of local theatregoers when it is presented here at the Majestic for one week, starting Monday, October 16.

The dramatic version of Helen Hunt Jackson's widely read story of the government's ill-treatment of the Mission Indians of California and of the romance of Alessandro, the aborigine, for Ramona, the half-breed, possesses great fascination for the threatregoers of every class and creed with the result that it is enjoying prosperity as one of the solid, substantial successes of the season.

WORLD'S GREATEST BASSO HERE SOON

Jose Mardones With Boston-National Grand Opera Company.

Jose Mardones, who is universally recognized by critics and music lovers as the world's greatest basso, is again this season with the Boston National Grand Opera company, and will appear with that organization in this city

JOSE MARDONES.

Thursday, Oct. 12, at the Palace theater.

Critics have not hesitated to assert that there has been no basso profundo who could approach him in vocal and histrionic attainments since the late Pol Plancon was in his prime. Mardones, like so many other singers of first magnitude, began his work as a church soloist and singer of oratorio. He gained considerable note in his native Spain in this musical work. Then came operatic engagements in Lisbon, Rome, Turin and Buenos Aires. Coming to the United States he appeared with Alice Nielsen and Luisa Tetrazzini. His success was instant.

With the Boston National Grand Opera company he sings the leading basso roles. His Mephistopheles in "Faust" is, of course, vocally superb, but he also contributes to grand opera an interpretation which, on its dramatic side, presents a different artistic conception. His other interpretations are equally well known.

AT THE PALACE

EAR CARESSING HARMONY.

Burt LaMont's Singers Scoring at the New Palace.

The ear caressing harmony which the Burt LaMont frontier singers are creating at the New Palace, in what they style a "round up" of mirth and melody," is proving one of the season's hits. The act, which is arranged to depict a group of cow boys and cow girls gathered at the ranch house after a day's work, whiling away an evening in song and story, is a beautifully conceived bit of vaudeville. Without exception the voices are consequential.

Ethel Mae Barker's violin, curls and smile have entangled Fort Wayne. This winsome miss with the eloquent violin, has a splendid repertoire of numbers, in all of which she is assisted by her own accompanist. A dramatic sketch with a strong bit of character acting as its forte, is the playlet "The Right Man," in which a trio of players are proving that a vaudeville audience is just as willing to cry as anything else, just so its woe is sugar coated. Clayton and Lennie's skit is an amusing bit of absurd banter that closed with a difficult character comedy song. Frevoli is opening this bill with his shadowgraphic novelty, while the Oxford Trio close it with a game of basket ball on bicycles.

EASY FOR COUNTERFEITERS.

Crowds at Expositions Offered Fine Field for Operations.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Crowds attending the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego constituted a good field for counterfeiters and 61 arrests on charges of manufacturing bogus money were made in California by secret service agents according to a treasury department report made public today covering the fiscal year ended June 30. In no other states were so many cases uncovered. Of the 417 arrests of supposed counterfeiters, 229 resulted in convictions, 9 in acquittals, 114 cases are pending and 55 were lost in other ways. Italians were most numerous among foreign born counterfeiters.

THE WILD GARDEN AT UNDERLEY HALL

By Thomas H. Mawson, Hon. A. R. I. B. A. and Special Lecturer on Landscape Design at the University of Liverpool.

Ten miles from the original home of George Washington's ancestors at Warton, England, is Underley Hall, famous for its wild gardens. Beautiful natural flora abound in these famous gardens, and they have become one of the many big scenic spots of the old English halls. Wild gardens are becoming more and more popular in America, and this English author's pictures of the Underley gardens, accompanied by photographs, including a full page frontispiece view, will prove interesting for American garden lovers. The author has been commissioned on the personal recommendation of the King and Queen of the Hellenes to prepare comprehensive plans for the extension, remodeling and beautification of the City of Athens.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

Philipians 2:1-13.

2 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2 Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

9 Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name.

10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12 Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling:

13 For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

Mr. For in the Campaign.

Announcement of individual change of political allegiance is in no sense a novelty in American political campaigns. We invariably have with us those who are unable to longer follow, because of conscientious views regarding changed conditions, leadership to which they may have long subscribed. They are courageous enough from firm conviction to brave the assaults that are certain to be made and the insults that are sure to be hurled at them by those from whom, in the exercise of their own reasoning and in adherence to their own convictions as to the policy best for American citizenship, they have drawn apart, temporarily at least. They are seeking no reward, hoping for no personal gain and desiring nothing for themselves but a sharing in the common betterment they covet for their country.

The present campaign is supplying some conspicuous instances of this character. Thomas Alva Edison is one of them. Henry Ford is another, and it is the case of Mr. Ford, lifelong republican, that we wish to consider for a moment. There can be no questioning Mr. Ford's standing as an American business man who has built up not only an immensely successful industry through his own initiative, but who has amassed a fortune without the taint of suspicion on a dollar of it. He recently announced his purpose to support the president, and still more lately has amplified and emphasized it in citing anew the cause which impelled him to take this action.

Mr. Ford refuses to be confused by dust thrown in the air. He insists, and correctly, too, that the vital issues to be passed upon in November are "the record of the Wilson administration in domestic legislation and in conducting the foreign relations of the government." While unreservedly commending the president's stand on the eight-hour day law, Mr. Ford refuses to regard it as a vital issue. The emphasis of the case Mr. Ford puts upon the question of continued peace or of embroilment with foreign governments. Attacks upon the Wilson foreign policy, Mr. Ford points out, plainly by implication at least leave one to understand that something different is the purpose of Mr. Hughes—and what is desired that differs from the program of peace? Can there be any other answer than war?

But Mr. Ford sees some other elements in the case as well. He notes that the "stamp of Wall street, of the interests which see through dollar-marked spectacles and can think only in terms of selfishness" is lined up in opposition to the president. He has no patience with the claim of Mr. Wilson's foes that we are living in "a fool's paradise of temporary prosperity." He points to the federal reserve act, the trade commission act and the tariff commission act as efficient stabalizing forces given by the present administration to safeguard the future, and as evidence of the constructive accomplishment that merits support instead of wholesale censure. Mr. Ford is supporting the president because, as a hardheaded business man no less than an American citizen of lofty character and purpose, he is able to see very clearly his duty in the present contest.

Mr. Beveridge, erstwhile guardian of Mary-and-the-vine-clad cot, is preparing for a sweeping campaign tour of the west in the interest of Mr. Hughes, but "it is understood," reads the announcement from Indianapolis, "that Mr. Beveridge will not be heard in Indiana during the campaign." Which is a pity. It would be highly diverting, at least, to be able to note just how a protocol is able to work between Mr. Beveridge and those Indiana republican leaders whom he flayed in merciless fashion while leading the militant moose hosts but a few brief years ago. The arrangement that keeps Mr. Beveridge out of the Indiana campaign is evidence, at least, that neither he nor they have forgotten nor forgiven.

The city school board is displaying commendable far-sightedness in its purchase of tracts of land in the Harrison Hill and the Driving Park sections of the city as sites for schools in the future when the demand for them arises, as it most assuredly will in both instances. Nothing is more certain than that Fort Wayne will continue to grow and to expand in every direction. We have not always shown good judgment in preparation for the future, as witness the high prices which must now be paid for park and playground extensions and other land for public purposes in the older sections of the city. The provision for these schools has been made at a fraction of the cost of the same sites a few years hence.

The fact that railway earnings this year have been but 5.6 per cent net as against 3,000 per cent earned by one Detroit automobile concern on its capitalization seems to lend some support to the contention of Vice President Maxwell, of the Wabash, that rail rates need "overhauling." On second thought, however, it may be the automobile rates that are in most need of a bit of tinkering.

You have just one more week in which to prepare to attend to that matter of registration if you didn't vote two years ago, or if you have moved into another precinct since that time. Next Monday, October 9, is registration day—and the only registration day this year.

Two Famous Men Repudiate Hughes

BY W. S. U'REN.

"Father" of Direct Legislation and Prominent Oregon Attorney.

Judge Hughes' "deeds not words" speech stamps him as a dangerous man for president of the United States. "Deeds, not words," means fight first and talk afterwards. They did that in Europe two years ago and are fighting yet.

Do Americans need any such experience? Common sense tells us that it is better to use the supply of good words before doing the deeds that may mean war. America can get a fight anytime she wants it, even with crippled Mexico.

If Judge Hughes thinks his foresight is as good as his wonderful hind-sight, he should have told us what to do to avoid the railroad strike, and exactly what he would do with Mexico; also with the allies for interfering with neutral commerce and mails, and with Germany for refusing to explain the Owego shooting incident. On all of these he is silent.

I am a republican, but I shall vote for Wilson. We know he will exhaust all available good words before doing "deeds" that would justify war. We know his legislative record of things done for the direct election of United States senators, sailors' freedom, reserve banking, rural credits and the abolition of child labor.

BY FRANCIS J. HENEY.

San Francisco Graft Prosecutor and Progressive Party Organizer.

I shall not vote for any republican candidate for president hereafter as long as the corrupt control of the nominating machinery of the republican party is permitted to continue in existence.

Political freedom is a mockery under a system which permits a few unscrupulous manipulators and corruptors to defeat the will of millions of voters in any political party by substituting the will of those few for the will of the voters.

What this country needs is a direct presidential preference primary law. And in one of President Wilson's first messages to congress he recommended the passage of such a measure. The press of important remedial legislation, however, has prevented this recommendation being carried out by congress. BUT I HAVE FAITH THAT PRESIDENT WILSON WILL ULTIMATELY BRING ABOUT THE ENACTMENT OF THIS GREAT REFORM INTO LAW, AND THIS IS THE MAIN REASON I AM PLEDGING MY SUPPORT FOR THE COMING ELECTION.

To my mind, the nomination of Mr. Charles E. Hughes as republican candidate for president represents the fruition of the political corruption which was so successfully practiced by the republican national committee four years ago under the guidance of a handful of political jugglers. For that reason I cannot vote for or support Mr. Hughes.

MONTH'S RECRUITING RECORD.

J. C. King, chief petty officer in charge of the Fort Wayne recruiting station, in a report of his office for the month, shows that there were nine applicants and that seven were rejected for disability. Mr. King says the poor showing is due to the great demand for labor and the high wages prevailing in all lines. The fall months are, as a rule, good ones for recruiting.

Don't wait for time to heal your skin.—

Congressman Cline Addresses Them Monday in Woodman Hall.

Directing emphasis to the constructive legislation which the democratic congress had enacted and showing that the people had given their approval of the administration of President Wilson in many ways, Congressman Cyrus Cline, Monday night, spoke before a rousing meeting of Leo democrats in the Woodman hall at that place. Every seat in the hall was occupied and many stood.

Henry Swartz presided at the meeting. Harry Muller discussed the national and state issues. Following Mr. Cline in speeches were Frank A. Emrick, prosecuting attorney, and J. A. McArdle, coroner.

Spoke at Cedar Creek.

Cyrus Cline, congressman, was also the speaker at a democratic meeting held at Cedar Creek Monday night, addressing a large crowd on the political situation from the standpoint of the tariff, the eight hour law and the manner in which President Wilson had kept the country at peace.

At a meeting held at Eel River school house Judge John H. Aiken and Louie Dunten were the speakers. They discussed national and state issues. At Leo, John C. Hoffman, deputy prosecutor, and Harry Muller were the speakers.

Mr. Cline's Address.

Mr. Cline said in part in his Leo speech:

"I want to discuss some of the numerous acts the democratic administration has written upon the statute books for the especial benefit of the farmer," said Mr. Cline. "They constitute the greatest constructive scheme ever conceived and written into law by any party. The most important of them all is the federal reserve act—the new currency system. In my opinion the present prosperity—nation wide—is bottomed upon the currency law. For fourteen years before we came into power the republican party was in exclusive control of every branch of the government. The people lost confidence in business because it was hampered by an unyielding system that produced periodically, panic and disaster. The democratic party set about immediately after the revision of the tariff that the country might be rid of the Payne-Aldrich bill, to give the country a new currency system. The country was divided into twelve great regional districts and a great bank located in each district with auxiliary or member banks in every county in the respective districts so that in its operation the system should get into direct touch with the necessities of the people. We passed that law late in 1913. It took well toward a year to get the machinery into operation. Before it was actually a working force in our fiscal affairs the great European war broke out. You are all familiar with what it has done for the country in this calamity. What was the very first effect we sought in this legislation? To break up the private control of the surplus cash of the country and consequently the control of the credit of the nation. We destroyed the influence of Wall street in our fiscal affairs and placed the surplus cash of the country in immediate touch with business.

Commercial Values Shrank.

"You know what always happens when we have 'tight money' or when money is 'close.' It means shrinkage in values, unsteady business, feverish uncertainty, a loss of stability in values. The democratic party set about to remedy that condition and it has done it effectually. The iniquity of the republican system under which business staggered for years is best demonstrated by the panic of 1907, when on an October day business and commercial values shrank fifty per cent, in twenty-four hours. The republican platform of 1908 said:

"'Marvelous growth of wealth and population, multiplying centers of distribution, increasing demand for movement of crops in south and west, the entailing of periodical changes in the monetary conditions, disclose the need of a more elastic and adaptable system.'

"Mr. Taft and his party came into power on that platform, but during the four years not an effective act was passed to avert the panic of 1907. In its platform of 1912, the republican party again said:

"'We need measures which will prevent the recurrence of money panics and financial disturbances and which will promote the prosperity of business and the welfare of labor by producing continuous employment.'

"I want to call your attention to the federal farm loan act providing for the borrowing by farmers of money on long time and a low rate of interest, one of the most valuable pieces of legislation to the farm the democratic party has passed. Do you want these laws replaced? Our opponents say all this legislation must be wiped off the statute books. It is your business to know where the candidates for congress of all parties who are asking for your support, stand on these questions. 'Pussyfooting' with the great fundamentals shall not be permitted any candidate for congress if I can prevent it. It is my right to ask where the man stands on great vital questions who wants my vote and it is your right as well. What laws would my opponent repeal if he had the power?"

GLASS OF SALTS CLEANS KIDNEYS

If your Back hurts or Bladder bothers you, drink lots of water.

When your kidneys hurt and your back feels sore, don't get scared and proceed to load your stomach with a lot of drugs that excite the kidneys and irritate the entire urinary tract. Keep your kidneys clean like you keep your bowels clean, by flushing them with a mild, harmless salts which removes the body's urinous waste and stimulates them to their normal activity. The function of the kidneys is to filter the blood. In 24 hours they strain from it 500 grains of acid and waste, so we can readily understand the vital importance of keeping the kidneys active

Drink lots of water—you can't drink too much; also get from any pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning for a few days and your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate clogged kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean and active. Try this, also keep up the water drinking, and no doubt you will wonder what became of your kidney trouble and backache.—Advertisement.

On these wooded lots the original growth of trees is still intact and they are bound to make ideal home sites for those who are wise enough to take advantage of the opportunity now afforded to prospective purchasers. Misses Ruth and Hilda Lanternier, of Anthony boulevard, gave a beautiful pre-nuptial party last evening as a compliment to Miss Antoinette Meehan. The Misses Lanternier had made beautiful and extensive arrangements for the entertainment of the eleven guests and the lovely decorations in green and white and gifts of china from the company all helped out the pleasure of Miss Meehan and her friends. The supper table was done with a colonial wicker basket filled with white Killarney roses and plumosus, and Miss Meehan's place was indicated by a corsage of roses. The place cards were water color drawings while Miss Meehan's place had a white wedding bell above her chair with festoons of green tulle coming down to the chair and held to its arms with buttonty bows. On the table were white candles in crystal holders tied with bows of green and the menu was planned to carry out the same coloring as the decoration. During the evening the company sewed and visited. Miss Monica Bueter will be a hostess during the week for Miss Meehan.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boester, of 1210 Fairfield avenue, arrived at the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage on Saturday, Sept. 30. Because of the day all the sons and daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Boester made it a point to be on hand for a family gathering at the old home, where Mr. and Mrs. Boester have lived their entire married life. The sons and daughters were accompanied by their respective wives or husbands and children so the company included Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Strasburg and children, of this city; Rev. and Mrs. Henry Boester and children, of Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. John Boester and family, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Ernst Boester and children, of Milwaukee, and Miss Mary Boester, who lives with her parents. Other guests were Rev. and Mrs. William Moll, of Fort Wayne, and Prof. Eifrig, of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Boester are widely known members of Emmanuel Lutheran church in Fort Wayne. Their marriage took place in St. Paul's church with Rev. Stubnatzy officiating. But when the congregation decided to build a west end church Mr. and Mrs. Boester were among those who left the older congregation to build up the new one. Mr. Boester has served for twenty-one years as a trustee in Emmanual church. Mrs. Boester's maiden name was Fredericka Heuer and she came from an old and well known Fort Wayne family and was born here. Mr. Boester is a native of Germany but came to Indiana when quite young. At present Mr. Boester is the oldest active contractor in the city and he is apparently good for some years to come. Nichter—Schnieders.

A beautiful wedding in St. Andrew's Catholic church of Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, was that of Miss Anna Schnieders, who was married to Mr. Frank Nichter by Rev. Father F. T. Faust, of Alexandria, who is a cousin of the groom. Father Faust also celebrated the nuptial mass. Miss Clara Nichter, a sister to the groom, and Mr. Clement Schnieders, a brother to the bride, were the attendants. Little Beatrice Orth, a niece of the bride was as sweet looking as could be, dressed in white and with a basket of sunkist roses in her hands, she preceded the bride as flower girl. The bride wore a good looking gown of white crepe de chine combined with georgette crepe. A veil of tulle was held to her hair with a tiny cluster of swansonia blossoms on each side and a shower bouquet of bride roses and swansonia blossoms made up the lovely costume and was very becoming to the sweet face of the bride. Miss Nichter was gowned in yellow, her dress of canary color crepe de chine and Georgette being trimmed with satin ribbons while in her hair a wreath effect of sunset roses and a bouquet of the beautiful yellow blossoms for her hands, made a stunning effect. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Joseph Orth, 2516 New Haven avenue, to immediate relatives and near friends. Among the guests was an uncle of the bride, Mr. John W. Schnieders, of Pittsburg. The house was decorated with garden flowers and roses and the bride's table in roses, ferns and a handsome wedding cake. The bride and groom are to take a trip to Washington, Baltimore and other eastern points. WORLD'S GREATEST BASSO HERE SOON

Jose Mardones With Boston-National Grand Opera Company.

Jose Mardones, who is universally recognized by critics and music lovers as the world's greatest basso, is again this season with the Boston National Grand Opera company, and will appear with that organization in this city

JOSE MARDONES.

Thursday, Oct. 12, at the Palace theater.

Critics have not hesitated to assert that there has been no basso profundo who could approach him in vocal and histrionic attainments since the late Pol Plancon was in his prime. Mardones, like so many other singers of first magnitude, began his work as a church soloist and singer of oratorio. He gained considerable note in his native Spain in this musical work. Then came operatic engagements in Lisbon, Rome, Turin and Buenos Aires. Coming to the United States he appeared with Alice Nielsen and Luisa Tetrazzini. His success was instant.

With the Boston National Grand Opera company he sings the leading basso roles. His Mephistopheles in "Faust" is, of course, vocally superb, but he also contirbutes to grand opera an interpretation which, on its dramatic side, presents a different artistic conception. His other interpretations are equally well known.

AT THE PALACE

EAR CARESSING HARMONY.

Burt LaMont's Singers Scoring at the New Palace.

The ear caressing harmony which the Burt LaMont frontier singers are creating at the New Palace, in what they style a "round up" of mirth and melody," is proving one of the season's hits. The act, which is arranged to depict a group of cow boys and cow girls gathered at the ranch house after a day's work, whiling away an evening in song and story, is a beautifully conceived bit of vaudeville. Without exception the voices are consequential.

Ethel Mae Barker's violin, curls and smile have entangled Fort Wayne. This winsome miss with the eloquent violin, has a splendid repertoire of numbers, in all of which she is assisted by her own accompanist. A dramatic sketch with a strong bit of character acting as its forte, is the playlet "The Right Man," in which a trio of players are proving that a vaudeville audience is just as willing to cry as anything else, just so its woe is sugar coated. Clayton and Lennie's skit is an amusing bit of absurd banter that closed with a difficult character comedy song. Frevoli is opening this bill with his shadowgraphic novelty, while the Oxford Trio close it with a game of basket ball on bicycles.

AT THE MAJESTIC

"Experience" Tuesday Evening and Matinee and Night Wednesday.

A most notable engagement at the Majestic theatre tonight will be George V. Hobart's modern morality drama, "Experience." There will be two night performances with a matinee tomorrow. This is one of the largest theatrical organizations that has been booked in Fort Wayne in the past ten years and the demand for reserved seats has been exceptionally large. William Elliott, F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest, the producers of "Experience," will send the famous New York "Experience" organization here with its cast of 82 notable players. In ten brilliant and spectacular scenes, "Experience" stirringly tells the adventures of Youth and the temptations he meets in quest of fame and fortune. The ladies in the Golden Cabaret scene of "Experience" are said by the critics to have set a new standard of delightful girlhood, for the stage.

"Ramona" Unique in Stageland.

Occupying an unique position in the amusement world because of the novel character of the performance, which is a combined cinema, operatic spectacle, "Ramona," will have special claim for interest of local theatregoers when it is presented here at the Majestic for one week, starting Monday, October 16.

The dramatic version of Helen Hunt Jackson's widely read story of the government's ill-treatment of the Mission Indians of California and of the romance of Alessandro, the aborigine, for Ramona, the half-breed, possesses great fascination for the threatregoers of every class and creed with the result that it is enjoying prosperity as one of the solid, substantial successes of the season.

Sergeant August Kowalski, in charge of the Fort Wayne army recruiting station has returned from Detroit where he attended the funeral of his father, Christian Kowalski. His father died last week and funeral services were held Sunday.

EASY FOR COUNTERFEITERS.

Crowds at Expositions Offered Fine Field for Operations.

Washington, Oct. 3.—Crowds attending the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego constituted a good field for counterfeiters and 61 arrests on charges of manufacturing bogus money were made in California by secret service agents according to a treasury department report made public today covering the fiscal year ended June 30. In no other states were so many cases uncovered. Of the 417 arrests of supposed counterfeiters, 229 resulted in convictions, 9 in acquittals, 114 cases are pending and 55 were lost in other ways. Italians were most numerous among foreign born counterfeiters.

THE WILD GARDEN AT UNDERLEY HALL

By Thomas H. Mawson, Hon. A. R. I. B. A. and Special Lecturer on Landscape Design at the University of Liverpool.

Ten miles from the original home of George Washington's ancestors at Warton, England, is Underley Hall, famous for its wild gardens. Beautiful natural flora abound in these famous gardens, and they have become one of the many big scenic spots of the old English halls. Wild gardens are becoming more and more popular in America, and this English author's pictures of the Underley gardens, accompanied by photographs, including a full page frontispiece view, will prove interesting for American garden lovers. The author has been commissioned on the personal recommendation of the King and Queen of the Hellenes to prepare comprehensive plans for the extension, remodeling and beautification of the City of Athens.

FIVE HURT WHEN AUTO TURNS OVER

Big Car Tumbles Into Ditch Three Miles South of City.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Leneman, 1120 Hugh street, and Mr. and Mrs. Barney Hattle and small daughter, 129 West Butler street, were in the Lutheran hospital until Tuesday morning as the result of the automobile in which they were riding turning over in the ditch Monday night. The accident occurred on the Decatur road, three miles south of Fort Wayne.

Leneman was at the wheel and was driving slowly. Loose sand in the road caused the car to skid to the edge of the ditch and tumble over. All members of the party sustained bruises and cuts. Mrs. Leneman had her face badly cut in several places and her husband's hands were lacerated by the flying glass. Mr. Hattle suffered a fractured rib.

A taxi was summoned from a nearby farm house to bring members of the party to the hospital. Dr. A. L. Schneider and E. H. Underwood were summoned. The automobile was wrecked. The hood of the car was mashed, fenders torn off and the top demolished.

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGUE

If cross, feverish or bilious give "California Syrup of Figs."

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look, Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs;" then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."—Advertisement.

GAS, HEARTBURN, INDIGESTION OR A SICK STOMACH

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Time it! Pape's Diapepsin will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach surely within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home.—Advertisement.

WHO GOT FLOWERS? THESE, SAY POLICE

Turn in Names of Persons Alleged to Have Looted Hayden Park Beds.

Names of citizens who are alleged to have removed several hundred flower bulbs and shrubbery from Hayden park, Friday evening at dusk, were turned in to the park board by Detective Sergeant Rundell Tuesday.

Park board members will determine the nature of the charge to be placed against the several sersons who took the flowers and hedge. Prosecution in some form is sure to follow, members of the park board say.

Police have promised to turn in more names this week as definite clue has been found, they say, which shows that residents of the eastern part of the city removed the plants.

Will Stop Football Playing.

School lads who aspire to become future "human bullets," must practice "punting" and the "flying wedge" out in the open places, the park board has ordered. Police have been notified to keep the lads from trampling the shrubbery and tearing up the sod by their football practice in Williams park, on South Calhoun street; Hayden park, on East Jefferson street, and McCulloch park, on Broadway.

It is not an effort on the part of the park board to stop playing of the game of football. The board invites boys to play in Lawton, Swinney and Foster parks, where there are open spaces especially provided for out door sport. The boys have wrought much damage to flowers and hedge in their effort to block passes and make end runs in the small parks.

The bicycle path at Swinney park will be known as a "bridle" path for the remainder of the year. The board took action to this effect Monday at the request of several citizens, who have taken to the saddle for brisk autumn exercise.

PLAYGROUND IN STREET.

Part of South Clinton Street Will Temporarily be Used.

Clinton street, from Pontiac street to Woodland avenue, will be used as a playground during construction of the new Hamilton school. Traffic will be barred from the street a part of the day while the children take their outdoor exercise. Permission to use the street, until debris can be removed from the regular playground, was granted the school board by the board of public works, Monday afternoon.

Assessment rolls for the following improvements were approved by the works board: Grading Meridian street, from Huffman street to the first alley south of Putnam street; sidewalks on both sides of Monroe street, from Lewis street to Madison street; sidewalks on both sides of Webster street, from Grand street to Brandriff street; paving Second street, from Harrison street to Cass street; paving St. Joe boulevard, from a point eighty feet south of McDougall avenue to State boulevard; paving Crescent avenue, from Lake avenue to Columbia avenue.

MAY NOT ATTACK LAW.

Bus Drivers Who Run Outside of City Are Not Affected.

The new jitney ordinance may be saved from legal attack. At least it is highly probable that the law firm of Ryan and Ryan will bring no action against the city to test the latest law.

Controller Baade says that operators of bus lines running to points outside the city, such as the New Haven, Churubusco and other auto transit lines, will not be taxed. They are to pay only if they engage in hauling citizens from one point to another within the city limits.

Plaintiffs in the proposed action against the city were all drivers of these cross country transfer autos. If no action is taken against these men the firm of Ryan and Ryan will institute no suit against the law, they give out. No other law firms have expressed intensions of testing the traffic measure.

Meanwhile the jitney law is being enforced. Police are notifying drivers that they must apply for bond at once. More than seventy drivers have filed petitions for bond with Controller Baade.

Dr. Gilpin to Return.

Dr. J. H. Gilpin, secretary to the health board, will return home Thursday from Cheyboygan, Mich., where he has been at the bedside of his father for the past week.

CITY PLANNING SHOW PLANS TAKING SHAPE

Committees Arrange for Different Days for Organizations.

City planning exhibit, to be offered Fort Wayne for six days, starting October 7, will be opened with a regular meeting of the Woman's Club League, under whose auspices the exhibit is being put on, in the assembly hall of the court house, next Saturday afternoon, according to announcement made by John E. Lathrope, director of the exhibit.

The general committee is arranging for various organizations of the city in commercial and religious circles to attend the exhibit in a body, and the city has responded well to the request for co-operation. Mr. Lathrope says in the announcement that a band concert will be given by the park board at the court house on Saturday night.

Churches Are Interested.

On Sunday, October 8, Mr. Lathrope will speak at the Plymouth Congregational church at night. But all of the churches of the city are to be asked to dismiss their congregations ten minutes earlier Sunday night in order that a mass meeting of church workers of the city may be held on the court house square. This meeting, the city planning director expects to make one of the largest of its kind ever held in the city.

Ministers to Attend.

It is probable that the members of the Fort Wayne Ministerial association will either hold their regular weekly meeting at the court house in connection with the city planning exhibit or at least attend the exhibit in a body on Monday at the conclusion of their session. Mr. Lathrope expects and now can see ahead the co-operation of the churches. He says the plan to hold a mass meeting in the open in connection with the city planning exhibit at Newark, N. Y., worked splendidly.

Recognize the Day.

Fire prevention day, which was set aside by proclamation by Governor Ralston for this state for October 9, will be recognized by the city planning committee. Mr. Lathrope pointed to the great check which city planning offered to fires of all kinds. Fire prevention, he said, was a great desire of the business man because it reduced his insurance if he could find means of safeguarding his premises against fire. The city planning director showed how fire prevention was also essential to the laboring man with a small home. He said city planning was a distinct aid to fire prevention in reducing waste and giving system to the home.

Is Doing Decorating.

Miss Rhoda Braddock is in charge of the committee which is to do the decorating of the court house for the exhibit. The park board of the city is also co-operating in making the decorations. The public library will have a section at the exhibit with an assistant in charge in addition to the librarian.

Commercial Bodies Going.

It is announced that the Rotary club, Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange and the city schools will all be represented at the exhibit. Many of the realty dealers who will be here to attend the session of the district association of real estate dealers will also attend the exhibit. The Rotary club has asked Mr. Lathrope to address it as has the Quest club.

Schools Taking Part.

The city schools, through Prof. Justin N. Study, superintendent of the city schools, will attend the exhibit in a body. Mr. Lathrope will address a mass meeting of high school pupils as soon as Prof. Louis Ward can make arrangements for the meeting. The city school pupils will attend the exhibit in charge of their respective teachers. Mr. Lathrope is well pleased with the manner in which the various commercial bodies are responding to the call for co-operation and the program for the week is being rapidly worked out by the assistance of committees from each line of the city's activity.

LANCASTER MYSTERY IS NOT YET SOLVED

Lancaster, O., Oct. 3.—Interest in the mysterious death here Sunday of the three maiden women whose bodies were found by neighbors seated in rocking chairs in positions indicating that death had overtaken them during a conversation, today centered in Columbus, where chemists were making an investigation of the women's stomachs and a piece of pie found in the house, in an effort to find traces of poison.

Local authorities have announced that they have found no motive for murder; that they believe a suicide theory out of the question and that they have found no leaky gas pipes or stoves. They declare it highly improbable that all three women died natural deaths at or about the same time.

FIRST BASKETBALL INJURY OF THE YEAR

SEEK INFORMATION ON FREIGHT RATE MAKING

Questions Are Fired at Wabash Man in Hearing at Indianapolis.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 3.—Questions seeking information on the method by which railroads determine the basic rate for hauling freight were asked at today's hearing on the intra-state freight rates before the Indiana public service commission. Members of the service commission asked the questions. W. C. Maxwell, vice president of the Wabash railroad, was on the witness stand.

He testified the roads had adopted a basic rate of 3 cents a hundred pounds for a haul of five miles of sixth-class freight. The question was asked whether the 3 cent basic rate had been adopted arbitrarily or after scientific investigation.

"We know that the railroads did not prosper upon the 3 cent rate," Maxwell said. The proposed schedules, it was said, mean a slight decrease in some of the present rates, but higher in most of them. Mr. Maxwell testified that under the proposed revised rates Indianapolis shippers would have an advantage over shippers in competing cities.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO RAISE POLE AT ZULU

The young democrats of Jefferson township will give an old fashioned pole raising Thursday evening, October 5, at Zulu. Great preparations are being made for the event, which in Jefferson township will be one of the big meetings of the campaign. Harry Muller and Stephen A. Callahan, both splendid speakers, will deliver addresses. The pole to be raised is seventyfive feet long.

WEATHER IN HARMONY WITH DRESS-UP WEEK

The frost-kissed leaves rustle in the breeze of a fine fall day filled to overflowing with the richest of sunshine and signify their gladness of dress up week. The weather man has been very considerate in the choice of weather for this week and has sent the kind that will permit the youth to don his nobby suit and wear his silk hose. The ladies as well are pleased, and a walk down the streets will convince one that the weather is surely great, that is, judging from the number of "V" waists and brief skirts.

The theremeter reached the 77 degree mark Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The weather man also promises to give Fort Wayne people a further taste of splendid weather. Wednesday will be another fair day.

JUDGE LANDIS WARNS OF CROOKS IN COURT CROWD

About Six Honest Men in Throng of Spectators, He Declares.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Probable prosecution in the federal court of members of the alleged race track gambling syndicate uncovered in an inquiry before Federal Judge Landis was intimated today by Charles F. Clyne, United States district attorney. He said the fact brought out by Judge Landis that telephone and telegraph wires had been used by the gamblers in the transaction of their business gave federal authorities jurisdiction. Judge Landis today continued his efforts to bring out more facts concerning the syndicate.

Judge Landis, hearing that spectators in his court had their pockets picked yesterday, warned witnesses to keep their hands on their pocketbooks. Viewing the crowd which packed the court room the judge said: "In that audience back there, there are probably about six honest men—if that many. Most of them are pickpockets and crooks."

E. F. YARNELLE TALKS TO BUSINESS STUDENTS

The first of a series of lectures to students of the International Business college by prominent and successful business men was given Tuesday morning by E. F. Yarnelle, of Mossman, Yarnelle & Co.

Mr. Yarnelle gave a very interesting and instructive talk throughout, dealing chiefly upon two points: The unprecedented opportunities in business for efficient and capable young men and women, and the necessity for constant, careful attention to the things of each day that young people may repay in respect and devotion, if not in the coin of this realm, the parents who have even in these more prosperous days sacrificed much to afford their boys and girls the advantage of a commercial education and business training.

Ultimate success does not come all at once in some future day, but is the aggregate of the successful days of youth. Each day must be a success—a brick in the "temple of success."

The series of lectures have been arranged by Prof. Staples, president of the International Business college.

The Real Lady Sets Two New Records

Industrial League Bowlers To Start

Brooklyn Must Win One and Philadelphia Lose Two to Settle It.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Settlement of the title of the championship in the National league today is a possibility but in order to bring about this result Brooklyn must win from New York and Philadelphia must lose two games to Boston. This result would give Brooklyn 93 victories and 59 defeats, with 94 victories and 61 defeats for Philadelphia. By winning their two remaining games the champions would still be short, even if Brooklyn lost two. Should Brooklyn win the next three games there would be no chance for Philadelphia to catch up. Brooklyn has three more games with New York and Philadelphia four with Boston. From a percentage standpoint if each team wins all of its games Brooklyn will lead by one point. If Brooklyn loses three games Philadelphia will have to break even to take the lead. If each team loses one game Brooklyn will lead by two points. If each team loses two games Brooklyn will lead by three points.

AFTER A VICTORY.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 3.—Yesterday's practice was the most desultory of the season. A number of men were bunged up from the Case game Saturday and did not report. Slackford, Malone and "Chet" Grant did not don their togs, while Capt. Cofall and Bergman were out just long enough to loosen up a little. The "Cap" has not entirely recovered from a slight sick spell last week. Bergman was just able to hobble about yesterday after severely wrenching his right ankle Saturday. The two star halfbacks were given a rest by Coach Harper because he is anxious to have them at their best against Western Reserve in Cleveland Saturday. The Ohio metropolis is the home of Capt. Cofall.

WRITER, IN UNIFORM, SITS ON BENCH AND LEARNS HOW TEAM IS WINNING WAY INTO WORLD'S SERIES

Brooklyn Club is Just a Big, Happy Family, Fathered by a Giant-Hearted Fat Man, Says The Sentinel's Expert, Who Gets Inside Dope by Posing as a Player.

(The first of four articles telling how the Brooklyn Robins are winning their way into a world series, written by Harold Johnson, The Sentinel special sport writer, who sat on the Brooklyn bench during several days to get the real inside dope on how they are doing it. Johnson got into a Brooklyn uniform and, disguised as a player, eluded the umpires, who are under strict orders to keep "outsiders" off the grounds during games.—Editor).

(By Harold Johnson.)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A great big, happy family, fathered by a giant-hearted fat man!

That's my impression of the Brooklyn Robins, prospective National league pennant winners, and principals in the 1916 world's series, gained from a seat on the bench alongside Wilbert Robinson and his men at Ebbets field.

I asked Robinson for permission to get into uniform, sit on the bench and study his methods and those of the coming champions during the pennant drive. He finally granted the request.

It's game time. The good natured joshing and horseplay of the preliminary practice suddenly gives way to seriousness.

My first hunch with the clanging of the starting gong was that I had invited myself to witness a battle of wits, plus strength, in which twenty-five veterans and budding stars would match their craft and brawn against the same number of rivals.

Everywhere on the bench and within the Brooklyn dugout there is an atmosphere of cold blooded business. The bats, balls, gloves, sweaters, the ice cooler and the club trainer are all necessary adjuncts.

The contact of countless spikes is registered, scarlike, all over the woodwork and cement. As their wearers sidle about these same spikes give off a metallic, clattering noise which grates on one's nerves.

Weird odors permeate the ozone, the aroma, if you would call it that, combining the smell of sweaty flannel and the magic contents of the half opened grip of the trainer. I peered into the little black hand-ambulance packed systematically with fifty different kinds of bandages, bottles, phials and instruments. Bone bruises, spike wounds, the beanball, heat, etc., require prompt medical attention.

Comedy is a minus quantity on the pennant winner's bench. These Brooklyn boys are too engrossed in the pastime to indulge in humor.

And they don't need scorecards to refresh their memories. They can tell in detail what every hostile batter has done of the plate during a game, the sort of ball he hits best, whether it be a spitter, a curve, a fast one, high or low; the count on the hitter when he connected and whether he hit with men on the sacks or with the sacks empty.

There's a wealth of gray matter assembled here. In the main, Robbie's troops are seasoned veterans who have learned their lessons under other leaders but who readily adapt themselves to the code outlined by their portly pilot.

Jack Coombs is Robbie's right bower and the master mind of the iron man, schooled under Connie Mack, has been a vital factor in the Robin rise.

I didn't hear much about the errors made by the Robins. Every fellow on the bench understands errors are part of the game. The player who "boots" one in a crisis doesn't need to be made to feel worse by suffering a bawling out.

But "boners" are termed "errors of judgment." Robbie calls the unpardonable sins.

Why did you hold the ball? Were you asleep? Why didn't you peg home? Why didn't you go through with a double play? Keep your head up!"

These are samples of expressions directed at the athlete who pulls a "boner."

Yet calldowns of this sort are seldom resented on the bench, whereas in other lines of work the victim of such a roasting would resent the affront.

The bench breeds comradeship for there is the old happy, pat on the back for the player who has combed a long drive, or the pitcher who has fanned a hostile in the pinch.

There is the general rush to render assistance when a spike slices a leg or hand, or a foul tip smashes a finger.

To the good fellowship among players and manager attribute much of the success of the Brooklyn club.

NEWS FROM FOOTBALL CAMPS

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 3.—Football enthusiasts of the Michigan Agricultural college who are inclined to be superstitious are worried at present. One of M. A. C.'s most cherished possessions for several years was a big banner bearing the flaming slogan, "Beat Michigan." The banner usually was suspended in front of football quarters and under its folds Coach Macklin developed the elevens which raised havoc with the Wolverines. The banner was improperly packed last winter and moths ruined it.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 3.—"Brute" Pontius, former star tackle of the University of Michigan football eleven, is assisting Coach Yost this season. Pontius has charge of the linemen and his aggressive methods have won Yost's approval.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A. Alonzo Stagg has set a new fashion for football coaches' garb. Instead of the customary moleskin togs he appears this fall, when directing the University of Chicago football practice, in a tweed knickerbockers, a Norfolk coat and stockings of maroon.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 3.—The largest number of football candidates for varsity and freshmen elevens has made room for fall baseball practice at Illinois so little that Director Huff is seeking another place to work in. About twenty-five diamond candidates are out, mainly members of last year's freshman squad.

Badgers Drop Close One

Lose to Kendallville Overlands in Final Period.

The Badger football team of this city lost to the Kendallville Overlands at the latter place Sunday. The teams were evenly matched and neither scored until the last quarter, when the Overlands carried the ball across the line with a series of line smashes.

Moving pictures were taken of this game and will be shown in a Kendallville theater.

First Meeting of Fall Season Announced for Tonight.

The first meeting of the Fort Wayne Real Estate exchange will be held at the Commercial club tonight, marking the opening of the fall and winter series of meetings. The luncheon is called for 6:30 o'clock. Arrangements for the big meeting to be held on October 9, will be taken up at this meeting.

In his letter to the realty dealers Frank Hilgemann, secretary of the exchange, says: "Scott Brewer, executive secretary of the Indiana Real Estate association, has written me asking that reservations for twenty-five visitors for the meeting on October 9 be made." Mr. Hilgemann gathers from that request that many down-state real estate men are taking an interest in the meeting. Several hundred invitations have been sent out to the realty dealers and from fifty to one hundred are easily expected at the meeting.

No More Backache for Her.

Mrs. J. M. Goskill, Nina Green, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains shooting through my back until I could not stoop over and get up without aid. Urinary trouble seemed to be the cause of it all. A single box of Foley Kidney Pills gave me such relief that I cannot praise them too highly." This standard remedy for kidney and bladder ailments can be taken with safety for backache, swollen ankles and rheumatic pains. Dreier Drug Co.—Advertisement.

AIN'T NATURE WONDERFUL?

Unnatural History, by Eugene Ahern.

Oo! Lis'en, George!
What's the row?
They must be a fire in them sleeping car. Lis'en to 'em hollerin'.
No, Norman, they ain't no fire in them sleeping car. That's the Beanburg Irish regiment under Gen. Carrigan, called the Boston Red Sox, the world's champion shillalah-wielders of the American league, in a little friendly free-for-all poker game.
So that's why they're called the "Scrappy Red Sox," huh?
Yeh!
Here comes a fella with a box of cigars. Watch 'em, Ed. They've only supposed to take one, but somehow or other when they reach in for it—three or four cigars get caught in their fingers.
Ain't that a funny lookin' gang in everyday scenery, Amos? They look just like us hicks—over-sized collars, red neckties, yaller button shoes, peg-top trousers and wearing diamonds that'd make a flatiron look as big as a nickel's worth of radium.
But, George, ain't they supposed to hie to bed early?
Yes, Joe, there's a coupla baseball scribes in the game and they'll all turn in early (in the morning.)

Habit Was Ruining Him, But He Conquered It in Three Days, Easily.

The portrait below is that of Mr. P. J. Elizagaray, a well-known citizen of Livingston, Montana, who knew that his life was being ruined through the pernicious habit of cigarette smoking, yet could not find anything to stop it and solace the nervous craving until he got the remarkable book that can now be obtained free.

A clergyman, Rev. M. Ross, Dayton, O., testifies that after having been a slave to tobacco 44 years, he got rid of the habit entirely in a few days, greatly improving his health.

QUIT TOBACCO, GAINS 35 LBS.

Everybody in Mangrum, Okla., is talking about the big change in Al Reeves; he put on 35 lbs. in healthy flesh since getting rid of tobacco habit through the information gained in the free book which you may also easily obtain.

That he could never quit was the fear of George Ambush, Pearl street, Philadelphia, who was a slave of tobacco for many years, but after getting the book he learned how the habit could be conquered in three days. Now he writes that he is forever free from the craving and is in much improved health.

BOOK GIVEN FREE.

A valuable, interesting book on how to overcome the tobacco habit (in any form) has been written by Edw. J. Woods, 1312 D, Station E., New York, N. Y., and he will send it free to anyone who writes asking for it, as he is very anxious that all who are victims of the craving for tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes may save themselves easily, quickly, gently and lastingly. Eyes, heart, kidneys and stomach improved, nerves tranquilized, memory improved, vigor gained and numerous other benefits often reported.

TAKE CHILDREN FROM MOTHER.

Delphos, O., Oct. 3.—"I'd rather be sent after ten of the most hardened criminals than to perform that job again."

That's what Deputy Sheriff Vincent said Thursday night after he and Deputy Molnar had taken three small children from their mother on a writ of habeas corpus. Bernard Johnson, the father, procured the writ in common pleas court late Thursday afternoon, for the custody of the children, who, he said, were being unlawfully held by the mother, now Mrs. Lillian M. Schwab. The deputies found the children and mother at 230 Tenth street. When they told the mother that they must take her children, she screamed and fainted away.

BRIDE IS TOO YOUNG.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The plans for the marriage of Miss Iva Blanche O'Dier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Dier, and Mr. Lawrence Gerald Archbold, son of Mrs. Grace Archbold, the young couple who were given such a narrow escape Friday night when their automobile was wrecked by an interurban car at the Central avenue crossing, could not be carried out Saturday afternoon, as had been announced, and on account of the statutes governing marriages in Indiana, the ceremony will have to be postponed until on or after November 8th, unless the couple should determine to go to Michigan, or some other state, where the marriage laws are different.

WILL HAVE APPLE SHOW.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The Hartford City street fair which opens Wednesday will have an excellent apple show, as the result of the purchase of the display put on at the Bluffton fair by George A. Harnish. Hartford City men were here last week in an effort to get Mr. Harnish to show his apples there and when he declined to do this the display was purchased outright. Mr. Harnish is reported to have sold about 400 bushels of apples during the fair here. Hartford City is also using the Bluffton chicken coops, they having been shipped out early Sunday morning. Steve King went along to set them up and take care of them during the week.

MRS. CROXTON DEAD.

Columbia City, Ind., Oct. 3.—Mrs. Louisa N. Croxton, the widow of the late Philip W. ENGINE DIED ON TRACK.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 3.—A stalled automobile on the B. & O. railroad tracks near Concord, Sunday afternoon and a freight train approaching from the west came very near being mixed up in a horrible tragedy. In the car were five Auburn people, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zell and two daughters, and R. W. Vaughn, the owner of the car. They were coming from the south and just at that crossing there is a small incline and on the west side of the highway is a woods. This obstructed their view of the track. As they approached the railroad track Mr. Vaughn put on the emergency brake, but the car was carried down the incline onto the track. Just as the machine struck the track the engine "died." To make matters worse a freight train was coming from the west and the car would not go.

WEDS A SALESMAN.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—Announcement of the marriage of Miss Cecile Mae Bunn, 18, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bunn, of this city, and Mr. George Bernard Schulte, 21, a salesman of Kalamazoo, Mich., will come as a pleasant surprise to the friends in this city of the bride. The ceremony took place at 8 o'clock Saturday evening at the Baptist parsonage, with the Rev. O. R. McKay officiating. The newly married couple will go to housekeeping at Kalamazoo.

LOCAL CASE COMPROMISED.

Decatur, Ind., Oct. 3.—The suit brought by Mable Pence against Sophia Wittie and C. Bischoff, for $5,000 damages, has been dismissed as it was ready to begin a jury trial. The costs are paid by the defendants, except those released by the parties entitled thereto. The case was venued here from Allen county.

His end came peacefully, and after several weeks in which he was confined to his bed.

ATTEMPTS TO RIDE PLANE.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 3.—"Skeets" Conklin, who for several weeks has been building an aeroplane and who had planned making a flight during the street fair, has attempted to make a trial flight, but the trial proved unsuccessful. However, the attempt was not a sore disappointment for it proved the machine was built on the right plan but the engine was not poyerful enough to raise it into the air.

OVER $1,000 REALIZED.

WOMEN! HERE IS A MONEY SAVER

Use gasoline to dry clean family's clothes and save $5.

Dry cleaning at home is just as simple as laundering. Any woman can clean five dollars' worth in fifteen minutes at little cost by getting from the drug store two ounces of solvite and put this in two gallons of gasoline, where it quickly dissolves. Then immerse articles to be cleaned; rub a little and in a few moments the gasoline evaporates and the articles look bright and fresh as new.

You can dry clean silk waists, dresses, coats, ribbons, kid gloves, satin shoes, evening slippers, shawls, belts, yokes, furs, boas, muffs, neckties, lawns, dimity and chiffon dresses, draperies, fine laces, lace curtains, woolen garments, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined by soap and water as dry cleaning doesn't fade, shrink or wrinkle, making pressing unnecessary.

Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and you can obtain two ounces of solvite at the drug store, which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dishpan completes your dry cleaning outfit.—Advertisement.

National Title May Be Decided Today

The Real Lady Sets Two New Records

Industrial League Bowlers To Start

Brooklyn Must Win One and Philadelphia Lose Two to Settle It.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Settlement of the title of the championship in the National league today is a possibility but in order to bring about this result Brooklyn must win from New York and Philadelphia must lose two games to Boston. This result would give Brooklyn 93 victories and 59 defeats, with 94 victories and 61 defeats for Philadelphia. By winning their two remaining games the champions would still be short, even if Brooklyn lost two. Should Brooklyn win the next three games there would be no chance for Philadelphia to catch up. Brooklyn has three more games with New York and Philadelphia four with Boston. From a percentage standpoint if each team wins all of its games Brooklyn will lead by one point. If Brooklyn loses three games Philadelphia will have to break even to take the lead. If each team loses one game Brooklyn will lead by two points. If each team loses two games Brooklyn will lead by three points.

In the American league Philadelphia is to play the pennant winner at Boston, while Washington will try conclusions at New York.

AFTER A VICTORY.

Notre Dame, Ind., Oct. 3.—Yesterday's practice was the most desultory of the season. A number of men were banged up from the Case game Saturday and did not report. Stuckford, Malone and "Chet" Grant did not don their togs, while Capt. Cofall and Bergman were out just long enough to loosen up a little. The "Cap" has not entirely recovered from a slight sick spell last week. Bergman was just able to hobble about yesterday after severely wrenching his right ankle Saturday. The two star halfbacks were given a rest by Coach Harper because he is anxious to have them at their best against Western Reserve in Cleveland Saturday. The Ohio metropolis is the home of Capt. Cofall.

WRITER, IN UNIFORM, SITS ON BENCH AND LEARNS HOW TEAM IS WINNING WAY INTO WORLD'S SERIES

Brooklyn Club is Just a Big, Happy Family, Fathered by a Giant-Hearted Fat Man, Says The Sentinel's Expert, Who Gets Inside Dope by Posing as a Player.

(The first of four articles telling how the Brooklyn Robins are winning their way into a world series, written by Harold Johnson, The Sentinel special sport writer, who sat on the Brooklyn bench during several days to get the real inside dope on how they are doing it. Johnson got into a Brooklyn uniform and, disguised as a player, eluded the umpires, who are under strict orders to keep "outsiders" off the grounds during games.—Editor).

(By Harold Johnson.)

Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 3.—A great big, happy family, fathered by a giant-hearted fat man!.

That's my impression of the Brooklyn Robins, prospective National league pennant winners, and principals in the 1916 world's series, gained from a seat on the bench alongside Wilbert Robinson and his men at Ebbets field.

I asked Robinson for permission to get into uniform, sit on the bench and study his methods and those of the coming champions during the pennant drive. He finally granted the request.

It's game time. The good natured joshing and horseplay of the preliminary practice suddenly gives way to seriousness.

My first hunch with the clanging of the starting gong was that I had invited myself to witness a battle of wits, plus strength, in which twenty-five veterans and budding stars would match their craft and brawn against the same number of rivals.

Everywhere on the bench and within the Brooklyn dugout there is an atmosphere of cold blooded business. The bats, balls, gloves, sweaters, the ice cooler and the club trainer are all necessary adjuncts.

The contact of countless spikes is registered, scarlike, all over the woodwork and cement. As their wearers sidle about these same spikes give off a metallic, clattering noise which grates on one's nerves.

Weird odors permeate the ozone, the aroma, if you would call it that, combining the smell of sweaty flannel and the magic contents of the half opened grip of the trainer. I peered into the little black hand-ambulance packed systematically with fifty different kinds of bandages, bottles, phials and instruments. Bone bruises, spike wounds, the beanball, heat, etc., require prompt medical attention.

Comedy is a minus quantity on the pennant winner's bench. These Brooklyn boys are too engrossed in the pastime to indulge in humor.

And they don't need scorecards to refresh their memories. They can tell in detail what every hostile batter has done at the plate during a game, the sort of ball he hits best, whether it be a spitter, a curve, a fast one, high or low; the count on the hitter when he connected and whether he hit with men on the sacks or with the sacks empty.

There's a wealth of gray matter assembled here. In the main, Robbie's troops are seasoned veterans who have learned their lessons under other leaders but who readily adapt themselves to the code outlined by their portly pilot.

Jack Coombs is Robbie's right bower and the master mind of the iron man, schooled under Connie Mack, has been a vital factor in the Robin rise.

I didn't hear much about the errors made by the Robins. Every fellow on the bench understands errors are part of the game. The player who "boots" one in a crisis doesn't need to be made to feel worse by suffering a bawling out.

But "boners" are termed "errors of judgment." Robbie calls the unpardonable sins.

Why did you hold the ball? Were you asleep? Why didn't you peg home? Why didn't you go through with a double play? Keep your head up!"

These are samples of expressions directed at the athlete who pulls a "boner."

Yet caldowns of this sort are seldom resented on the bench, whereas in other lines of work the victim of such a roasting would resent the affront.

The bench breeds comradeship for there is the old happy, pat on the back for the player who has combed a long drive, or the pitcher who has fanned a hostile in the pinch.

There is the general rush to render assistance when a spike slices a leg or hand, or a foul tip smashes a finger.

To the good fellowship among players and manager attribute much of the success of the Brooklyn club.

NEWS FROM FOOTBALL CAMPS

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 3.—Football enthusiasts of the Michigan Agricultural college who are inclined to be superstitious are worried at present. One of M. A. C.'s most cherished possessions for several years was a big banner bearing the flaming slogan, "Beat Michigan." The banner usually was suspended in front of football quarters and under its folds Coach Macklin developed the elevens which raised havoc with the Wolverines. The banner was improperly packed last winter and moths ruined it.

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 3.—"Brute" Pontius, former star tackle of the University of Michigan football eleven, is assisting Coach Yost this season. Pontius has charge of the linemen and his aggressive methods have won Yost's approval.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—A. Alonzo Stagg has set a new fashion for football coaches' garb. Instead of the customary moleskin togs he appears this fall, when directing the University of Chicago football practice, in a tweed knickerbockers, a Norfolk coat and stockings of maroon.

Urbana, Ill., Oct. 3.—The largest number of football candidates for varsity and freshmen elevens has made room for fall baseball practice at Illinois so little that Director Huff is seeking another place to work in. About twenty-five diamond candidates are out, mainly members of last year's freshman squad.

Badgers Drop Close One

Lose to Kendallville Overlands in Final Period.

The Badger football team of this city lost to the Kendallville Overlands at the latter place Sunday. The teams were evenly matched and neither scored until the last quarter, when the Overlands carried the ball across the line with a series of line smashes.

Moving pictures were taken of the game and will be shown in a local theater.

Mrs. [illegible], Van Orsen, Ind., writes: "I suffered from severe backache and sharp pains shooting through my back until I could not stoop over and get up without aid. TRAVELING WITH THE CHAMPS.

Oo! Lis'en, George!
What's the row?
They must be a fire in them sleeping car. Lis'en to 'em hollerin'.
No, Norman, they ain't no fire in them sleeping car. That's the Beanburg Irish regiment under Gen. Carrigan, called the Boston Red Sox, the world's champion shillalah-wielders of the American league, in a little friendly free-for-all poker game.
So that's why they're called the "Scrappy Red Sox," huh?
Yeh!
Here comes a fella with a box of cigars. Watch 'em, Ed. They've only supposed to take one, but somehow or other when they reach in for it—three or four cigars get caught in their fingers.
Ain't that a funny lookin' gang in everyday scenery, Amos? They look just like us hicks—over-sized collars, red neckties, yaller button shoes, peg-top trousers and wearing diamonds that'd make a flatiron look as big as a nickel's worth of radium.
But, George, ain't they supposed to hie to bed early?

Habit Was Ruining Him, But He Conquered It in Three Days, Easily.

The portrait below is that of Mr. P. J. Elizagaray, a well-known citizen of Livingston, Montana, who knew that his life was being ruined through the pernicious habit of cigarette smoking, yet could not find anything to stop it and solace the nervous craving until he got the remarkable book that can now be obtained free.

A clergyman, Rev. M. Ross, Dayton, O., testifies that after having been a slave to tobacco 44 years, he got rid of the habit entirely in a few days, greatly improving his health.

QUIT TOBACCO, GAINS 35 LBS.

Everybody in Mangrum, Okla., is talking about the big change in Al Reeves; he put on 35 lbs. in healthy flesh since getting rid of tobacco habit through the information gained in the free book which you may also easily obtain.

That he could never quit was the fear of George Ambush, Pearl street, Philadelphia, who was a slave of tobacco for many years, but after getting the book he learned how the habit could be conquered in three days. Now he writes that he is forever free from the craving and is in much improved health.

BOOK GIVEN FREE.

A valuable, interesting book on how to overcome the tobacco habit (in any form) has been written by Edw. J. Woods, 1312 D, Station E., New York, N. Y., and he will send it free to anyone who writes asking for it, as he is very anxious that all who are victims of the craving for tobacco, snuff, cigars, or cigarettes may save themselves easily, quickly, gently and lastingly. Eyes, heart, kidneys and stomach improved, nerves tranquillized, memory improved, vigor gained and numerous other benefits often reported.

TAKE CHILDREN FROM MOTHER.

Delphos, O., Oct. 3.—"I'd rather be sent after ten of the most hardened criminals than to perform that job again."

That's what Deputy Sheriff Vincent said Thursday night after he and Deputy Molnar had taken three small children from their mother on a writ of habeas corpus. Bernard Johnson, the father, procured the writ in common pleas court late Thursday afternoon, for the custody of the children, who, he said, were being unlawfully held by the mother, now Mrs. Lillian M. Schwab. The deputies found the children and mother at 230 Tenth street. When they told the mother that they must take her children, she screamed and fainted away.

BRIDE IS TOO YOUNG.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The plans for the marriage of Miss Iva Blanche O'Dier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O'Dier, and Mr. Lawrence Gerald Archbold, son of Mrs. Grace Archbold, the young couple who were given such a narrow escape Friday night when their automobile was wrecked by an interurban car at the Central avenue crossing, could not be carried out Saturday afternoon, as had been announced, and on account of the statutes governing marriages in Indiana, the ceremony will have to be postponed until on or after November 8th, unless the couple should determine to go to Michigan, or some other state, where the marriage laws are different.

WILL HAVE APPLE SHOW.

Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 3.—The Hartford City street fair which opens Wednesday will have an excellent apple show, as the result of the purchase of the display put on at the Bluffton fair by George A. Harnish. Hartford City men were here last week in an effort to get Mr. Harnish to show his apples there and when he declined to do this the display was purchased outright. Mr. Harnish is reported to have sold about 400 bushels of apples during the fair here. Hartford City is also using the Bluffton chicken coops, they having been shipped out early Sunday morning. Steve King went along to set them up and take care of them during the week.

ENGINE DIED ON TRACK.

Auburn, Ind., Oct. 3.—A stalled automobile on the B. & O. railroad tracks near Concord, Sunday afternoon and a freight train approaching from the west came very near being mixed up in a horrible tragedy. In the car were five Auburn people, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Zell and two daughters, and R. W. Vaughn, the owner of the car. They were coming from the south and just at that crossing there is a small incline and on the west side of the highway is a woods. This obstructed their view of the track. As they approached the railroad track Mr. Vaughn put on the emergency brake, but the car was carried down the incline onto the track. Just as the machine struck the track the engine "died." To make matters worse a freight train was coming from the west and the car would not go.

Warsaw, Ind., Oct. 3.—"Skeets" Conklin, who for several weeks has been building an aeroplane and who had planned making a flight during the street fair, has attempted to make a trial flight, but the trial proved unsuccessful. WOMEN! HERE IS A MONEY SAVER

Use gasoline to dry clean family's clothes and save $5.

Dry cleaning at home is just as simple as laundering. Any woman can clean five dollars' worth in fifteen minutes at little cost by getting from the drug store two ounces of solvite and put this in two gallons of gasoline, where it quickly dissolves. Then immerse articles to be cleaned; rub a little and in a few moments the gasoline evaporates and the articles look bright and fresh as new.

You can dry clean silk waists, dresses, coats, ribbons, kid gloves, satin shoes, evening slippers, shawls, belts, yokes, furs, boas, muffs, neckties, lawns, dimity and chiffon dresses, draperies, fine laces, lace curtains, woolen garments, in fact, any and everything that would be ruined by soap and water as dry cleaning doesn't fade, shrink or wrinkle, making pressing unnecessary.

Your grocer or any garage will supply the gasoline and you can obtain two ounces of solvite at the drug store, which is simply a gasoline soap. Then a wash boiler or large dishpan completes your dry cleaning outfit.—Advertisement.

PENNSY VETERANS TO HAVE FINE MEETING

Special Trains to Carry Them to Convention City Next Saturday.

J. H. Hobrock, secretary of the Western Veteran association of the Fort Wayne road, is sending out letters to the members today, giving them information concerning the annual gathering at Valparaiso and the program of the meeting and social features. Following the announcement that the annual meeting will be held Saturday, October 7, the letter states that the business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock, the automobile ride at 4, the banquet at 6 and the theater at 9 o'clock. The veterans will be carried to Valparaiso on special trains, one from Fort Wayne and the other from Chicago, and arrangements have been made to have these trains reach the station at 1 o'clock, so all the vets will be on hand for the photograph which Photographer B. Schuldt, of Valparaiso, will take at the depot, before any of the vets have an opportunity to get away. The letter also states that the special train will leave Fort Wayne at 10:20 Saturday morning and returning, will leave Valparaiso at 10:45 p. m. All veterans are instructed to bring their 1916 membership cards, as banquet tickets are issued only on presentation of those cards. It is also stated that another supply of gold and silver emblems have been received and can be secured by those entitled to them. "If you are not wearing one of these buttons, you can get one from me on the train or at the meeting in Valparaiso," says Mr. Hobrock. A letter to Mr. Hobrock from Valparaiso stated that forty-six automobiles had been secured for the parade Saturday afternoon and that arrangements had also been made for the best features of the vaudeville to be given at the Valparaiso opera house for the benefit of the Veterans. "The menu of the banquet will be the best ever set before the veterans and taken as a whole the coming meeting will be the best we ever held," said Mr. Hobrock.

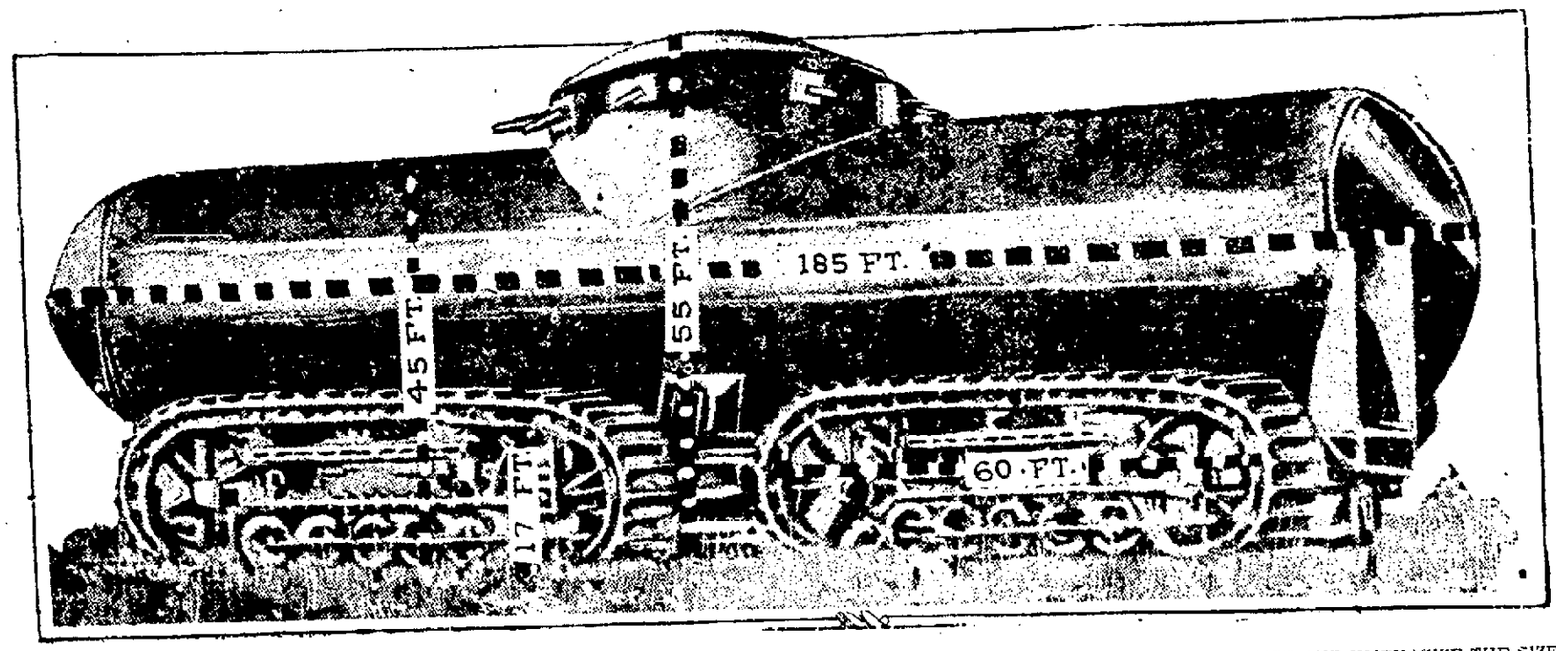
PROBABLY DUE TO WAR.

Proof of the advancing cost of chamois skins is the police report that the filling station belonging to C. H. Goeppner, who operates a store near the edge of the city on the Leo-Inen road, was broken into Monday night, and the chamois used for straining gasoline was cut from the filling tunnel.

FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH "TANK," USED IN WAR



THE FIGURES SHOWING THE DIMENSIONS OF THIS MONSTER DEATH ENGINE WERE PLACED ON THE PHOTOGRAPH BY AN ARTIST AND EMPHASIZE THE SIZE OF THE "TANK." A SOLDIER STANDING BESIDE THE "TANK" COULD REACH ONLY HALF WAY UP THE CATERPILLAR TREAD MILL. THE "TANKS" ARE MADE IN ENGLAND FROM SIMPLE FARM TRACTORS MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 1.—(By Mail.)—I am sending you the FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH of the great British "tank" to arrive on this side of the Atlantic!

This amazing war engine is mightier and more terrible than any cabled descriptions have led readers in Canada or the United States to believe.

Tanks such as that in the picture are equipped with four great treadmill devices, which turn on sets of gigantic cog-wheels. The treads are held taut by twenty solid rollers, five for each tread, and the bulk of the weight is borne by these rollers.

The purpose of the eight 15-foot cog-wheels is to lay a revolving track for the rollers, so that in effect they run on a self-laying railway, which is gathered up and relaid continually as the machine advances.

The treads are TEN FEET WIDE AND TWENTY FEET APART, so the tank's total width is forty feet. As its height is about forty-five feet, the tank is practically non-collapsible.

The treadmills, from top to bottom, are seventeen feet over all.

The tank itself is 185 feet long. Some tanks are said to be over 200 feet in length.

Each treadmill covers about sixty feet. This great length enables the tank to leap practically any trench ever built. As long as the front of the treadmill can reach the further side of the trench before the rear part of the front tread runs off, the machine will not dip.

In the center, above the tank, extends a rigid turret, from the apertures of which extend eight Lewis machine guns. Their muzzles are about fifty feet above the ground; the turret itself juts about ten feet above the top of the tank, making the total height of the machine some fifty-five feet!

RECORDS SHOW ALLEN AND WOMAN WERE WED

Ashtabula Man Entangled in Murder Case Near Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—James Allen, 64 years old, who says he is from Ashtabula, is being held by Kent county authorities pending completion of an investigation of the death of Mrs. Anna St. John, of Mayfield, N. Y., whose bullet-pierced body was found in a field near Grand Rapids last Sunday. County records show that Allen and Mrs. St. John were married here Sept. 19.

Officers allege that Allen, who, they claim, told them he also has used the names James Allerton and John Williams, purchased a revolver some time ago and that he signed the name Allerton to the blank. He also registered at a local hotel as "Allerton," it is claimed. Allen's baggage was seized this afternoon. One letter which officers found in it was to Mrs. St. John, from a daughter at Elmira, N. Y. It was written from 221½ South Main street and cautioned Mrs. St. John to obtain a divorce from her husband. It is claimed that Allen and Mrs. St. John became acquainted through correspondence of a matrimonial agency. Until late the sheriff's force worked upon the theory that the dead woman was Mrs. Addie M. Kimball, of Chicago.

THE MARKETS.

RECEIPTS INCREASE AND PRICES DECREASE

Dealers Subtract Fifty Cents from Hog Price and Quote $9.25.

Down the hill and into the valley goes the price of hogs, safely seated on a large toboggan and it is still traveling, with nothing in sight to stop its mad rush downward. Fifty cents more was deducted from the paying price of Monday and packers and buyers, locally offered but $9.25 per hundred weight for the porkers Tuesday. This is the top price while other prices range all the way from $7.50 to $8.75 per hundred. Followers of the markets are of the opinion that with the steady increase in receipts the prices are bound to go even lower before the close of the week. Prices on other live stock is also starting on a decline.

While the live stock market is fast sinking downward the wheat market remains at the same level, with eyes cast upward, however. Slight rises are indicated in large trading centers and although the local millers are keeping their price at $1.48, they state that it is very likely that a few cents will be added in a few days. Other grain markets are also steady, with receipts medium.

The Barr street market was small Tuesday morning. Winter pears were plentiful but buying was very slow. Pumpkins were also much in evidence. The wholesale market was also inactive.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Widening of the drought stricken region in Argentina with reports of crop losses becoming more and more severe, sent wheat soaring today to new high price levels for 1916. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 2¾c higher, with December at $1.57¼ to $1.58¾, and May at $1.56¾ to $1.58⅛, were followed by moderate additional gains.

The close was firm, 2@2⅛c to 2¼c net higher, with December at $1.58⅜ and May at $1.57⅝@1.57⅞.

The close was steady at ½c to ⅝@¾c net advance.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening ¼c to ⅜c higher, the market scored some further upturns.

In oats the growing influence was the strength of other cereals.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 3.—Minor changes, mainly upward, prevailed at today's moderate opening, trading, however, embracing more than the usual number of issues. The more striking exceptions included American Locomotive, which rose two points, with advances of one to two in other equipments and industrials, including Crucible Steel, General Electric, Industrial Alcohol and International Paper. Marines were slightly lower but the railway list gained fractions to over a point under the lead of Pacifics and Northwestern issues. A firmer tendency was shown in all quarters before the end of the first half hour.

Industrials, equipments and motors, together with sugars and gas shares, were conspicuous in the mixed dealings of the forenoon, certain speculative favorites again reflecting bearish opposition. Steel yielded over a point. Marines one to one and one-half and Baldwin, Studebaker, Republic Steel and some of the metals as much. General Motors made a new record on its nine point advance to 759, and secondary specialties were materially higher, Pittsburg Coal and International Nickel. Rails were steadier than other standard stocks, the Canadian group extending initial advances. Increased selling caused fresh irregularity at midday. Bonds were firm.

BABY BONDS MAKE A PERFECT SECURITY

First mortgages on local real estate are known to be the last word in investments as far as safety is concerned, and since Baby Bonds are secured by first mortgages, men who are qualified to advise small investors are quite unanimous in expressing their approval of this security as a saving method. Baby Bonds come in $10 denominations, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate, and bear six per cent interest. There are also similar bonds of $500 denominations, bearing the same rate of interest and secured in the same manner. For details regarding either, see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

PENNSY VETERANS TO HAVE FINE MEETING

Special Trains to Carry Them to Convention City Next Saturday.

J. H. Hobrock, secretary of the Western Veteran association of the Fort Wayne road, is sending out letters to the members today, giving them information concerning the annual gathering at Valparaiso and the program of the meeting and social features. Following the announcement that the annual meeting will be held Saturday, October 7, the latter states that the business meeting will be held at 2 o'clock, the automobile ride at 4, the banquet at 6 and the theater at 9 o'clock. The veterans will be carried to Valparaiso on special trains, one from Fort Wayne and the other from Chicago, and arrangements have been made to have these trains reach the station at 1 o'clock, so all the vets will be on hand for the photograph which Photographer B. Schuldt, of Valparaiso, will take at the depot, before any of the vets have an opportunity to get away. The letter also states that the special train will leave Fort Wayne at 10:20 Saturday morning and returning, will leave Valparaiso at 10:45 p. m. All veterans are instructed to bring their 1916 membership cards, as banquet tickets are issued only on presentation of those cards. It is also stated that another supply of gold and silver emblems have been received and can be secured by those entitled to them. "If you are not wearing one of these buttons, you can get one from me on the train or at the meeting in Valparaiso," says Mr. Hobrock. A letter to Mr. Hobrock from Valparaiso stated that forty-six automobiles had been secured for the parade Saturday afternoon and that arrangements had also been made for the best features of the vaudeville to be given at the Valparaiso opera house for the benefit of the Veterans. "The menu of the banquet will be the best ever set before the veterans and taken as a whole the coming meeting will be the best we ever held," said Mr. Hobrock.

ADVANCING NINETEEN MEN.

Nickel Plate Examining Number of Firemen for Promotion.

Road Foreman of Engines F. M. Baldwin, of the Nickel Plate, will examine nineteen firemen for promotion this week. Ten of these men work on the Fort Wayne division and nine on the Chicago division. The personnel of the former group is as follows: B. F. Ambler, C. E. Rumple, E. Fungard, E. F. Wolf, William Giseler, W. Williams, O. O. Andrews, J. F. Baughman, C. W. DeWalt and Fred Miller. Those who work on the Chicago division are O. Otis Miller, M. Rockwell, Frank Haddick, E. Gasser, Fred Henry Lapp, G. E. Hunsaker, C. C. Staffer, James A. Hicks and George Marks. When these men become engineers the Nickel Plate will have one of the largest lists of engineers in its history. Business is good, with prospects of improvement, however, and the list will be none too large.

PROBABLY FATALLY HURT.

John Nestle Has Ribs Broken and Lungs Punctured.

John Nestle, a helper in the Wabash machine shop, had several ribs broken, two pieces of iron driven into his chest and both lungs punctured at 9 o'clock this morning when he was caught between two driver wheels on axles as they came together on a track in the shop. Some men were moving the wheels and Mr. Nestle did not realize the dangerous position he placed himself in when he stepped between them. He was taken to St. Joseph hospital where Dr. C. F. Kaadt, the company's surgeon, is attending him. Dr. Kaadt says the man is badly injured and that his recovery is a matter of doubt. Mr. Nestle is single.

FOREST EDDY LETS OUT SECRET.

When he called at the testing room of the General Electric works last evening to say good-by to the boys, Forest Eddy handed to each a cigar and gave out the information that he was married a week ago to Miss Vera Dilgard, of Waterloo, and that he would take his bride with him to Toledo. This was the first intimation the men had of the wedding. Mr. Eddy has accepted a good position with the Overland automobile people at Toledo. He was employed as a tester at the General Electric works about a year, first as a student and later as a regular employe. He is a Tri-State university graduate.

CHARTER IS RECEIVED.

The charter and all supplies for the Federal Labor union, a new organization of laboring men, have arrived and at a meeting to be held Thursday evening in the machinists' headquarters in Harmony hall the organization will be perfected. Thus far 125 applications for membership have been received. It is expected that this new organization which will have as its members, men who are not eligible to the already existing organizations, will be the largest one in the city as its field is unlimited. Officers will be named at the Thursday evening meeting.

CARS FOR MILITARY STUDENTS.

In accordance with a request of government military officials, the Nickel Plate will put two extra cars on westbound train No. 3 Friday to carry students who will be returning to their western homes from the military training camp of the United States army post at Plattsburg barracks. It is expected there will be many of these students to pass over the Nickel Plate the latter part of the week.

HYACINTH TO ENTERTAIN.

Hyacinth lodge, No. 38, Ladies' Society to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, announces that it will give the second number of the series of progressive pedro parties in Unity hall Thursday afternoon. Mesdames Allerton, Childs, Coleman, Roebel, Reilley and Widmer will have charge of the entertainment.

SIXTY-ONE TO ST. LOUIS.

Sixty-one Fort Wayne people left over the Wabash yesterday for St. Louis to take in the "Veiled Prophets" exhibition today and tonight. This is regarded good business. Last year on a similar occasion, there were only twenty-seven tickets sold at this point.

STARTS ON QUARTERLY TRIP.

I. Fred Walters, member of the advisory board of the Pennsylvania Voluntary Relief association for the Western and Chicago Terminal divisions, starts upon his quarterly trip over his territory tomorrow morning. He will be gone ten days or two weeks.

GONE EAST ON BUSINESS.

E. A. Barnes, factory superintendent of the General Electric works, left last night for Schenectady, N. Y., on business for the company. E. A. Wagner, chief transformer engineer for the same local plant, will leave this evening for Washington on business for the company.

MASTER MECHANIC BLACK HERE.

Master Mechanic W. G. Black, of the Nickel Plate, headquarters in Chicago, was in the city yesterday and spent a couple hours at the round house. Mr. Black formerly resided in Fort Wayne and has many friends here, both in and out of railway circles.

TROOPS EN ROUTE EAST.

The Nickel Plate had three troop trains through the city early this morning, the soldiers being en route from the Mexican border. One of the trains carried 124 soldiers, 126 horses and four cannon.

FOREMAN OPATZ SICK.

Frank A. Opatz, foreman of the Pennsylvania blacksmith shop, is suffering severely from a cold. He was confined to his bed today, but was reported as slightly improved.

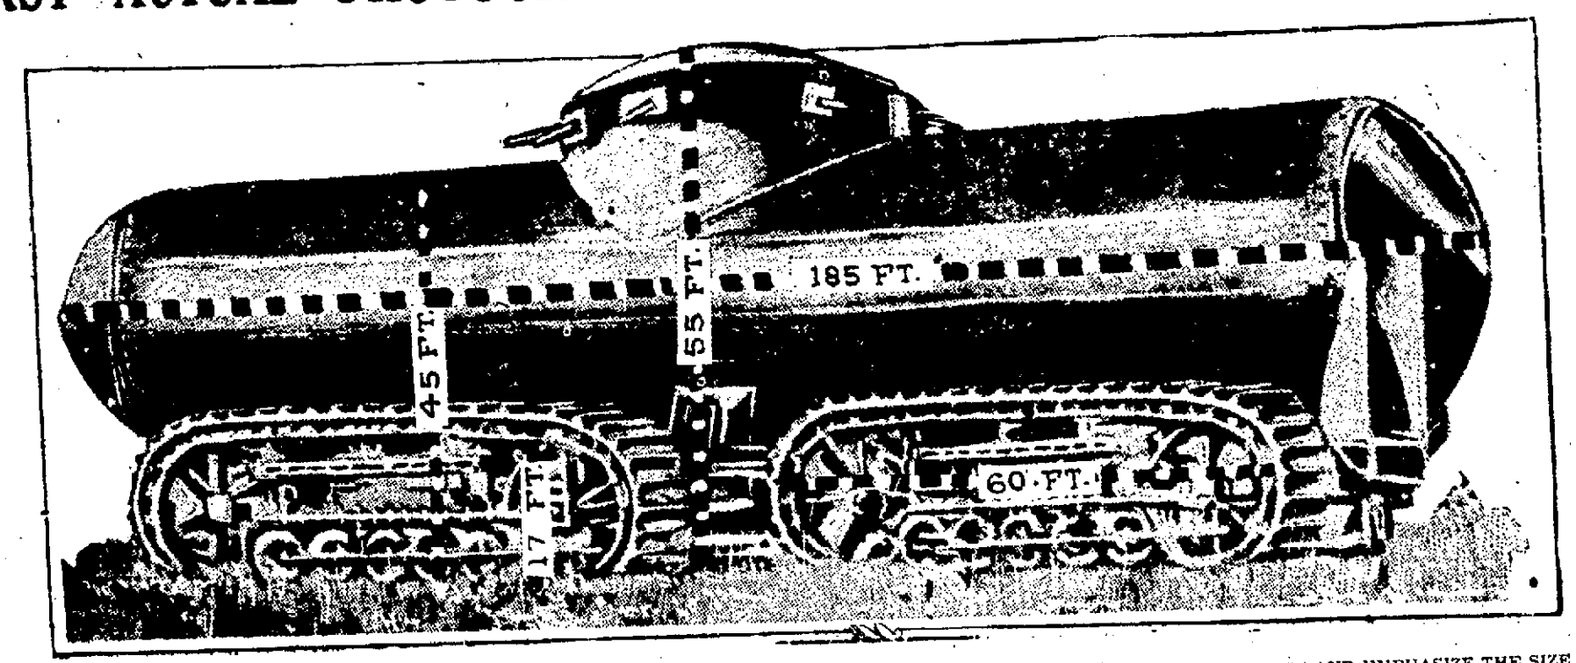
PROBABLY DUE TO WAR.

Proof of the advancing cost of chamois skins is the police report that the filling station belonging to C. H. Sweenor, who operates a store near the edge of the city on the Goshen road, was broken into, Monday night, and the chamois used for straining gasoline was cut from the filling funnel.

FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH OF BRITISH "TANK," USED IN WAR



THE FIGURES SHOWING THE DIMENSIONS OF THIS MONSTER DEATH ENGINE WERE PLACED ON THE PHOTOGRAPH BY AN ARTIST AND EMPHASIZE THE SIZE OF THE "TANK." A SOLDIER STANDING BESIDE THE "TANK" COULD REACH ONLY HALF WAY UP THE CATERPILLAR TREAD MILL. THE "TANKS" ARE MADE IN ENGLAND FROM SIMPLE FARM TRACTORS MANUFACTURED IN THE UNITED STATES.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 1.—(By Mail.)—I am sending you the FIRST ACTUAL PHOTOGRAPH of the great British "tank" to arrive on this side of the Atlantic.

This amazing war engine is mightier and more terrible than any cabled descriptions have led readers in Canada or the United States to believe.

Tanks such as that in the picture are equipped with four great treadmill devices, which turn on sets of gigantic cog-wheels. The treads are held taut by twenty solid rollers, five for each tread, and the bulk of the weight is borne by these rollers.

The purpose of the eight 15-foot cog-wheels is to lay a revolving track for the rollers, so that in effect they run on a self-laying railway, which is gathered up and relaid continually as the machine advances.

The treads are TEN FEET WIDE AND TWENTY FEET APART, so the tank's total width is forty feet. As its height is about forty-five feet, the tank is practically non-collapsible.

The treadmills, from top to bottom, are seventeen feet over all.

The tank itself is 185 feet long. Some tanks are said to be over 200 feet in length.

Each treadmill covers about sixty feet. This great length enables the tank to leap practically any trench ever built. As long as the front of the treadmill can reach the further side of the trench before the rear part of the front tread runs off, the machine will not dip.

In the center, above the tank, extends a rigid turret, from the apertures of which extend eight Lewis machine guns. Their muzzles are about fifty feet above the ground; the turret itself juts about ten feet above the top of the tank, making the total height of the machine some fifty-five feet!

RECORDS SHOW ALLEN AND WOMAN WERE WED

Ashtabula Man Entangled in Murder Case Near Grand Rapids.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 3.—James Allen, 64 years old, who says he is from Ashtabula, is being held by Kent county authorities pending completion of an investigation of the death of Mrs. Anna St. John, of Mayfield, N. Y., whose bullet-pierced body was found in a field near Grand Rapids last Sunday. County records show that Allen and Mrs. St. John were married here Sept. 19.

Officers allege that Allen, who, they claim, told them he salso has used the names James Allerton and John Williams, purchased a revolver some time ago and that he signed the name Allerton to the blank. He also registered at a local hotel as "Allerton," it is claimed. Allen's baggage was seized this afternoon. One letter which officers found in it was to Mrs. St. John, from a daughter at Elmira, N. Y. It was written from 221½ South Main street and cautioned Mrs. St. John to obtain a divorce from her husband. It is claimed that Allen and Mrs. St. John became acquainted through correspondence of a matrimonial agency. Until late the sheriff's force worked upon the theory that the dead woman was Mrs. Addie M. Kimball, of Chicago.

RECEIPTS INCREASE AND PRICES DECREASE

Down the hill and into the valley goes the price of hogs, safely seated on a large tobogganand it is still traveling, with nothing in sight to stop its mad rush downward. Fifty cents more was deducted from the paying price of Monday and packers and buyers, locally offered but $9.25 per hundred weight for the porkers Tuesday. This is the top price while other prices range all the way from $7.50 to $8.75 per hundred. Followers of the markets are of the opinion that with the steady increase in receipts the prices are bound to go even lower before the close of the week. Prices on other live stock is also starting on a decline.

While the live stock market is fast sinking downward the wheat market remains at the same level, with eyes cast upward, however. Slight rises are indicated in large trading centers and although the local millers are keeping their price at $1.48, they state that it is very likely that a few cents will be added in a few days. Other grain markets are also steady, with receipts medium.

The Barr street market was quiet Tuesday morning. Winter pears were plentiful but buying was very slow. Pumpkins were also much in evidence. The wholesale market was also inactive.

Chicago, Oct. 3.—Widening of the drought stricken region in Argentina with reports of crop losses becoming more and more severe, sent wheat soaring today to new high price levels for 1916. Opening prices, which ranged from 1c to 2¾c higher, with December at $1.57⅛ to $1.58¼, and May at $1.56¾ to $1.58⅛, were followed by moderate additional gains.

The close was firm, 2@2¼c to 2¼c net higher, with December at $1.58¾ and May at $1.57¾@1.57⅞.

The close was steady at ½c to ⅝@¾c net advance.

Corn rose with wheat. After opening ¼c to ⅝c higher, the market scored some further upturns.

In oats the growing influence was the strength of other cereals.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Oct. 3.—Minor changes, mainly upward, prevailed at today's moderate opening, trading, however, embracing more than the usual number of issues. The more striking exceptions included American Locomotive, which rose two points, with advances of one to two in other equipments and industrials, including Crucible Steel, General Electric, Industrial Alcohol and International Paper. Marines were slightly lower but the railway list gained fractions to over a point under the lead of Pacifics and Northwestern issues. A firmer tendency was shown in all quarters before the end of the first half hour.

Industrials, equipments and motors, together with sugars and gas shares, were conspicuous in the mixed dealings of the forenoon, certain speculative favorites again reflecting bearish opposition. Steel yielded over a point, Marines one to one and one-half and Baldwin, Studebaker, Republic Steel and some of the metals as much. General Motors made a new record on its nine point advance to 732, and secondary specialties were materially higher, Pittsburg Coal and International Nickel. Rails were steadier than other standard stocks, the Canadian group extending initial advances. Increased selling caused fresh irregularity at midday. Bonds were firm.

BABY BONDS MAKE A PERFECT SECURITY

First mortgages on local real estate are known to be the last word in investments as far as safety is concerned, and since Baby Bonds are secured by first mortgages, men who are qualified to advise small investors are quite unanimous in expressing their approval of this security as a saving method. Baby Bonds come in $10 denominations, are secured by first mortgages on local real estate, and bear six per cent interest. There are also similar bonds of $500 denominations, bearing the same rate of interest and secured in the same manner. For details regarding either, see the Wildwood Sales Company, Shoaff building.—Advertisement.

PLENTY FRESH AIR IN HARRISON HILL

Ample consideration for the fresh air supply of the future residents of Harrison Hill, the new addition located just south of Rudisill boulevard on Calhoun street, has been taken by providing open spaces such as parks, parkways, wide streets and playgrounds of generous proportions. Space which could have been converted into over a hundred lots has been used in this manner. The distance between the building lines on the opposite sides of Harrison boulevard is equivalent to the distance between Calhoun and Clinton streets, and the amount of space used in playgrounds is approximately the same as that occupied by Berry street, between Calhoun and Ewing streets. This feature is attracting many prospective purchasers and it is predicted that Harrison Hill will be the most rapidly built-up addition in the history of Fort Wayne. Details regarding lots in this tract may be secured from Hilgemann & Schaaf, North American building.—Advertisement.

CHRIST LUTHERAN FUND REACHES $24,857 MARK

Intense Enthusiasm Features Meetings of Workers Monday Evening.

When the intense enthusiasm, which marked last night's luncheon at the Christ Lutheran campaign headquarters, had subsided and the final reports were in, a grand total of $24,857 showed on the record chart as a result of the earnest work and endeavor put forth thus far in the great building fund campaign. Of this amount $13,842 represents the work accomplished by the teams of the men's division, while the women's division has turned in the magnificent sum of $11,015.

Last night's luncheon was characterized by great enthusiasm and applause as the various reports were announced. Nervousness and restless eagerness seemed to grip the entire body of workers to get away from headquarters and out into the streets of the city to continue their work. With but forty-eight hours in which to reach the coveted goal, the grim determination to put forth every ounce of energy in behalf of the cause at stake, radiated from every face.

Leading Teams.

The three leading teams in the campaign to date are: Number 3, Captain C. A. Dehm, $1,909; second, No. 7, Captain Harry Geyer, $1,086; third, team No. 6, Captain A. L. Frederick, $1,013.

The three leading teams in the men's division Monday evening were: First, team No. 10, Captain L. J. Johnson, which turned in for the day's work a total of $385; second, team No. 12, Captain W. H. Meyers, which turned in for the day's work a total of $291; third, team No. 6, Captain A. L. Frederick, which turned in for the day's work a total of $223.

LOCAL SPEED DEMONS IN SEVERAL ACCIDENTS

Citizens of Columbia City and Vicinity Have Entered a Protest.

Members of the Fort Wayne Motorcycle club have incurred the wrath of the citizens of Columbia City and vicinity, according to the Columbia City Commercial-Mail. The paper says:

"One farmer residing east of the city was compelled to take to the ditch with his horse and buggy and remain there for several minutes Sunday morning while the fifty motorists came tearing down the road at a sixty-mile clip and the three accidents occurring to various members of the organization leads to the belief that they are not qualified safely enough to convert the public highways into a race course.

"It is said upon good authority that the members of the so-called motorcycle club have as their hang-out a motorcycle store in Fort Wayne. That under the pretense of looking after the weal of autoists and vehicle drivers who should happen to get into trouble, they whizzed along the highways east and south of Fort Wayne until residents in that vicinity registered a stout kick and as a result of which the officials of Huntington and other cities close issued strict orders stopping the nuisance. It is said officials at Warsaw, which city has been visited by motorcyclists, served notice upon the Sunday pleasure riders that another visit to that city would result in the arrest of each and every member as soon as he arrived within the city limits."

The Accidents.

The Columbia City paper tells of the following accidents:

"Driving alone on his Indian twin cylinder motorcycle, Chester Chapman, a carpenter of Fort Wayne, entered as No. 5 in the race between the members of the Fort Wayne Motorcycle club between the Summit City and Tri-Lake, Sunday, when making the curve near the Ben Egolf turn just north of the city, struck into a mailbox on the left hand side of the road.

"Mr. Chapman struck the post in such a manner that a terrific jar severely injured his left foot. The shoe was torn at the ankle, but the force of the contact with the post shoved two of the meta-tarsal bones through the flesh at the bottom of the foot, and fractured them. Joe Youtz and Phil Farren, who arrived in their machine shortly after the accident, assisted the unfortunate motorcyclist into their auto and hurried him to the office of Drs. F. G. and O. W. Grisier, where an X-ray was taken and the foot placed in a cast after Mr. Chapman had first been anaesthetized and the broken bones set. There were several cuts about the heel and ankle and the injuries will disable Mr. Chapman for several weeks. He was taken home in the afternoon by friends.

"It was reported that No. 38, driver Pearl, bumped into the Ford car of S. E. Kessler in this city Sunday evening on his return to Fort Wayne, knocking a rear hub cap from the Ford and putting the motorcycle out of the running. Nobody injured.

"One of the motorcycle racers also bumped into another with a side car near the Humbarger hill north of this city and a man by the name of Daler in the side car was bruised up some what and the side car was badly smashed."

The Ladies Occult Science society will hold its regular meeting in Vordermark hall, Wednesday afternoon at 2:3 0o'clock. A cordial welcome to all.

HOW TO BE SLIM

If you are too fat and want to reduce your weight 15 or 20 pounds, don't starve and weaken your system, or think you must always be laughed at on account of your fat, but go to any good druggist and get a box of Oil of Korein capsules, take one after each meal and one before retiring at night.

Weigh yourself once a week and note what a pleasant and reliable method this is for removing superfluous fat from any part of the body.

It costs little, is absolutely harmless and a week's trial should convince anyone that it is unnecessary to be burdened with even a single pound of unsightly fat.

TO THE SMOKERS OF FORT WAYNE MADE CIGARS

Univoco A Novel Gold Seal

For the past year or more prices on all commodities used in the course of manufacture have risen steadily and now tobacco has reached the high-water mark. I have stood this increase in prices just as long as I safely could.

There are a few who are not already acquainted with the policy of this house; that of producing and marketing the utmost in quality and workmanship of cigars, and an even broader minded policy of selling those goods at a price worthy of the support of the dealer, both from his own and the smoker's viewpoint. That my policy has met with success is attested by the fact that AL HAZZARD'S CIGARS are one of the undisputed leading cigars of this market.

Trusting that my action shall meet with your consideration, I remain,

Most friendly yours,

AL HAZZARD.

William Ward Faces Charge of Assault on Eva Smith.

William Ward, 35, teamster, has retained his appreciation for feminine charms through three unhappy marriages, according to charges brought against him in police court, Tuesday morning by Eva Smith, 18, 2001 Winter street. The girl claims that Ward attacked her on the night of July 8.

Ward wore rubber soled shoes on the night of the assault, the girl tells. He creeped up behind her as she was walking home from town and sprang at her when she neared an alley on Oliver street, she testified. The girl fought Ward and succeeded in freeing herself, she told. She ran home as fast as she could, she said.

Miss Smith recognized Ward's face, she said, but did not know his name. She told her mother, at the time about the assault. Her mother advised her to tell the police. The girl found the patrolman at the Western Gas plant. She related her story to him.

"You had better find out who the fellow is and bring action against him," the officer told her.

Since that time the girl has had but one purpose, she says. That has been to find out the name of the man who tried to drag her into the alleyway.

Her chance came last Saturday night, she testified. She was walking home again. A man approached her. She looked around. Her heart beat much faster because she recognized the man who had attacked her, she told.

"Howdy do," he said.

"Good evening," she replied in her coyest manner, she tells.

"Won't you go to the show?" he asked.

"What is your name first?" she queried and her heart was in her mouth for she had never acted the part of "detectress" before.

"Will Ward," she says he answered.

"Where do you live," she asked, but not like she was going to have him arrested.

"On Fletcher street," he blurted right out, she tells.

"I won't go to the show or anything. Good bye," she said real quick and ran into a store nearby, because her mission of "detectress" had been performed.

Monday she told police her story again. Ward was arrested. He has been married three times and is paying towards the support of two of his wives, who have three children each. He has obtained three divorces and is living alone at 1513 Fletcher avenue, he says.

Ward claims he does not know the Smith girl except that he saw her a few times a year ago when she came to a neighbor's house to borrow coffee and sugar for her mother. He denies accosting her on the street.

Ward is held under $100 bond for further trial on Wednesday.

Highwayman Fined.

Nick Monier, Rumanian, charged with attempting to hold up Roth Keller Saturday night, and firing three shots at the automobile in which Keller was riding, was fined $150 and costs. He will serve the full sentence at the state farm.

Monier said, through an interpreter, that he did not know why he shot at Keller and that he was "crazy drunk."

City Has Hard Ways.

Otis Wells, farm hand, living near Decatur, is learning the cruel ways of the city. He came to Fort Wayne with $4. to have a good time, Monday afternoon. He was enticed into a house on Eureka street, he says and when they showed him roughly out into the street a few minutes later all his money was gone, he says. He inquired the way to the police station. There he told his story and offered to lead the officers to the house.

Police arrested Ethel Swain, colored, who was identified by Wells as being instrumental in getting his $4. Wells was detained at the police station over night much against his will. He was arraigned with the woman in police court on a charge of associating. The case was continued until Wednesday. Wells was led back to his cell because he could not furnish $25 bond.

"Gee-man-ee, but they treat a feller rough in the city," Wells complained.

Other Police Court Cases.

Case against Irene Rohyands, in which surety of the peace is asked, was continued indefinitely.

Fines assessed on charges of intoxication were: Joe Farrel, $5; Tony Smith, $1, and Frank Schmidt, $1. John Smith is held until Friday to answer a train climbing charge. Earl Newkirk, John Gibbons and Jack Rosmer were released from charges of loitering.

James T. Reid will appear Wednesday morning to answer a charge of allowing a cow to run at large.

Case of Leroy Staples, charged with assault and battery, by striking a railroad flagman with his automobile, will be heard Monday. Staples is held under $400 bond. Case against Samuel Bair, charged with wife desertion, was dismissed.

Used It Eleven Years.

There is one remedy that for many years has given relief from coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. It is probably the best known family cough medicine in the world and because it contains no opiates is strongly recommended for children as well as adults. Mrs. Chas. Rietz, Allen Mills, Pa., writes: "I have used Foley's Honey and Tar for eleven years and I would not be without it." It promptly relieves hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchial coughs, inflamed and congested membranes and permits refreshing sleep. Dreier Drug Co.—Advertisement.

LOCAL BUSINESS HOUSES TO FEATURE INTERESTING CONTESTS

$3,000.00 for a single word is the unusual offer made by a manufacturer who is looking for a new name. As everybody knows, there are many trade marks that are worth millions. One manufacturer refused ten million dollars for his trade mark. The offer of $3,000.00 is being made by the American Ever Ready Works, the well known manufacturers of "Everready" flashlights. The word they want to replace is "Flashlight." These portable electric lamps, so extensively used at night, have been on the market for twenty years. When they were first made they merely flashed instead of giving a continuous light. Hence the name "Flashlight" was created.

The manufacturers now say that the word is out of date, and they must have a new word which will better represent the service of the present Eveready.

To give everyone, young and old, in this city an opportunity to try for this $3,000.00 prize contest blanks will be distributed by well known local dealers. The contest runs from October 7th to November 7th, and many local dealers will be ready to distribute them beginning October 7th.

The week of October 7th to 14th is known as the annual "Eveready Big Drive," during which leading dealers all over the country make striking and beautiful window displays.

The following business houses in this city are deeply interested in this contest and will make window displays and distribute contest blanks beginning October 7th: Fort Wayne Hardware and Sporting Goods store, and Protective Electric Co.
